

We present our readers this week with a club list of papers which can be taken with the Herald...

We should like to have the subscribers who have not yet sent their names to the middle of December...

We also would like new subscribers to the Herald, and all who propose taking it for another year...

Table with 2 columns: Paper Name and Price. Includes Chicago Tribune, Post & Mail, etc.

Congress will meet again on January 6th, 1876.

Here's ours to Senator Paddock for a "Congressional Record."

Bowen got a verdict of $1,000 out of the Brooklyn Eagle suit.

The Fremont Herald is forinst brother Pat. That settles it.

There are 53 Sundays in next year and two "shortest days" in this one.

They've been giving "Yaller Crocker" to the editor of the Pioneer, Niobrara.

The Journal of Commerce of Omaha, comes to hand, published by S. A. Taylor & Co.

The Papillon Times suggests Tom. Eennart as Com. of Indian affairs.

And Grant got part of his message from Dague—formerly of the Hastings Journal. Next!

They are rather walking into Bishop Here's out his statements of the white outlaw and thieves on the frontier.

"The little Pioneer," as we used to call it, way up in Niobrara is growing nicely, and makes things lively around there.

Our old acquaintance Reigle, of the Erie Press was walking a race with some other fellows in Council Bluffs and got left.

They had a $12,000 fire in Tecumseh, Friday last. It began in a saloon and was supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

In connection with the whiskey developments it does strike us that the Chicago reporters paid impudence to the very verge of interrogatory highway robbery.

Now that we would like is this; who ever has any well defined objections to the arrangement of the short recess, will confer a favor by stating such objections to the School Board or the Principal, during the week.

PERSONAL. Geo. L. Seybolt is promoted to a special agent of the P. O. department, headquarters at Omaha.

Jessie McVay takes a Herald and Inter-Ocean after this.

Mr. Shakespeare, in the person of an old gentleman calling himself Prof. White, came to town last week.

The poor old gentleman who had probably been a fair actor once, has now become the victim of the whisky fiend to such an extent as to render him a useless member of society.

Mr. Arthur Mills of Mass., formerly in the B. & M. R. R. office here, paid a visit last week. All Mr. Mills' friends were heartily glad to see him, and none more so than the Herald.

Beaumeister is the most patient milk man—keeps good milk, too.

Fred Dorrington has gone and left us all alone, again.

Mr. Murphy, the Photographer, has returned home, after a very successful trip abroad on the line of the U. P.

His new Gallery will be open soon now, and we are pleased to welcome him among us again.

Mrs. Gen. Davis, the wife of the popular Commandante of Omaha Barracks, will spend a few days in the city, the guest of Mrs. Chapman Wright, and will attend the Grand Concert on Friday evening.

Dr. Schildknecht is the best man in town—he divides with the Herald whenever he gets any money; who wouldn't like him.

Fred Dorrington, Gen. Cunningham, A. L. Child, Mr. Doud, Jno. Chalfant, A. M. Holmes, H. Bestor, and a lot more of the bestest men we have visited the Herald at different times this week, and left us better for their visits.

Mr. R. S. Norval, of Seward, was in town last week.

A maiden once said: "I'll not mate with a man who has not fortune great." So she pouted and waited, and scorned to be mated. Six months yet—aged forty-eight.—(N. Y. Com. Adc.)

A maiden once said, "I'll not be bought—I'll marry a man who is poor," but the man he drank beer, died drinking a "beer," and twelve orphans went out from her door. "This better to wait and be aged forty-eight, than to marry the average man; for there's trouble ahead for the maiden who'll wed the very first person she can.—Courier Journal.

We knew of a maid, who to her friends said: "I'm in for the diamonds, for love not a fig." The diamonds turned out paste, of love she'd no taste, she went on the stage and died dancing a jig.

A kangaroo is a curious chap; when its wide awakes it's leaping.

Why is a minister near the end of his sermon like a ragged urchin? Because he's toward his close.

Always examine an old plug hat before you kick it.

THE NEW YEAR.

This is the last issue of the Herald in 1875. It has been rather a tough year for all of us, but with better times fast approaching business will improve and money become plenty once more.

We had hoped to enlarge and change the Herald for 1876, but the pressure of hard times is too recent to allow us to indulge in that luxury just yet.

Next spring we think we may accomplish it. With new hopes, and better prospects for the future let us all take hold of our work with renewed courage and strength.

SHALL THE TIME OF THE NOON RECESS BE ONE-HALF HOUR, OR AN HOUR AND A HALF?

The experiment of the half hour recess has been tried for a week and found quite satisfactory inside the school. It remains for the parents to give expression to their preference in the matter.

First, the half hour is sufficient time for eating a light lunch, and taking the necessary out-door exercise, and the long recess gives too much time for play.

Secondly, the time necessary for the fires to be kept up would be shortened by an hour, thus saving about one eighth of the expense for fuel, which, during the cold weather is an important consideration.

Thirdly, the small children can be at home earlier, and thus avoid exposure in very severe weather, and the older ones can be at home an hour earlier, and thus be of use when their help is needed.

Now that we would like is this; who ever has any well defined objections to the arrangement of the short recess, will confer a favor by stating such objections to the School Board or the Principal, during the week.

GAME LAWS OF NEBRASKA.

Revised Statutes.

Sec. 46. It shall be unlawful for any person to kill, ensnare, or trap any wild buffalo, elk, four mountain sheep, deer, or antelope between the first day of January and the first day of October...

Every exchange we pick up from South and West of Lincoln begins—"The Road to Denver"—We've heard of the "Rocky Road to Dublin," but this Denver thing beats it all hollow.

STATE ITEMS.

The West Point Republican is for an extra session.

The Independent, Perky's Democratic paper, is forinst Dr. Miller's Democratic paper, and all he and it does, and Mr. Zentmeier's Democratic Sun, at Schuyler, is for the Doctor and his Herald—Brotherly love!

FROM THE LITERATURE OF KISSING.

Lipincott & Co. have published a book with the above title, from which we extract the following—oh! my!

THE MODES OPERANDI.

After all this discourse on the art, the author describes the method of performing the operation, and concludes: "People will kiss, though not one in a hundred knows how to extract lilies from lovely lips, any more than they know how to make diamonds from charcoal; yet it is easy enough to learn."

First, know whom you are going to kiss; don't make a mistake, though a mistake may be good. Don't jump up like a trout for a fly and smack a woman on the neck, ear, or the corner of her forehead, or the end of her nose.

Secondly, the time necessary for the fires to be kept up would be shortened by an hour, thus saving about one eighth of the expense for fuel, which, during the cold weather is an important consideration.

Thirdly, the small children can be at home earlier, and thus avoid exposure in very severe weather, and the older ones can be at home an hour earlier, and thus be of use when their help is needed.
