JUDGE MAXWELL FOR THE CON-STITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

We understand our old friend Judge Maxwell, is nominated in Dodge county for the Constitution, and also that there is a bitter fight made on him by certain parties, on account of what they are pleased to term his previous record in the last Convention. Ordinarily it does not pay an editor from another county to interfere in any local matters outside of his own region but in this case where every good citizen is directly interested in having what part of the State they come from, and because the Judge was a former his favor, and also to state the facts .on the contrary, he opposed high salaous legislation, and emphatically opposed to making the Constitution a Legislative document. In short, he was, and is a plain, practical, conservative tohis eight-year-old son the other night, man, and has shown himself such, in be set down as a good deed?" "Gave a all his public acts.
