

THE HERALD.

LOCAL NEWS.

John Boone, the barber, was quite ill on Sunday last. No clean face for Sunday for many a helpless fellow.

We are pleased to learn that the Rev. Mr. Bartie is finally "settled" over the Presbyterian Church of this place.

The saloons in Ashland are reported closed, the City Council having passed an ordinance raising the license to $1,500.

Wm. Herold, has changed the nature of his business, instead of making cigars and liquors a specialty, he has bought the grocery stock formerly in Gus Herold's, and proposes hereafter to run a grocery store.

Charles Seymour, Neb. City, visited our Sanctum on Friday last. You can see Charley's tracks at the P. O. and about town.

All debts and accounts due the firm of S. Bloom & Co. must be settled at once. Call on H. Newman, at the old store, sign of the Big Elephant.

Gus Herold, the well known general merchant has disposed of his stock of groceries to Wm. Herold and has fitted up his large dry goods store with the clothing stock from S. Bloom & Co. Call and see the new outfit.

Our friend, Mr. Jos. Beardley, has a brother here, just came from Ohio, he intends to make Nebraska his home in the future.

An inquest was held in Stone Creek precinct, by Sheriff Cutler, on the body of a young man, who was accidentally shot dead by Augustus Barro, a boy fourteen years of age, on the evening last.

This week for examinations and report making. The school-ma'ams are all busy and the young ones are grinning over the tasks set them for exhibition, Friday school closes.

A city Councilman of a city not a million of miles from here once remarked: "Ven I was elected I thought I would find all Solomons up here, but I found there was some as pig folks here as myself."

Would be pleased to have everybody call and examine my stock of Boots, Shoes, and Gaiters, before purchasing elsewhere, for I sell cheaper than ever. No charge for showing them.

A party who lately came home from a temperance meeting in Plattsmouth found his wife awaiting him in a high state of excitement. Says she: "Here I've been waiting and rocking in a chair until my head swims round just like a top."

"Jess, so," says husband, "where I've been, my head's swimmin' (sic) too. It's all the new women movement."

The Union Temperance meeting at the Methodist Church Sunday evening was very fully attended. A number of gentlemen spoke, among the rest lawyer Sprague, of Ashland.

Sprague says there's lots of young men here who will "surrender," and he wants the girls to make it a "conditional surrender." March up young men, you're wanted.

Cass county last year had more teachers, in proportion, holding first class certificates than any other county, except Saunders.

Twenty-three candidates for Marshal, and only one-and-a-half for Mayor, outside of the temperance folks.

Sam McClay, Sheriff of Lancaster County, called in to see the HERALD last week.

WANTED.—A furnished, or unfurnished room suitable for a single gentleman; not too far from the business center of the town. Apply at the HERALD office for particulars.

For the best and cheapest foot gearing always go to an exclusive shoe store. P. MERRIS, 324 1/2

COOL COURAGE. As the train stopped at the depot on Thursday last, the horses of Mr. Perry Walker, hitched to an express wagon, took fright and started to run away.

WHITTEN LAST SATURDAY. Beautiful snow, beautiful snow, How I wish you would go, would go; There's a hole in my boot, near the toe, And I don't like the beautiful snow.

REMEMBER The "Old Folks Concert" which takes place on the evenings of the 6th and 7th of April.

A new town is laid out in Sarpy county called "Sarpy Center." It is supposed to be near the geographical center of the county.

The Cass County Central Association will meet at Weeping Water, April 7th, 1874, at one o'clock P. M.

Chas. Vial brings up a whale's tooth, all the way from Philadelphia.

Two of our Temperance ladies had business at the City Clerk's office, lately. Never having visited that official before, and ignorant of the localities of City Hall Place, in Plattsmouth, they

Mr. John Meiler, a famous Antiquary from England, visited our place this week. He was so much pleased with Plattsmouth that he seriously thought of settling here and building a church after the manner of antiquity, but the Temperance ladies ran across him and asked him to "sign," and another gentleman asked him to run for City Marshal, which scared him so he made tracks for Iowa.

Prof. A. d'Almeida's sale of furniture will take place next Saturday the 29th inst., at F. S. White's auction Mart at 1 p. m.

There are to be three tickets in the field we understand; a straight out Democratic; a perpendicular Republican and a Vertical Temperance Ticket. Hurrah for the next Mayor and Council.

The School Marms are all going to vote this election for city Treasurer.

We had a slight snow on Saturday last, the last of the season, we hope.

The boys and girls of the High School will have a vacation next week. The winter term closes then and the young folks are jubilant.

We received a paper from Ottumwa, Iowa, and it's just covered with marked "notices" of the new firm Daun & Burkett, fruit dealers, and confectioners. Burkett means to go in heavy on the advertising, just read this:

Solomon & Nathan says that Vivian says, he sells speckled beans at 10c per quart. Go and get some.

A both tailed rooster, of the Granger persuasion, flew through Vivian's window on Tuesday and took all the glass out. He was a W. W. Rooster.

Boone the barber, got sick and the HERALD hasn't been shaved this week, so we couldn't go to any of the Temperance meetings.

Look out for Solomon, he's coming—he here next week—train of cars following loaded to the gunwale with new goods.—Bizz—Bizz—Bizz!

John Corbett, of Mt. Pleasant, good farmer, got a fine horse, and first rate fellow generally. Called to see the HERALD yesterday.

Professor Peter Merges, is the man to buy shoes of. He has just received a new lot of boots and shoes and he wants you all to come and buy.
