Our Nebraska City friends and the other side of the river in Iowa, have been laboring for the last four or five years to divert the B. & M. R. R. from this point. They work a while to get it down there, and finding no encouragement, then tern in and try to injure the company by howling about their - land grant being a swindle. Go on, gentlemen; the road is being pushed rapidly and surely towards Plattsmouth, and we will be able to announce the commencement of work at this point ere long.
