

COUNTY UNION COMMITTEE.

The members of the Union Central Committee of Cass County, N. T., are requested to meet at Plattsmouth, on Saturday, Sept. 23, at 1 o'clock P. M.

THE PACIFIC RAILROAD.

We make the following extract from an article which appeared in the Chicago Times of the 5th inst. It would appear from this that a strong effort is being made, with a fair probability of success, to bring the Pacific Railroad to Plattsmouth (or, as it is termed in the article "Mouth of the Platte River.")

ATLANTIC CABLE.

The latest advices from the Atlantic Cable state that the cable part-d at noon on the 2d inst., in 1900 fathoms of water. It was grappled for three different times, but their tackle was not sufficient to raise it.

Notwithstanding the prophecy of some of our shrewdest men, that the tide of emigration would be turned from the West to the South at the close of the war, there appears to be no abatement of the general Western move as yet; on the contrary, the West is attracting more attention at the present time than ever before.

The great times to the west of us are attracting the attention of almost the entire civilized world. Thousands of men, with that longing desire for gold, which we all possess, are rushing thither. Capital is finding its way here. Railroads and telegraph lines are being built, and the Great West bids fair to be settled up at an earlier day than was even dreamed of a few years ago.

Nebraska now offers the greatest inducements to the emigrant of any portion of the West. The settler here does not have to contend with the uncertainty that would be in the mining regions, where he has no certain guide to tell where the treasure is hidden.

The great Salt Basins of Nebraska are another inducement to settle in that portion of the Territory. The water procured from these Springs are said to contain a greater percent of Salt than at any of the Eastern works; and all that is needed is the investment of a sufficient amount of capital in the proper machinery, and the will to push the work ahead.

The colored people of San Jose, California, were invited to join in celebrating the Fourth of July; but some disloyal white men raised objections, and the colored people, with more success than those who opposed them, declined the invitation; whereupon the Mercury of that city says:

We cannot blame the colored people of San Jose for not wishing to join in the procession. There is much justifiable pride in their minds against associating with Copperheads, some of whom were not excluded from participating in the late exercises.

Forbes, of the Humboldt Register, San Francisco, has no faith in the effort to raise the Aquilla by means of a coffee dam. He says it reminds him of a cow in Illinois which he saw swallow a thistle and coffee dam head.

THE REBEL SPIRIT.

As a fair sample of the spirit of the rebels, either North or South, we make the following extract from the testimony of Robert Brown in regard to the language used at the notorious Broad Street Meeting, in New York, held ostensibly for the purpose of securing a speedy trial of Jeff. Davis before a civil tribunal.

Mr. Cutler declared the declaration of independence to be the magna charta of human liberty, and quered it to prove that the Southern States had the right to secede.

Another person, one of the New Yorkers, remarked that the State of New York refused to enter the Federal Union except the right was assured to her to withdraw it at any time.

Mr. R. M. Livingston, of Mobile, Ala., remarked how few people had ever read the constitutions of the different States. He had read them, and found in several of the constitutions of the States the expressed right to secede.

Mr. Livingston, now wrought up to a high pitch of enthusiasm, made the declaration: "In twenty-five years the man that now occupies the South of having committed treason, will be looked upon as a madman and a fool."

James Buchanan is the victim of his own personal and political popularity. He can no more escape it, than he can his own shadow.

James Bowman is a citizen of Pennsylvania who has been elected to the office of Sheriff of that State. He is a man of high standing in the community.

Residence of Gen. Grant. The rumor that Gen. Grant was about to fix his residence at Philadelphia appears to have been unfounded.

A New Yorker asked Mr. Livingston how Abraham would be likely to vote at the next election for members of Congress.

Working men are being lured to another party of enthusiasm, he declared that thirty-five hundred noble, long-haired Southerners had been lured away for many months, an army of seventy, five hundred and Union troops.

The meeting was about to break up. Mr. Livingston remarked: "Gentlemen, you will want a great deal of money."

The Southern men present were all of them open and avowed secessionists. The Northern men at the meeting were in the most perfect accord of sentiment and sympathy with them.

The Human Hair - To number the hairs of the head has been in all ages accounted an impossible feat.

Traitors in Kentucky. Speaking of the late election, the Louisville Journal says: "We have for some time been trying, not wholly without success, to convince ourselves that the number of actual rebels in soul has been diminished since the close of the war; but in view of the results of last Monday's election in some parts of Kentucky, we are apprehensive that we have been very mistaken."

One of the most notable negro suffrage Copperheads in Krokuk is who he calls his wife. So says the Gate City. Comment is unnecessary.

Judge Gladson, of Mississippi, thinks the war has settled two things:

1. Slavery is dead. 2. States cannot secede. The Judge is a wise man.

The Postmaster-General has recently concluded contracts for carrying the mail between Richmond and Petersburg and between Petersburg and Weldon, N. C.

A B-ton paper states that the principal hotel of that city have had all their stock of cigars seized by National officers for all good infractions of the Internal Revenue Laws.

The expedition sent out from Nashville by Gen. Thomas, to Carrollville, Tenn., is stirring up a nest of thieves. Two of Thomas' men have been killed. Several thieves have been shot or hung and others captured.

A series of letters published throughout the country, purporting to come from Miss Clara Barton, the philanthropist at Anderson, Ga., have been discovered in Washington to be forgeries.

The Copperheads don't seem to be so much in a hurry about Tyler's President Johnson, since he hung four of the note active members of their party.

In Southern Kansas, the people are getting terribly in earnest in putting down the thing. Not long since, six thieves were hung in Franklin County, without the least benefit of clergy.

CANNOT ESCAPE HIS GREATNESS. James Buchanan is the victim of his own personal and political popularity.

James Bowman is a citizen of Pennsylvania who has been elected to the office of Sheriff of that State.

Potato Rot - We regret to learn that the potato crop in this part of the country is likely to prove a failure.

The long continued rains have had the effect of killing the vines and rotting the roots. Many potato fields west of this city have the appearance of having been burned over, being black and blighted. We learn that in examination, the new potatoes in those fields are found to be full of white specks, and rotting rapidly.

A Minnesota regiment, the 14th, en route for home, numbered about nine hundred men, and about every man had a contraband, a coon, and a grey squirrel. The pets filled several box cars.

FARWELL ADDRESS.

DR. B. FRANKLIN. Just discovered, and now published for the first time.

CURIOUS AND THRILLING DOCUMENT! FELLOW CITIZENS: The long, long fingers are "reaching for me." Soon I must "go for it." A word of advice before I go. The glorious sun of hope is peeping up from his imperial couch. He dresses himself in the full regalia of Royalty. He putteth on his most captivating grin, to make glad this, the city of Promise. The day of our Redemption PRICES draweth to a close.

FELLOW CITIZENS: Throw high your cap; yell forth ye sturdy youths; below loud ye broad chested; prolong the glad, soul throbbing shout, ye long necked, until the slumbering demons of the far off rocks, are aroused; Mothers, teach ye to your children, that all the ends of the earth may know, and rejoice with exulting joy, that the HYDRA HEADED MONSTER, THE HIGH PRICES, THE WOLF IN YAMPEE, THAT LONG HATH BEEN SICKING OUR LIFE BLOOD, IS NOW A THROTTLED!
