

LOCAL NEWS.

Remember the Club meeting to-night. Judge Mason will tell you some truths next Saturday.

Our former townsman, J. W. Barnes, has our thanks for late Missouri papers. Gen. Thayer will speak here next Saturday.

Gen. Strickland will make democracy look aghast next Saturday.

Turn out to the meeting next Saturday, and hear the truth on the political issues.

Hon. John W. Chapman will tell you something about the finances next Saturday which will be worth hearing.

Hon. J. I. Redick will give the democracy (modern) some sharp thrusts next Saturday.

A Post office has been established at Eight Mile Grove, in this county, on the line to Lincoln, and Samuel Richardson appointed as post master.

The man Young, Odious Potts, who was held by Judge Mason on information from Ohio, was released from custody on account of the non-arrival of officers.

The processions from the different precincts next Saturday are requested to concentrate on the vacant prairie immediately east of Mr. Doud's residence, prior to entering town.

Henry Straight has on hand the finest assortment of fruit ever kept in Plattsmouth, and he is selling it off at extremely low figures. Don't say anything more about scarcity of fruit in Nebraska.

Senator Tipton is "slashing" the democracy at a fearful rate. He presents facts for them that are too solid for their digestive organs—considering that they deal more in fluids than in solids.

And yet another. Mr. Fimple, of Liberty precinct, has come out from among the men who would overturn law by force of arms, and declares himself ready to take the stump for Republican principles and Republican Candidates.

The Montgomery county Express says a large number of hands are at work upon the B & M. R. R. in Adams county, and that the grading is to be finished to the centre of that county by the first of December.

Prof. Britton has organized a juvenile class in vocal music in this city—lessons given in the afternoon. The flattering notice given the Prof. by the press of the country leaves no doubt about his excellence as a teacher.

The Plebeian says that Wm. R. Craig Esq., of Nebraska City, has his contract on drainage in western Adams completed and enters upon a contract for building the Iowa State Asylum for Deaf and Dumb, at Council Bluffs.

The time of meeting of the South Western Baptist Association, is changed from Sept. 11th, to Sept. 25th, 1888. Place of meeting, Glenwood Iowa. New House of worship to be dedicated on Sabbath Sept. 27th.

The Douglas county Republican nominations are as follows: For State Senators; E. B. Taylor and Geo. W. Frost; for members of the House: Dan. S. Parmelee, J. G. Griffen, Joseph Fox, S. E. Brewster, E. Cleveland and John B. Furay.

The Commonwealth intimates that Hellman and two or three others have resolved to pay Porters Salt Creek butter bills, with interest, provided that gentleman is elected Governor. That's a very safe proposition for Hellman, but not very encouraging to the creditors.

The citizens of Plattsmouth will remember that E. Giles once published a copperhead paper in this city, and afterwards removed to the town of Holden, in Missouri, and started a neutral paper, called the Holden Enterprise, and it is a ranting, roaring, Radical paper, and goes into the rebel democracy with a vim.

An Omaha man recently boasted in Nebraska City that he knew many Republicans that would vote for Poppleton on local grounds, believing that Taffe was not so thoroughly identified with Omaha. The Plebeian pertinently says: "If the matter takes that form, it would be well to vote for Taffe, south of the Platte."

Wm. Irish Esq., "mine host" of the Sheridan, sets as fine a table before his guests as can be found in the west. Mr. Irish is not only an accommodating landlord, but is himself an accomplished cook. He personally superintends every department, and keeps everything in "apple-pie order."

Some unknown copperhead (and it is probably well he is unknown) saw fit to throw a lot of rotten tomatoes at the company of Tanners who were out on parade last Saturday evening. This is a poor style of argument, and we hope for the peace of all concerned that such acts will be discontinued, and frowned down by all good citizens. Attempts have been made in several localities to break up by force, these Tanners arguments, but they have all proved futile, so far. It is custom down South to maltreat and sometimes murder menor being Republicans, but we hope our democratic friends this far north will not attempt to ape their leaders of the South.

The Republicans of Nemaha county placed in nomination the following legislative ticket last Saturday. For State Senator, T. J. Majors; for members of the House of Representatives, Geo. Crow, Jary's S. Church, — Shook and — Steinman. They are all first-class men, and will be elected by an overwhelmed majority.

Hellman—who had such a strong desire a short time ago to "see the American flag and the democratic flag float side by side"—has been "going for" one of his co-workers in the cause of revolution out at Lincoln. He denounces Mr. Atkinson, one of the principal democratic campaigners in that region, as "a d-d fool, and a may destitute of brains." Go it, Hellman. You are on the right track now.

The democracy—several of them—met in solemn convocation (Convention) at City Hall last Saturday and placed the following "lamb" upon the block for slaughter: For State Senator for Cass county, Jacob Vallery, Sen., Senator for Cass, Sarpy, Saunders, Butler and Seward, T. B. Robertson, of Sarpy; for members of the House from Cass: W. Mickelwait, B. Ramsey, — Patterson, and — Long.

According to report, Mr. Porter, (the man who says he must have Republican votes or he cannot be elected) is endeavoring to perform a great two-horse act, and if he don't watch sharp he will fall between them and land flat in Plattsmouth. He tells the South Platte that he always favored the removal of the Capital, etc., and tells the people of North Platte that he is in full sympathy with them in all things. He will be apt to land near the dividing line—the Platte river.

And still they come! Mr. Schantz, one of the most influential Germans in Rock Bluffs precinct, has seen a sufficient amount of the corruption and dishonesty of the democratic party, and has come out on the side of truth and freedom. He was in the city last week and procured a Tanners uniform, and will hereafter train with the men who fought to save his adopted country from overthrow by armed treason. There is a terrible awakening among the citizens of Cass.

Mr. U. H. Johnson, Deputy Sheriff of Des Moines county, Iowa, left here last Tuesday for Burlington with the prisoner Wm. Callendar, alias Wm. Vincin, who has been confined in our county jail for some time past. Callendine appears to be an old scoundrel, who has seen the inside of numerous jails. He has broken jail as many as a half dozen times within the past twelve years, and Sheriff Johnson kept him here the longest term he was ever held in any one place. (By the way, prisoners will always find it a difficult matter to give Mr. Johnson the slip.)

The young man calling himself Harrison, who was arrested with Callendine, proves to be his son, who has been thoroughly drilled in the schools of vice, but who was released before the arrival of the Iowa Sheriff. He did not like this locality, and left for parts unknown immediately upon his release.

The Republican county Convention was held yesterday, with the following result: Senator for Cass—H. D. Hathaway; Senator for Cass, Sarpy, Saunders, Seward and Butler—Wm. F. Chapin; Members of the House for Cass—George Seybold, D. McCaig, J. McF. Hagood, and Jas. McKinnon; County Commissioner—J. B. Moore;

Cash paid for Wheat by L. L. HOLBROOK. A POSITIVE REFUSAL. In the published "Report" of the "Great Trial" at Island Park, we find the following: "Each contestant claims the most elastic silk h. Then each is required to sew a seam, side by side, on the bias of a piece of elastic goods; and one of the Judges takes the piece, and stretches it lengthwise of the seam, till one seam breaks. He still continues the stretching; but the other seam refuses to break at all." The latter was the twisted loom stitch seam, of the Willcox & Gibb, made of a single thread; the broken one, a lock-stitch seam, made of two threads.

We use the Patent Machine Cards, which were run enough last year to establish their superiority over the old kind, as all who used them can testify. The superiority of Mr. S. Twiss as a Carder is well known, and his services are still retained for the benefit of the public. With the above advantages we flatter ourselves that we can make it to the advantage of all who want work in our line to come this way. D. DEAN, Proprietor, may 25
