Geo. Shafer, still keeps his Blacksmith Shop in full blast, and he is one of the best horse shoers, and mechanics in his line, that we have.

The fire made some neighbors for the HERALD. O'Neil has moved up in Elster's old tailor shop with his butcher outfit, and Heisel has gone into the old hotel, both opposite HERALD office.

Born to our friend Wm. Woodruff, on the evening of election day a young nephew. William thinks if he had been twenty-four hours older he might have voted. Wonder if he'd gone Straight, Palmer or Stadelmann.

Hank Straight has got the hardest nuts of any man in town. He tried to sell the HERALD by offering us some provided we would crack them, after breaking the hatset and braining our fingers, we came home and wrote this for spite.

There were three Frank Whites running last Monday. Frank, senior, was running an abolition; Frank jr., was running for Alderman, and Little Frank was running to keep goods before Frank, son, and Faxon as fast as they could sell them. "Al" only voted and ran for nothing.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN MISSIONARY MEETING. The members of the Ladies Foreign Missionary Society had a meeting last Sunday night at the M. E. Church in this city. The church was crowded. The meeting was opened by singing and prayer, and then Mrs. Newell arose and in a few sensible and pointed remarks explained the motives of the Society and what they intended to do. The choir then sang a hymn. Mrs. Phillip next addressed the audience on the cause of Women in India. Her address was well learned and delivered and made a deep impression. Mr. Northrop now sang the hymn entitled "Your Mission," next Miss Ruby and Miss Decie Johnson, read some extracts in a very able manner. The meeting was then closed by an able and original essay, by Mrs. B. Sparlock, and prayer and singing.

Through press of business we have neglected to notice the return to health and business of Mr. Fred Goerder, Grain buyer for the Plattsmouth Grain Company. Fred had a tight squeak of it but is now all O.K. and once more ready for duty and business. Try him on farmers when you are selling your crops.

The editor of this paper desires to return his thanks to his friends in the first Ward who voted so efficiently for him last Monday. He has the proud satisfaction of knowing that he forced the opposition to put up the best man they had, and also desires to say that he would not have felt very badly even if beaten by Mr. White, than whom there is no better or abler young man in the ward.
