TO MISSOURIANS.

exhibited by the abolition rulers of the calamity to take refuge. voice in civil and political affairs.

We find the above pressing invitation in the Nebraska City News, It turmoil and confusion by the advent of a few thousand bushwhackers-telling | them that here they will not be "deprived of their inalienable right in having a voice in civil and political affairs." They once possessed that inathe last four years than !--- miented an rights they possessed, and are only suffered to live by the elemency of a magnanimous Government.

"Our prairies are wide enough, our valleys rich enough" to afford homes for all loyal, law-abiding men, from whatever State they may come; but we cannot see how any sane man can have the face to extend an invitation to settle in our midst, and take part in our social and political affairs, such characters as will form a large proportion of these who are disfranchised by the adoption of the new Constitution of Missouri. It is true, that many, probably, who are thus disfranchised, are now satisfied with the experiment they have tried of breaking up the Government, and are willing to abide by the powers that be; but there is another class who were always a curse to Missouri, and would only be an eyesore to any community in which they would settle. To this latter class we would say-the invitation of the News notwithstanding-you had better find some more congenial clime than Nebraska will prove to you. THE SPIRIT OF ACCEPTANCE. The Press, of Nebraska City, in answering the questions we propounded last week, whether men who had been compelled to lay down the bayonet should be allowed the ballot, says it depends upon the spirit in which they accept the new order of things. This is very true. But we are of opinion that there are but few who have held out to the present time in Missouri, but that still entertain the same hatred toward Union men that first induced them to join the rebel ranks, and have only left the field because there was no hope of victory in that quarter. They are beaten in the fight-that is all. They are none the less hostile toward our free institutions, and only await the opportunity to involve the country in difficulty of some kind. To be sure, there is no chance for them to ever again shake the foundations of the Government, as ing for pardon and amnesty.

PRACTICE VS. PRECEPT. "On the 12th of June, at Peshawar, forty men were tried, convicted, and sentenced to be blown from the guns. The execution was a dreadful sight. Three sides of a square were formed by British troops, and in the centre ten guns were planted, pointing outward. A prisoner was bound to each gun, his back placed against the muzzle, and his arms fastened firmly to the wheel. The signal is now given of course, cuts the body in two; and human trunks, heads, legs and arms may be seen for an instant flying about in all directions. As there were only ten guns used on this occasion, the mutilated criminals had to be removed four times. -- The scene and stench were overpowering. Precaution was not taken to remove the sponge-and-load men from the muzzles of the guns -The consequence was that they were greatly bespattered with blood. -
