District Court.

The Third Judicial District Court commenced its session on Monday last the 7th inst. Judge Wakely presiding. U. S. District Atty Gen'l Bowen, and Deputy U. S. Marshal, Capt. Page, were in attendance. District Atty Bowen was also present. There was tolerable full docket most of which were civil actions.

Judge Wakely's charge to the U. S. Grand Jurors, was a master effort in a legal way. His manner was cool, careful, and concise; while the address was explicit and profound and was listened to by all, with the deepest interest.

Joshua R. Giddings.

The only political respect we have for this man, is the manliness and ability with which he advocates his political views both in and out of Congress. When "Old Brown" was asked a question at Harper's Ferry in reference to the connection of Giddings with the movement, he declined answering it. Giddings who was in Philadelphia at the time became alarmed and considering all things, concluded it would be politic to deny any previous knowledge of the conspiracy, and accordingly did so. He found himself in not an enviable situation, and made an explanation which was decidedly worse for him than Brown's refusal to answer the questions that were put to him. Giddings in his Philadelphia explanation does admit that he visited Brown to Jefferson, that he did listen to one of Brown's lectures; that he did have Brown to go home with him where he enjoyed Giddings' hospitalities, and that he replenished Brown's coffers while there. In this matter Giddings has made the matter worse than it otherwise could have been, by endeavoring to extricate himself from the suspicion which Brown's refusal to answer a question gave rise to.

Seward & Greeley.

The evidence elicited in the Harper Ferry case, shows that it was intended to spring the insurrection some months since. The N. Y. Herald states that for this reason the leaders of the Republican party, Seward and Greeley, left the country, so as not to be in at the death; the former going to Europe and the latter to California. This may be a clear remembrance to Bennett but as will fail to impress it on the public mind at large. We think Seward and Greeley entirely unprepared to be seized up in this way, although we consider it the natural result of the former's "irrepressible conflict" doctrine.

WINTER.—Winter commenced yesterday in this locality. It snowed, blizzards, and froze all day, and was as cold as an iceberg. We are informed that 80 miles above here they had good sleighing during the past week.

California.

There will be a spirited contest in the next legislature of this state for the Senatorship, which was vacated by the death of Broderick. There are three runners about with respect to the intension of Gov. Waller, in regard to an appointee. The Governor is a candidate for the vacancy and should he appoint any one to all the position until the legislature shall make a choice, such appointee may prove a formidable competitor. It is therefore confidently conjectured by some who pride themselves on being posted, that things will remain as they are until the legislature take the matter up for consideration.

TRAILING.—Parties not having the fear of the law before their eyes, stalked in or walked into the court room, on Monday last, and relieved the clerk's table of a quantity of stationery, which had been furnished by the marshal, Capt. Page. To avoid detection we advise them not to bring the pilfered article; but if their conscience revolts at the commission of what they have done, they can just deposit it at the Herald office and no questions will be asked.

New Flour Mill.—Bodard & Bosch's new Flour mill will be ready next week to do all kinds of milling. Corn, Buckwheat and Wheat will be ground in the mill.

Capt. Brown.

This man has been tried in Virginia, on the charges of insurrection, and murder, and has been found guilty, and sentenced to be hung on Friday the 24 day of December next. Throughout the trial he was the same unmovable unswerving Brown that he was before. He used the same justification for his conduct that he offered previous to the trial, viz: that he did as he would wish to be done by. He said he considered the slave in the same light as he did the white man, and felt it to be his duty to assist him to gain his freedom. He had no design, still less a desire, to commit murder and to create an insurrection, but he found it necessary to do these in order to accomplish his views.

Every day since he sprung the trap has brought forth new developments showing that the movement was not only wide spread, but formidable and had things been executed as planned and mapped out there would have been a vast deal of trouble on hand.

Brown was honest in conviction but no farther. His sympathy for the slave was genuine; there was no mock philanthropy about him in that respect. He had no scruples of conscience to steal a negro from his master in Virginia or Missouri worth 1,000 or 10,000 dollars run him off to Canada and there give him liberty to starve or freeze to death.

In this matter the "conflict" doctrine was carried out. Brown only practiced what he preached. We can not go as far as some of our contemporaries who fasten the blame on the Republican party; we only fasten it on that crowd.

District Attorney.

Below we give the official vote of this District for Attorney which shows that Doane has 108 majority over Mason, and 126 over Warner.

Geo. W. Doane,	512
Geo. W. Mason,	204
J. S. Warner,	180
G. A. Mason,	49
G. W. Mason,	24
Geo. T. Mason,	50
Jesse S. Warner,	23
G. A. Warner,	9
Wm. Warner,	1

Chapman is elected District Attorney in the first District over Hitchcock by nearly 2 to 1.

We learn from L. C. Voigt Esq., that he has received a private letter from New York dated October 27th which gives an account of another fearful accident, the previous night. The steamboat New World was sunk. She had 50 passengers on board, a large part of whom were saved by the timely assistance of another steamboat.

The Governor has appointed Thursday the 24 instant as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer.

A terrible accident occurred on the Oshkosh and Watertown Railroad, Wisconsin, on the 1st instant, by an or jumping on the track. Thirteen persons were killed and twenty five wounded.

Oh! Ah! Indeed!

Daily has given Estabrook notice that he will contest his election. Daily must seriously consider what he is doing and it would be well for those who have charge over the man to guard him closely or he may break loose. There is nearly a column of "Pratt" in the Republican signed by him probably.

Married.

In St. John's Church, Keosauqua, Iowa, on the 20th of last month GEORGE W. DOANE, of Decatur, Nebraska, to MISS EMMA H. GREENWOOD, of Vincennes, Indiana.

It will be seen by the above, that our able District Attorney has married him a wife.

We wish him and his lady all the joys this villainous world can afford, and with the Million, we pray

May Heaven above careen them,
May Fortune never distress them,
May thumping children bless them;
And plenty of that name.

WOOD.—We again earnestly, beseechingly, shiveringly, and tearfully impudently somebody and everybody to bring us a load of wood, immediately. The pile from which we have been extracting what we heretofore, needed, is growing hopelessly small, in consequence of the united efforts of sundry, insatiable characters to make the wood go farther, than the owners had any desire it should. This "institution" will freeze us or, vulgarly, "dry up," if wood—good wood too—is not speedily forthcoming.

The New York News says, in touching the tragic end of Senator Broderick: The day he left New York for California, in 1859, we met him on the steps of the old banking house of the State of New York. He had drawn his last dollar from that institution. He said to us, "Good bye; I am off for the end of glory." "Where are you going to, Dave?" we asked. "To California—never to return until I come back a Senator of the United States." We laughed at this remark, considering it the grandiose boast of a reckless desperate youth, who had as much idea of actually carrying it into execution as he had of becoming King of England. He said to us last winter, "How strange it is, that after fighting all my life to become a Senator, I don't care a button for it. It has no charms for me. What is it, after all? I am not happy." What a commentary are those remarks upon human greatness, so productive of human happiness.

NOTICE.

To SHAREHOLDERS of Property in Dakota City, and others:

There have been several assignments made from time to time, to defray the expenses of the company, a large proportion of which has not been paid, and in each case the assignee has been required to pay the same. It is now proposed that all who have not paid, or will not promptly immediately. The books of the company have been kept in such a manner, that vouchers will have to be presented by those who have paid; that their shares may be properly credited.

One assignment was made, October 6th, 1880, for $4.00, one October 7th, 1880, for $5.00, one June 8th, 1881, for $15.00, one July 27th, 1881, for $2.00, one September 8th, 1881, for $10.00, one June 12th, 1882, for $3.00. Total, $49.00.

The whole amount of assignment, in each share of stock of the Dakota City Company, and the shareholders will remember, that in the articles of incorporation, all the private property of the Stockholders is, bound for the assessments made against the share registered in his name, or that he may hold.

And further:

At a meeting of the Dakota City Company, held June 12th, 1882, there was a resolution passed ordering the President to give notice to all the Shareholders to pay the amount due within sixty days, or in default of payment all the stock on which the assessments were not paid in sixty days, from the date thereof, should be sold to the highest bidder, and the assessment paid; and the surplus if any, to be subject to the order of the Shareholders.

On the 23rd day of August 1882, there was another resolution passed, giving the President power to do what was most expedient in his judgment with the property and assets of the Company, to meet the liabilities of the same.

AND NOW.

By order of the President, T. ELWOOD CLARK, we give Notice.

That if the above is not complied with in sixty days, the resolutions of the company will be enforced, and all the stock of the company that the assessments are not paid on, will be sold to pay the liabilities of the company; and all the property of the city within the bounds, to wit: from Elm Street to Vine Street and from 8th street to 20th street, has been entered by the Mayor, and all outside that by Trustees; and the time for procuring warrants deeds of these parties closes within six months from the date of their entry; and all the property not decided will be forfeited. SHAREHOLDERS AND CREDITORS will take warning that on the 9th day of January, A. D. 1883, all the stock with all the property not covered by deed in Dakota City, will be sold to the highest bidder, and the debt of the company settled up, if only a dividend is declared.

N. B. We would further say that those who have not obtained deeds to the lots drawn on their shares, can obtain the same by calling upon the Secretary and paying the assessment due.

W. M. S. HUGHES, Secretary.
Dakota City, N. T. Nov. 9th 1882.

NOTICE.

TO M. H. CHAFFE, and all others whom it may concern.

Sir—You are hereby notified that I shall appear before B. Bates, Mayor of Dakota City, on the 25th day of November, 1882, and demand of him, as Mayor, a conveyance of Lot No. 12, in Block 174, as a conveyance of the same. At what time a place you may appear and test my rights.

ANDREW STEWART.
Dakota City, Nov. 4, 1882.

LEGAL NOTICE.

TO WINTHROP BLAKE:

You will take notice, that on the 18th day of September 1882, a petition was filed by Thomas T. Collier, in the clerk's office of the third Judicial District of the Territory of Nebraska, for the county of Dakota, against your self and Amos S. Parker, stating in substance that on the 21st day of July 1859 I purchased of said Amos S. Parker a certain Military Bounty Land Warrant, Number 84,874, for 180 acres, issued under the act of Congress of March 3d 1855, to said Winthrop Blake, and was sold and assigned by said Blake to said Amos S. Parker, and that said warrant was sold and assigned by said Parker to me, the said Thomas T. Collier; and that on the 21st day of July 1859 I lost the said Land Warrant, that I have not in any manner sold or assigned the said warrant to any person or persons; that I have not received a consideration for the said warrant of any description; and that I am now the legal owner of said warrant, and that the legal title and ownership to said warrant be adjudged to me. And you are hereby required to appear and answer or demur to said petition on the first day of the next term of the District court, for said county to be held at Dakota City on the 7th day of November, A. D. 1882.

THE DOLLAR DEALER.

FOR

1860.

NEW VOLUME—NEW TYPE.

For twenty years the Cleveland Plain Dealer has been owned and controlled, published and Edited by the same individual. It has never missed a Publication Day, and has been a Democratic Ticket. It has fought its way against a National Circulation, and a National Reputation. From Maine to California the Plain Dealer is known and read, and never was in so good a condition politically or in better place politically, as to fight the battles of Democracy than now. For the coming year it will be particularly devoted to POPULAR SOVEREIGNTY AND THE PRESIDENCY!

It has against high authority, dared to advocate the right of "the people of a Territory as well as a State, to regulate their own institutions in their own way," and it will continue to do so against all high authority "the world, the flesh and the devil." Against all Leecompton Constitution, Slave Codes, and the re-opening of the Slave Trade, this Paper is devotedly dedicated from this time, henceforth forever.

"Come one! come all! This rock shall fall!" From its first issue as seen as it.

Besides the current News of the Day, the Plain Dealer will contain in each number a TALE Correspondence from a host of Clubs, butlers, and telegraphic Reports from all parts of the World.

The Commercial Department will be under the sole charge of Jas. Brokenshire Esq., who is acknowledged to be one of the best Market Reporters in the country.

The Local Department will be presided over by that original and laughter provoking Artemus Ward Esq., whose Letters, Jokes, Oddities and Quotations, are alone worth the price of the paper. In short, we are prepared to present one of the
