

THE HERALD.

LOCAL NEWS.

We hear it rumored that the Germans will give a festival shortly in Beck's new store building, for the benefit of the Lutheran Sunday School.

Sage, our big stock man, just sold 52 head of cattle to go to Crete—one animal alone brought $500.

Mr. Gere, our senior, is the fond "parent" of a bouncing boy. The anxiety and care of a father rests lightly upon his broad shoulders.—Journal

Unlike Greeley, William Cullen Bryant is sensible enough to acknowledge that his advanced age and peculiar relations unfit him for the Presidency, which for these cogent reasons, he has declined.

The Old Muddy is just up and bumping. There will be a house down here to night, she passed Omaha this morning. Go it old fellow, our bottom is safe, can't over flow.

J. C. Gilmore, one of our big farmers, (he weighs over two hundred,) called on the HERALD yesterday and wished us good luck.

Prof. d'Allemant tells us that he had a number of new pupils this week. We are glad to hear such good news, for a good school needs encouragement of a substantial kind, and we are sure the Prof. merits it. May his eyes be gladdened by the sight of many more; and may his shadow never be less.

Cornelius Schaller, agent of the B & M R. R. in England, has one very good habit: when he sends a fellow a paper he marks what he wants him to look at, and thus saves trouble in hunting over long columns of matter to see what the paper was sent for, do it again Mister S.

We received a very handsome little note from Mr. Touzain of the B. & M. yesterday, for contents of which thanks, and we only wish we could make as good talk with our pen as he can with his tongue, for he is the nearest talker in the State of Iowa.

Through the kindness of Dan H. Wheeler, we have received the proceedings of the "National Agricultural Convention," held at Washington, D. C., Feb. 15th, 16th and 17th, 1872. It was the first National Convention of the kind ever held.

Elder Alton, of the Christian Church, called on the HERALD and left a very good impression of himself. We need some more such men in this country.

MISSOURI VALLEY LIFE Insurance Company. No. 70 DELAWARE STREET, LEAVENWORTH, KANSAS. ALL POLICIES NON-FORFEITING.

Dividends on the Contribution Plan. Securing the Greatest Pecuniary Advantage to the Policy Holders

REASONS FOR INSURING IN THIS COMPANY: 1st. This is a Western Company, managed by Western men, whose known financial character, ability and position, afford ample guaranty for its careful and successful management.

2d. Its policies are all non-forfeiting. 3d. Premium all cash. It receives no notes and gives none. Policy holders have no interest to pay, and no outstanding notes as liens upon their policies. 4th. It has no restriction upon travel. 5th. Its dividends are made upon the contribution plan. 6th. Its business is exclusively life insurance.

DIVIDENDS Are the accumulation of interest upon premiums paid, hence the Company that loans its assets at the highest rate of interest can give you the largest dividends. Eastern companies invest their money at 6 per cent., while this makes its investments at twelve per cent. or more. The advantage of Western investments to the policy holder appears in the following startling figures: The amount of $1,000, invested for fifty years at 6 per cent. compound interest, is $18,420.35

At 12 per cent. compound interest, is $49,501.84 At 10 per cent. compound interest, is $37,291.88 At 8 per cent. compound interest, is $28,088.00

It is obvious that this comparative advantage and inducement to the policyholder than any other.

TELEGRAPHIC. The Chicago Times will not Give Greeley Positive Support. Anti-Greeley Convention. Stokes Trial.

The London Press on the Baltimore Nominations. Chicago, July 10. The Times, while it cannot, and will not, give to Mr. Greeley any positive support, even as the lesser evil, while it washes its hands of all responsibility for his election, if he shall be elected, will support with redoubled zeal and vigor all reform candidates for State offices and Congress.

Baltimore, July 10. The anti-Greeley democratic convention met at 1 o'clock this afternoon, and elected permanent officers. The committee on address presented a report declaring that Greeley had for years been the most bitter and implacable enemy of the democratic party, and that the proceedings of the democratic convention are a virtual dissolution of the hitherto existing organization of the democratic party.

The convention, called to represent the democratic party, and that the proceedings of the democratic convention are a virtual dissolution of the hitherto existing organization of the democratic party.

The members of the National Executive Committee, were: Albion, Thos. A. Walker, Arkansas, S. R. Coker, Kansas, F. M. Phipps; Connecticut, Wm H Barkun; Delaware, Chas. Beaton; Florida, Chas. E. Dyke; Georgia, A. R. Wright; Illinois, Cyrus H. McCormick; Indiana, Thomas Downing; Iowa, M. M. C. Kansas, Leaso Easton; Kentucky, H. D. McHenry; Louisiana, H. D. Ogden; Minnesota, T. D. M. Sweet; Maryland, A. Leo Knott; Massachusetts, O. Prince; Michigan, Wm A. Moore; Missouri, Wm. Schermer; Mississippi, J. H. Sharp; Missouri, John G. Priest; Nebraska, G. L. Miller; Nevada, Thomas H. Williams; New Hampshire, M. V. B. Edgerly; New Jersey, G. S. Sumner; New York, A. Schell; North Carolina, N. W. Ransom; Ohio, J. G. Johnson; Oregon, R. J. Ladd; Pennsylvania, Jas. D. Barr; Rhode Island, Gildon Bradford; South Carolina, Thos. G. Sumner; Tennessee, Wm R. Bales; Texas, F. Stockdale; Vermont, H. B. Smith; Virginia, Jno. Goode; West Virginia, J. B. Hoyle; Wisconsin, Geo. H. Paul.

London, July 11. The Times says the nomination of Greeley by the Democracy is a flagrant instance of party demoralization.

Democrats swallow the nomination platform and candidates confessing that they had none of their own. Nobody believes Greeley could be President four months without making some terrible mistake.

The News says his nomination at Baltimore on the first ballot, and at Cincinnati on the sixth, shows the Democrats were more enthusiastic in his support than the Liberals. His election however will not change the relations of England and America.

Paris, July 11. General Sherman and Lieut. Col. Audenried were presented to the Minister of war, General DeCisse, yesterday. They were personally presented to Thiers and Count DeLorenzini.

Sherman was to-day an occupant of Thiers' box in the National Assembly.

Detroit, July 11. The Free Press this morning, in an editorial on the Baltimore Convention, says it has through false pretenses, false statements, and false promises, attempted to sell, and hopes to deliver, to one branch of the Republican party the entire voting masses and organs of the Democratic party, under a pretext of reform.

It says the only hope for the future of the country lies in Greeley's defeat, and to that end it will labor.

New York, July 11. In the Stokes case, the testimony will be all in to-day, after which the lawyers will talk.

Wilson vs. Sumner. Many stories have been recently told of Senator Wilson's public and private life; but not one of them so well illustrates his character, or does such credit to his nature, as the following, and it has additional value from the contrast it presents between his own and colleague, Mr. Sumner. A few years ago a number of Senators had determined that a member of their honorable body, who was incurably addicted to the use of liquor, should be expelled for his intemperate habits and practices. Mr. Sumner drew up the resolution and gave notice of its intended introduction. Some friends of the disgraced man telegraphed to him, wife, and she immediately left for Washington. Arriving there, she called upon Mr. Sumner and begged him, not for her own or her husband's sake, but in the name of her young and innocent children, not to fulfill his threat. She agreed to take her husband home and pursue him if possible, to resign his seat in the Senate. But this was not enough for Sumner. He coldly told the pleading wife and mother that her husband's conduct had become insufferable, and that an example must be made of him. A friend then called on Mr. Wilson, and see if he would not help her out of her misfortune. She had no sooner told her story than she was assured by this gentleman that he would save her children from disgrace. "Madam," said he, "I think your husband deserves expulsion; but I would rather bear with his impropriety while his term lasts than that it should be said his children in after years that their father was expelled from the Senate for drunkenness." Mr. Wilson worked hard to prevent the introduction of the resolution. Sumner refused to yield to his humane entreaties until he was convinced that by Wilson's effort the resolution would be defeated if presented. How many public men are there who would be so
