

PLASTIC SLATE, FOR ROOFING AND OTHER PURPOSES.

The process of reconstructing Slate Stone from a disintegrated state was PATENTED FEB. 21st, 1865.

Pulverized Slate and Viscous Matter, (the latter possessing qualities of geological and chemical affinity for the former) and is a development of one of the simple but unalterable tendencies of nature.

AS A ROOFING MATERIAL IT STANDS UNRIVALLED. A man—it adapts itself to every shape and slope. Non-combustible, impervious, non-expansive and non-contracting.

Frost Does not Crack nor Heat Dissolve it. The only Roofing Material ever discovered that will resist the action of the elements as long as the structure it protects. Being susceptible of little if any wear from exposure and PERFECTLY FIRE-PROOF. It is unequalled as a coating for railroad and farm buildings, bridges, bottoms of vessels, vaults, etc.

THE Chicago Republican

Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly Editions. PROSPECTUS FOR 1868.

The "Republican," after a period of unexampled prosperity, now enters upon the year 1868 with a vigor and energy worthy of its name and history. The name given to this paper was chosen in honor of the illustrious and patriotic statesman, Abraham Lincoln. It opposes the pernicious policy of the British free-traders, who desire to make the United States as dependent upon England as India or Ireland.

ITS COMMERCIAL DEPARTMENT is under the superintendence of one of the best commercial reporters in the northwest, and the same already gained for it as one of the best commercial papers will be maintained, making it an invaluable daily visitor to every business man.

THE DAILY EDITION Of the Republican contains the latest news by telegraph, express and mail, up to an early hour in the morning; editorials, carefully and ably written on the different topics of the day, and reports of the Chicago and Eastern markets, full and complete.

THE TRI-WEEKLY EDITION, Issued each Monday, Wednesday, and Friday morning, contains the news of two days, carefully reviewed and arranged.

THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN, A carefully compiled edition, laden with news—Religious, political, agricultural, and general—and in short, anything and everything that tends to make a live, interesting paper.

EVERY MAN OUGHT TO SUBSCRIBE FOR A NEWSPAPER. In this enlightened age of the world's history we need not a go the necessity for every man to subscribe for a newspaper. The results of the coming year will be of unusual interest to every citizen. We are approaching a political campaign of great importance. Every citizen should be well informed respecting the current topics of the times, and in no way can this information be obtained so early by a constant reader of a first class metropolitan newspaper.

Such a paper is the Republican. It will be found to be complete in every department, and of a character that will commend it to the general popular interest and support. Its name indicates, it is radical in the core. It is the friend to the whole North and West, and will continue to advocate its welfare and advancement.

Persons interested in the formation of clubs will do well to bestow attention to the following rates: TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION TO THE REPUBLICAN.

Daily per annum, $12 00; Club of five copies, one year, $55 00; Tri-Weekly, per annum, $6 00; Club of five copies, one year, $27 00; Club of ten copies, one year, $50 00; Club of twenty copies, one year, $100 00; Club of fifty, and copy of Tri-Weekly to get up of club, $145 00; Club of one hundred, and copy of Daily to get up of club, $280 00.

Those acting as our Agents may retain 10 per cent commission instead of the extra copy offered, if they prefer. Money sent at our risk must be either P. O. order, express, draft or in registered letter. Address Chicago Republican Company, Chicago, Ill.

Unquestionably the best Sustained Work of the kind in the World. HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE. Critical Notices of the Press.

The most popular monthly in the world.—[New York Observer.] We must refer, in terms of eulogy to the high tone and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American People; and the popularity of an acquired literature. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with wood-cuts, and it continues to list the rarest and the most philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the best journals. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—[Tribune's Guide to American Literature, London.]

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—[Zion's Herald, Boston.]

Subscriptions. 1868. The publishers have perfected a system of mailing by which they can supply the Magazine, Weekly, or Tri-Weekly, to those who prefer to receive their periodicals directly from the Office of Publication.

Terms: Harper's Magazine, one year, $4 00. An extra copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Tri-Weekly, will be supplied gratis for every Club of five subscribers at $4 each, in case remittances; or six copies for $20.

A complete set of our comprising thirty-five volumes in neat cloth binding, will be sent by express, freight at expense of purchaser, for $25 00 per volume. Single volumes by mail, postpaid, 33 Cents each, for binding, 65 cents, by mail, postpaid.

Subscriptions sent from British North America, Provinces must be accompanied with 25 cents additional, to prepay United States postage. Address HARPER & BROTHERS, Franklin Square, New York.

A Repository of Fashion, Pleasure and Instruction. HARPER'S BAZAR. The publishers will commence on November 1st, the issue of "Harper's Bazar," a Weekly Illustrated Family Journal, devoted to Fashion and Home Literature. Their aim is twofold: to supply the existing need of a Weekly Fashion Newspaper, and to combine therewith a first-class literary journal, which will be indispensable to every household.

Arrangements have been made, at an immense cost, with the most celebrated Fashion Papers of Europe, especially with the famous "Illustration," which supplies the fashions to the leading journals of the world, to furnish the same to them in advance, so that henceforth the fashions will appear in Harper's Bazar simultaneously with their publication in Paris and Berlin—an advantage enjoyed by no other journal in the country.

The patrons of Harper's Bazar will receive every fortnight large illustrations containing forty to fifty full-sized patterns, of ladies' dresses, and children's bonnets, cloaks, dresses, undergarments, and other articles, accompanied with the necessary descriptions and directions, and occasionally an elegant colored fashion-plate of size of Harper's Weekly.

Harper's Bazar will contain 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superior calendered paper, and will be published weekly.
