HO FOR THE HUNTERS! Imported Guns, at the P. O. Jewelry Store.

HURRAH FOR REED BROS. Reed Brothers are opening the largest stock of spring and summer goods ever brought to Weeping Water.

Reed Bros. offer all kinds of cotton goods, including sheetings, shirtings, prints, cottonades, &c., &c., at prices ranging from 15 to 30 per cent below those at which the same goods were sold one year ago.

Reed Bros. have reduced the prices of all kinds of groceries.

Reed Bros. defy all competition which can be got up, either at home or in Chicago, New York or London, and will fill all orders at prices as low as any retailer who pretends to retail at wholesale rates.

Reed Bros. have a splendid stock of clothing, at prices that must astonish every one.

To parties who live at some distance from Weeping Water, and who wish to buy their spring supply of goods at once, Reed Bros. offer special inducements. Any one so situated who will come and trade with them 30.00 or 50.00 dollars worth, they guarantee to save them enough not only to pay for their time in coming, but enough in addition to buy themselves each a new fur hat.

PERSONAL. Mr. L. T. Shirley, of Elmwood, called on us last Tuesday, and paid for the HERALD and Prairie Farmer for a year in advance.

Revs. Clark Wright, Davis and Adair, were in our town this week attending Quarterly Meeting at the M. E. Church.

Miss Lizzie Stinecomb came down from Omaha on Saturday, spent a day with her friends, and returned home on Monday.

Bob Deann, war horse, &c.—Salt Creek man—was in town election day. Had to come up—old associations, &c., &c. Come to see the HERALD, too.

Azro Smith sends us some very fine sweet potatoes. Samples of the kind he intends to raise so largely this spring. Mr. Smith will furnish all information needed about sweet potato culture.

The Rev. Mr. Crippen of Mt. Pleasant called on the HERALD on Tuesday last. We enjoyed the call.

Mr. Plummer, the old gentleman, Uncle Plummer we sometimes call him, has just returned from Iowa, and almost got made Police Judge Tuesday.

Our Representative from Cass, the Hon. John Brown, organized 44 Granges in Colorado the past winter and organized their State Grange, under authority from head-quarters at Washington. Mr. Brown will soon be an full in the business of State Grange Master, at this rate.

A HORRIBLE AFFAIR. A singular affair happened seven miles south-west from Weeping Water. The wife of a settler, Zanni W. Burnham, died on that stormy night, March 20th. She was the man's second wife and step-mother to the children. Some three days after, one of the children told a neighbor their mother was dead, and as she had not been sick, suspicion was aroused at once. The nearest Justice sent for the Coroner and Sheriff, the body was exhumed and found to have been buried in the rudest and roughest manner, without box or semblance of coffin, the limbs awry, and only old rags wrapped about it. Dr. Thomas and Kenaston could find no satisfactory natural reason for her death, and Dr. Reed (Coroner) finally took the stomach to Lincoln on Tuesday last, and the body will be brought to Plattsmouth to-day for further examination by Drs. Livingston and Black. We await further developments.
