MR. WILLIAMS' LECTURE.

Mr. Cecil Williams delivered a lecture on Phonetics and Short-Hand writing a few evenings ago. The Herald meant to be there, but was unavoidably kept away. We would say here that the subject is one of great importance to our young men, and something very interesting besides.

Short hand is another language almost and the most useful language a young person can learn now a days. We hope Mr. Williams will get up a good class in Plattsmouth.

ONE'S AS GOOD AS 'TOTHER.

To some remarks the Herald made about swapping county commissioners the Neb. City News reasons thusly: Guess we won't swap. Our men are all right on the railroad, but they don't call it "Frank." Meet us at the Big Slough, and we're your Johnny-jump-up! What do you say to that, neighbor Plattsmouth?

Don't know where the Big Slough is but if it's on the line of the R.R. we'll there, men and money. You can call it by any name you like.

RIFFLE'S SILVER WEDDING.

Our old friend Riffle celebrated his twenty-fifth anniversary, last week, and it beat an American Silver wedding all to pieces. They invited all their friends, and had a rousing supper, plenty of beer and wine, and they ate and drank, sang songs and gave toasts, and everybody was merry.

PERSONALS.

We acknowledge a call from Maj. Peetman, and regret that we were not in to see him.

Geo. Hansen, Esq., Centre Valley, made the Herald five dollars richerer last week. Hand(d)some that handsome does, and we think he is a very handsome man.

W. T. Lloyd, one of the oldest subscribers to the Herald, called on the Herald last week, kept us going a lit longer.

J. A. Corey, once a printer, editor, Lord knows what all—he's like the rest of us—called to see the Herald on Saturday. Mr. Corey lives over in Otoe, but has taught school in Cass for several years, he is a man of good information, and the Herald enjoys his talk very much. We may add that south east Cass, or Bottom County, is the finest part of the county, perhaps, agriculturally considered.

The Herald is under obligations to Dr. Reed, of the Neb. City News, for leaving his own business to help ours along.

Mrs. Ruffner and Mrs. E. Kirpatrick start east on a visit to their friends.

Maj. Dan. H. Wheeler, arrived home last Tuesday, from New Orleans, where he has been attending the meetings of the Knights Templar.

Rev. Chas. McKelvey left for St. Louis last Monday morning. He has gone to see the Bishop about getting transferred from the Nebraska M. E. conference to the California conference.

High Orr has left us again for his home in Cheyenne.

I have the finest assortment of women's Misses, and Children's fine French Calf Shoes, ever offered to this trade. Also Pelts, Goat, Oil Goat, and in fact a complete line of Shoes, Overshoes, and Rubbers. My goods are all new, and I will not be undersold for cash.
