

HOW TO DO IT

With a scrape and a bow and respectfully begging you to make our appearance this week as Editor of the Herald. We have but few words to say in regard to our future course, preferring to let our course speak for itself.

1. In politics we shall be strictly Democratic, because we will not be anything else. 2. We will endeavor to advance the interests of Northern Nebraska and Dakota country in particular, to the extent of our limited ability.

3. We will send the Herald to each and every individual who pays $3 00 in advance. To these, we intend to adhere, tenaciously, and unless we die—live up to them. We will try and make the paper both readable and reliable; and shall endeavor to keep its columns free from personalities.

D. McLaughlin.

Harper's Ferry Insurrection.

Old Brown, Ossawatimie Brown, or Capt. Brown, who has figured rather conspicuously in the annals of Kansas as a real live Brown, and not a myth, made his appearance at Harper's Ferry, Md., on the 18th day of last month, with a number of confederates.

The insurgents had posted themselves in the Arsenal at that place, arrested some of the prominent officers, and commenced a wholesale emancipation of the slaves. His object as stated by himself, was to make free states of Virginia and Maryland, by arming the slave and inciting them to open rebellion and acts of hostility.

It is on account of his popularity, and his ability to assist Gen. Estabrook, and because he did so, that the editors of that paper feel so sore, and vent their spite in this small and contemptible way. Elections. The recent elections has resulted in but little change—none for the better however—of the political complexion of the St. Joe, where they have been held.

DEATH OF CAPT. A. WINELAND. Andrew Wineland, commander of the steamers of Omaha and well and favorably known to many, if not all, of our citizens, died at his residence in St. Louis, on the 18th inst, of typhoid fever.

Ward and the Celestials. Our Minister to China, Mr. Ward, has placed himself in an awkward situation by his inconsideration. At the late fight between the English and Chinese, Mr. Ward was present and harbored neutrality with the side of a diplomat, allowed Commodore Tensack to materially assist the English in being beaten, assisting the wounded and visiting the English command during the fight.

The devotees of Paganism had a grand time about two weeks ago, in witnessing a scene of brutality, that has been pronounced by those who are supposed to be the best judges of the season. Two men respectively named Price and Kelley, rushed into each other in a style recognized by the rules of the ring.

The Speaker. The last number of the Herald presented the name of Judge Tuffe as a candidate for Speaker of the House. The last issue of the Nebraska says:

The Dakota City Herald raises the name of this gentleman (Judge Tuffe) Representative from Leavenworth County, as a candidate for the Speaker of the House. Judge Tuffe would undoubtedly make a very good presiding officer.

The Sioux City Register volunteers the following: The Dakota City Herald dominates our friend Judge Tuffe of Nebraska for Speaker of the next Nebraska Legislature.

JUDGES WARELY. The last number of the Nebraska Republic contains an article reflecting on the character of the Judge of this District, for taking part in the late political contest, and supporting his old and personal friend, Gen. E. Estabrook; and is greatly distressed that the judicial ermine will thereby be in some way tarnished.

The Duke of Wellington, in his private and history letter to Mr. Canning, in regard to a misunderstanding between them in 1827, used this language: "I am not in the habit of depending upon such matters, hastily or in anger, and proof of this that I never had a quarrel with any man in my life."

Gen. Don Jose Gaierra de la Concha, Captain General of Cuba, has resigned his post—Queen Isabella, accepts the resignation, and expresses herself entirely satisfied with his official conduct, and has appointed in his stead, Don Francisco Serrano y Dominguez.

A large fire occurred in Leavenworth, on the 24 of last month, destroying the entire business portion of the city. The loss is estimated at $125,000. The out-fitting establishment of Russell, Majors & Waddell, was among the buildings consumed, and their loss is set down at $75,000.

Minister Mason. This distinguished gentleman, United States Minister, Plenipotentiary to the court of France, died recently after a short illness in Paris. He was a native of Virginia, and one of her most prominent sons.

The Zurich conference is getting on and is farther from accomplishing anything definite and satisfactory to the powers concerned than it was at its first meeting. The whole Italian question is a labyrinthian concern and those having the matter, have got about as far as a boy would with a Chinese puzzle.

The York Star says that President Buchanan, on his journey to Wheatland, on Wednesday, left the cars at Wrightsville to walk the bridge to Columbia, as is his custom.

Good—And Perfectly true.—The Rock Island Argus relates a good story of a discussion between a Democrat and a Republican at that place a few days ago. They contended for the superiority of the white race over that of the negro.

At the State Fair in Ohio, the first premium for the best ten-acre field of corn was awarded to a citizen of Dearborn county, who produced the necessary certificates from responsible parties that his field of ten acres, yielded on an average, one hundred and ninety-six bushels to the acre.

Wendell Phillips, in opening the Fraternity course of lectures, in Boston, made a characteristic attack on Daniel Webster. He said that the man who would strike the head from the statue recently erected would do a great service, and his name would be immortalized.

The Sioux City Register. This paper has purchased the entire stock of the Sioux City Eagle and Sioux City news, boasts of one paper. The Register is democratic in politics and betrays marked ability in its editorials and neatness and skill in its mechanical department.

Forty Hundred Fish!—Four wagon loads at one haul—J. F. Warner Esq., and a number of others went seining in a small lake a couple of miles below Omaha on Tuesday last. They caught forty hundred in two hours and filled four wagons with one haul of the seine.

A Lyceum.—Would it not be well for our citizens to take steps towards establishing a lyceum here, the coming winter. We are of the opinion that more good would result by spending an occasional evening in debating questions, than while them away over a game of "chips."

Subscription. We are now ready to receive subscription for the Herald. As we propose to accommodate ourselves to circumstances we will receive in exchange, for our paper, corn, oats, potatoes, butter, eggs, fresh, fowl and fish, at market prices, or cash, if it is handy.

Word to the Wise. We will send this number of the Herald, to all its old readers, and hope as soon as they get through reading it, they will lay the paper down, take up a pen, write us a letter, and enclose us $2.00 for one year's subscription.

CLEVELAND PLAIN DEALER. We ask our readers in seriousness to read the prospectus of this well established and well tried Democratic journal, in another column. After subscribing for the Herald, if you have one dollar and a half left in your old clothes send it to Gray, and get the Dealer.—If you can not raise but a dollar send it and get a paper that will not disgust you while reading it.

Legislators from Northern Nebraska. The citizens of this portion of the territory, ought to feel somewhat proud at the fact, that a comparison they can make with any other part of the territory, in legislation. For talent, ability, natural and acquired, discretion and sagacity, we will pit ours in the legislative arena, against any other section; not that we wish to be sectional in the least, in the persons of Judge Collier, Judge Tuffe, Judge Taff, Col. Bates, Geo. A. Hinckley the public recognize men of ability and merit.

FLORA TEMPLE.—This animal has again beaten herself. On the 13th of October, she trotted her mile at Kalamazoo, Michigan, in 2:19 3/4 seconds. Fastest time ever made.

BATES HOUSE. This splendid hotel is the finest public house north of Omaha. It is just such a one as the wants of the travelling public and the prospects of this place demand.

DOES THE NONPARIEL EXIST?—We are frequently asked by interested parties, if the Council Bluffs Nonpariel is still published. As that organ has neglected or refused to exchange with us, we are unable to give a positive answer to the queries of interrogators.
