We must say a good word for our boquets Miss May West presented to Plattsmouth artist - Frank Stadter. the HERALD office, but hope she will Every one admired our grasshopper last week, and wondered where we got him. All the Omaha chaps asked where we got such good cuts in Plattsmouth, and the HERALD replied that we raised artists and workmen down here. We would have given Frank credit before, but were afraid some of these foreign chaps would gobble him up and leave us "skort." Frank laughingly says the Harpers offered him Nast's place at 37,000 a year, but he refused, as Nast gets $10,000 and he

NOTICE TO FIREMEN!

WANTED. Masonie Hall Co. Shares.

To whom it may concern:

Notice is hereby given that application has been made by Lawson Sheldon to be appointed Administrator of the Estate of Joel Sheldon, deceased. That said cause is set for hearing at my Office in Plattsmouth, Cass County, Nebraska, on the 2d day of July, A. D. 1875, at 10 clock P. M. of said day, at which time all persons interested may appear and show cause, if any they have, why the said Lawson Sheldon should not be appointed such Administrator according to the prayer of said petitioner.

Witness my hand and official seal this the 8th day of June, A. D. 1875.

H. E. ELLISON, Probate Judge. Board of Co. Commissioners of Cass Co., held at Plattsmouth, in said county, on the 28th day of May, A. D. 1875, it was by this board resolved that the following proposition be submitted to the electors of Cass county, Nebraska:

Whereas the bonds voted in aid of the Weeping Water and Platte Valley Railroad Company, their successors or assigns, by the electors of Cass county, Nebraska, at a special election held in said county on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1873, at which said special election the amount of Five Thousand Dollars (85,000) per mile of the bonds of said Cass county were voted in aid of the construction of the said Weeping Water and Platte Valley Railroad, upon certain conditions and under certain restrictions, and whereas, one of the conditions submitted in the proposition under which said bonds were voted on the 25th day of January, A. D. 1873, was that any of said bonds not due and delivered to said Company, under the terms of said proposition on the 31st day of December, A. D. 1876, shall revert to Cass county and the reby expire by limitation;

ty and thereby expire by limitation;
Now the proposition submitted to the electors of said Cass county is:
"Shall the time at which said bonds revert to said county under the terms and conditions words:

"Shall the time for the reversion of the Weeping Water and Platte Valley Railroad Bonds be extended—Yes" or

"Shall the time for the reversion of the Weeping Water and Platte Valley railroad bonds be extended—No":

And if a majority of the the ballots cast at said election have written or printed thereon the words "Shall the time for the reversion of the Weeping Water and Platte Valley Railroad Bonds be extended—Yes," then said proposition shall be deemed and taken as carried and adopted, and said time shall be extended accordingly; but if a majority of said ballots have written or printed thereon the words: "Shall the time for the reversion of the Weeping Water and Platte Valley Railroad Bonds be extended—No," then said proposition shall be deemed and taken as lost.

The question of the adoption of the above proposition shall be submitted to the electors of Cass county' at a special election to be held for that purpose on and a special election for that purpose is here-by ordered to be held at said time and at the usual places of holding elections in the said at the precincts in said Cass county, Nebraska. Said election will be opened at 8 o'clock a. m. of the 2sth day of June A. D. 1875, and will remain open until 6 o'clock p. m. of said day. By order of the Board of County Commis-
