

C. H. Newell has been appointed postmaster at Glenwood, Iowa.

We learn that small pox is prevalent at Yale College. Look out for a spread of the disease.

The County Commissioners were in session Tuesday, with Commissioner James in his place.

John W. Barnes has been appointed City Assessor for one year. See Council proceedings.

Hesser says it is 'all right'—it is a goal. He continues to sell vegetables and growing plants at the same ruinously low figures.

For fine winter flowering plants call on Hesser. He will take them to your door, and he is the champion of Nebraska in the flowering shrub business.

Edward Creighton has shipped twenty-six car loads of fat cattle to Chicago during the past week. Nebraska produces some of the finest stock that enters the Chicago market, and a large number of them.

Judge H. E. Ellison, our newly elected Probate Judge, was in the city to day making arrangements for removing to the city in the course of a week or ten days.

The bonds of the newly elected county officers were approved by the Commissioners Tuesday, and they assumed their proper places.

A stable and two valuable horses, belonging to Mr. S. Sidener, six miles east of Glenwood, were burned one night last week. The fire was started through the careless use of matches in the hands of a four year boy. We glean from the Opinion.

It is said that Attorney General Roberts' lecture bills are to be changed since the Salt Land Suit. His subject now will be "The Salt Lands, and how Morton didn't get 'em."

We are sorry to learn that Richard Cushing, Esq., is quite ill. We hope he may soon recover, for Plattsmouth, and in fact the entire southern and western portion of Nebraska is indebted to Mr. Cushing for services in matters of public importance. He is an active member of the Plattsmouth City Council, and is Fitzgerald's right hand man in his great railroad enterprises.

We learn from the Ashland Times that friend Holbrook's roster is in a precarious condition, and from private sources we learn that much interest is taken in that roster's fate by all lovers of poultry in that vicinity. We shall record developments.

At the meeting of the Presbytery just closed at Rock Bluffs, Rev. R. B. Stewart was ordained and installed pastor of the United Presbyterian Church at that place. He is a young man, and is said to be a gentleman of culture and ability above the ordinary standard.

Morton admitted, during the recent Saline Land Suit, that he knew, prior to his purchase or the entry of the land, that it was Saline, hence his knowledge of the fraud being perpetrated on the State. This is in accordance with our statement, some time since.

We made a short drive into the country recently, and were astonished (a very pleasant astonishment, by the way) to find the country "fenced up" to that extent that we could hardly find our way to places with which we were perfectly familiar a few years since. Three or four years ago one could drive across the prairie in almost any direction, without meeting with obstructions in the way of farms and fences and now the rule is the other way. In going a distance of ten miles and returning by a different route, we only saw two or three pieces of open prairie. This fact speaks volumes for our county and State.

The following pupils of the Third ward have not been absent nor tardy the past week:

Last week we overlooked the names of Katie Lynch and Geo. Knapp.

D. D. MARTINDALE, Teachers.

We have already intimated that the brethren of Masonic Lodge No. 22 were taking steps toward a Fair and Festival to be given soon. We are now informed that committees are appointed, and that definite arrangements have been made for an interesting entertainment, to be given at Fitzgerald's Hall on Thursday evening, the 16th inst. We bespeak for this—the first prominent entertainment of the season—the hearty assistance and encouragement of the citizens of Plattsmouth, as we understand the object of the Lodge is to fit up their hall in a pleasant and comfortable manner. The programme will be announced in due season, in the columns of the HERALD.

Hon. A. W. Kellogg, of Lincoln, called at the HERALD sanctum this morning, on his way home from the east.

A TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. For Cass County will be held at Plattsmouth, commencing at 10 o'clock on Tuesday, the 14th day of November, instant. All the Teachers in the County are requested to be present, and it is hoped that the School Boards will grant leave of absence for this purpose. All parties will be amply remunerated by the increased efficiency which the Teachers will carry back to their work.

The State Superintendent and other distinguished Educators will be present to lend us their aid and counsel.

U. W. WISE, County Superintendent.

P. S.—We hope the citizens of Plattsmouth will encourage us in this work, by extending their hospitality to Teachers from remote parts of the County.

Plattsmouth, Neb. U. W. W. Nov. 1, 1871.—w2.

A Congregational meeting was held in the Presbyterian Church yesterday, at noon, with great unanimity it was Resolved, That the services of Rev. Daniel W. Cameron are eminently satisfactory to this congregation.

After the evening service, Mr. Cameron thanked the congregation for their manifestation of satisfaction with him, and expressed an earnest desire that all should unite with him in greater zeal in the cause of religion. We are glad to know that this congregation has been flourishing under the ministry of Mr. Cameron, and we are pleased to learn that he has no intention of leaving his present charge.

The Omaha Herald has evidently been disappointed in the action of Judge McKean at Salt Lake. It expected him to be harsh and overbearing with the Mormon leaders, and persecute them in such manner as, taken in connection with efforts of the Herald, would result in arousing the people there to resist the law by force of arms. McKean has acted wisely and moderately, although with firmness, and the Mormon people are inclined to submit to the law without causing "blood and ruin from one end of Salt Lake Valley to the other."

The fact that Judge McKean admitted Mayor Wells to bail in the sum of $50,000 almost drives the Herald to be a "mad religious fanatic." Here was the rock upon which it seemed that the split would be made, and McKean steered his Judicial bark clear of it, and thus disappointed the hopes of the Herald. Alas! Dr., it does begin to look as if McKean would be able to enforce the law without an outbreak of the people, and then your predictions of blood and carnage will prove false. Too bad!—too bad!!

The sales of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad Lands in Nebraska during the month of October 1871, were 12,557.49 acres, at an average price of $7.57 per acre, amounting to $1,480,923. The Company has yet about 1,480,000 acres choice farm lands for sale on ten years' credit at 6 per cent. interest, or at prices 20 per cent. less for cash or bonds of the Company, one-third down with balance on one and two years' credit at 10 per cent. till paid.

FIFTY YEARS IN THE FIELD. The New York Observer is about celebrating its jubilee, entering upon its fifty-fifth year in 1872. It is one of the oldest newspapers in the country, one of the ablest, and one of the most steadfast and fearless in maintaining the truth in religion, the right in morals, and honesty in all public and private affairs. It announces for the coming year, the publication of the second volume of its Year-Book, a vast repository of information, statistical and otherwise, relating both to the Church and State, which will be sent free to all who pay their subscription for the volume last year was worth the subscription price of the paper, and the Publishers promise a more complete Year-Book for 1872. Specimen copies of the paper, with Prospectus for the Year-Book, sent free on application from any source. New subscribers will receive the paper free until January 1st.

Eight Mile Grove Sunday-School Concert.

EIGHT MILE GROVE, Oct. 29, 1871. The school was to meet at 7 o'clock, but by half past six o'clock, the M. E. church was filled to its utmost capacity; seats and aisles all filled, and many stood at the door. They did not wait for the hour.

House called to order by the pastor, Singing by the school, (we are sorry that we have not the programme,) and prayer by the Rev. J. T. Cannon. The Superintendent, Mrs. Shelton, took charge of the concert and did credit to herself and to the school. It is more than met with the most sanguine expectation of all present. The classes came forward when called upon, nobly, and the singing was soul stirring, and met with the approbation of all present. Eight Mile Grove Sabbath School, of the M. E. Church is a live school and well deserves our praise. After the school had passed through their exercises, we had several addresses, all to the point and well timed.

Rev. J. T. Cannon made a telling address, which was followed by Rev. H. T. Davis, P. E. of Lincoln District, who gave one of his happiest efforts, which will not be forgotten neither by parents nor children. Brother Davis labors with great acceptability to all. We had other addresses that were telling. The whole thing was a glorious success. The Eight Mile Grove school is second to none in the county. X.

RAPIST CHURCH. Rev. Mr. Arnold has been in the city for several weeks making the necessary effort to secure the building of a Baptist Church in this city, and we are pleased to know that his efforts are being crowned with success. The Home Mission furnishes $500 for this purpose, and the balance will be raised by subscription.—Mr. Arnold informs us that enough has already been subscribed to warrant them in going ahead with the building, and that work actually commenced last Monday. If those who have promised aid will be prompt in rendering it the church will be completed and dedicated by the first Sunday in January next. The lot has been purchased, immediately west of Durwell Spurlock's residence, on Main street. The building is to be 28x40, and will probably cost, when completed, about $2,000. Mr. Arnold is entitled to the thanks of the people in general, and especially of the members of the Baptist Church in this place, for the energy he has displayed in this matter.

THE TEACHERS' INSTITUTE. Mr. EDITOR.—In connection with the call for a Teachers' Institute meeting on the 14th inst., I desire to express my thankfulness for the kind feeling and sympathy manifested by the citizens of Plattsmouth in behalf of our effort to promote the educational interests of Cass county. One of the chief obstacles to the success of our immediate enterprise is the heavy expense which necessarily be incurred by teachers while attending the session of the Institute. To relieve this embarrassment in a large degree, many of our citizens, I am assured, propose to accommodate themselves to our necessities by generously offering to open their doors for the entertainment of teachers. Let there be no hesitation, therefore, about attending our meetings. If teachers, on arriving in this city, will report at Clark & Plummer's Hall, they will be assigned to places of entertainment.

FOUND AT LAST. Many of the early settlers of the west will remember the hanging by a mob of a man named Muir at Council Bluffs, in the spring of 1853, and the fact that he had attempted to tell the whereabouts of a large amount of money which he had buried, and which was taken by him from the body of the companion he had murdered. The following we find in the telegrams of yesterday:

Yesterday, as laborers were at work cutting a new road through the hill and hollow known as "Hang Hollow," they excavated a sack containing twelve thousand dollars in gold and silver. The money was hidden there 18 years ago by a man named Muir, who murdered a comrade Californian in this city. Muir was captured and hung by a mob of Californians. He said he had hid the money under a stump in this hollow, but refused to tell where. Many have hunted for this secret treasure, but all in vain. The laborers shared equally the booty.

OFFICE OF THE CENTRAL INS. CO. NEW YORK, November 24, 1871.

To the Agents of the Company: GENTLEMEN:—The unfortunate failure of many Companies, after publication by themselves that they were sound, has made it possible for mendacious rivals of the Company and its agents to excite the public apprehension by misrepresentations concerning the Company.

Geo. T. HOPE, President.

NEW YORK, October 25th, 1871. Hon. Geo. W. Miller, Sup't. Ins. Department, State of New York.

The failure of many Insurance Companies of the Chicago fire, after assurances had been given that they were able to pay all demands, and to pursue their business has justified an apprehension in the public mind and perhaps in your own, which it is important should be allayed.

We, therefore, so far as this Company is concerned, request you, at your earliest convenience to investigate its affairs, and to ascertain its position and ability to fulfill existing obligations and all that may arise in the ordinary course of its business.

We wish, also, to call your attention to our increase of Capital, already largely over-subscribed, and desire to know when we can close the Subscription Books, and call in the money, under your construction of the Statutes.

Your prompt attention will be regarded as a favor.

Very respectfully, Geo. T. HOPE, President.

ISS. DEPT., STATE OF N. Y., ALBANY, Nov. 24, 1871.

At the request of the Continental Insurance Company of the City of New York, I have taken the earliest opportunity, since the adjournment of the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners, to investigate the affairs of the Company, and I find its condition to be as follows:

Its assets, amounting to $2,847,307.54, are judiciously and safely invested.

Its capital of five hundred thousand dollars is unimpaired, and it has a surplus of net assets largely in excess of the amount required to reimburse its outstanding risks, after providing for all other liabilities, including Chicago losses.

Its losses sustained at Chicago are in course of rapid adjustment, and leave the Company with abundant ability to all indemnity to its customers and to respond promptly to all customary claims.

The subscriptions to its voluntary addition of five hundred thousand dollars to its capital are much greater than double the amount to which the stockholders are entitled, and the subscription books must yet remain open until the 25th inst., at which time the subscriptions may be made payable.

(Signed) GEO. W. MILLER, Superintendent.

A telegram from Rawlins, dated the 5th, says, a man named David Ransford, an employee of the U. P. R. R. Co., was just murdered in cold blood by another railroad employee, named Cunningham. There seems to have been some ill feeling between the two parties for some time, and this evening, about 7 o'clock, Cunningham procured a shot gun and went to the car repairing shop, where the man was at work, knocked at the door, and as the man opened it fired the charge, striking him in the breast and killing him almost instantly. Cunningham was arrested.

SUPPORTING HOME INDUSTRY. Hon. W. H. H. Waters, of the Nebraska City Chronicle, takes the business of that city to task for sending away from home for manufactures that can be had in their own town, and makes the sending to St. Louis for a large quantity of castings the particular occasion for an article which closes with the following very sensible remarks, which will apply as well in Plattsmouth as in Nebraska City, and as well to any other branch of mechanics as to the foundry business:

"Now, suppose three or four big jobs had been given to our own Foundry, somewhere from six to ten thousand dollars would have been kept here at home among our own mechanics, and they would have spent it here for groceries, dry goods, stoves, wood, furniture, drugs, flour, meat, farm produce, &c., and our city and county would have been just that much richer in actual money now here in circulation, besides making a reputation that would bring here a large amount of similar work from new towns that have no large foundry. And men coming here for such work, would be pretty sure to make other business here at the same time. They would take some soap from Sargent's soap factory, some leather from Bulmer's tannery, some sash, blinds and doors from Craig's planing mill, some cigars from Philip's cigar factory, some spices from Mathews' spice mills, and some drugs, dry goods, groceries, hardware, crockery, from our wholesale dealers. But alas, this goodly turn of trade that might have been secured is lost to us by our short sighted policy. And thus it is that the simple fact of sending to St. Louis for castings of the engine house, the Masons and Odd Fellows' block, and others, is an actual damage and wrong to every man doing business on our streets.

"When shall we learn the wisdom of mutual help in building up our home interests, instead of pulling down and scattering abroad?"

M. B. Reese, Esq., of Osceola, Iowa, has located in our city. Mr. Reese is an Attorney, by profession, and so soon as he finds a suitable location for an office will announce through the HERALD where he can be found. Those who know Mr. Reese personally speak of him in terms of praise.

LOOKING UP. Whether or not people like the style of our City Council in business matters, there is no disguising the fact that they have raised the city credit from almost worthlessness to a cash basis. When the present council took their seats city orders were being begged for purchasers at 60 cents on the dollar. Last week the council had occasion to use $1,500 in money, and offered orders at 90 cents to raise it. No sooner was it known that orders were to be offered at that figure than there was a rush for them, and ten times that amount could have been cashed at the same figure. This looks financially healthy, at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Staley, who were tried for forgery at Nebraska City at the recent term of District Court, were found "not guilty," but Staley was immediately arrested for robbing the U. S. Mail, and taken to Omaha.

We refer the citizens of Plattsmouth to the advertisement of D. Schmasse & Co., for choice apples. This is the "best chance to lay in your winter apples at a low price. These are choice apples, and will keep all winter.

CHANGED HANDS. The City Hotel has changed hands. J. E. Holland retiring and Breed & Fallon taking charge of the Hotel. These gentlemen are well known in this part of the footstool, and they have a large and well arranged house. We have no doubt they will receive a liberal share of patronage.
