The game supper at the Saunders House on Saturday evening last, was attended by 115 guests, and the boys all say they never enjoyed themselves so much. After the supper a very nice little dance was improvised, and heartily patronized by all the dancers present.

We see that our old friends Messrs. Smith & Windham have dissolved, hard times you know, and each wants to see his own way, "go it alone" as the eureka boys say. Well good luck to you both. Marquette and Mr. Windham will be associated together in cases brought in the district court, hereafter, and their office will be over Dr. Chapman's drug store.

Merges bought out Mr. Plummer's entire stock of boots and shoes, to make room and give Mr. Plummer a chance to pay more special attention to dry goods and groceries to please his large increasing trade in that line. Merges had to procure his brother's assistance to attend his numerous customers. All this proves that closer attention to specialties and small profits bring quick sales. 291f.
