

Southern Swag.
The sooner the people of the United States come to the realization that the Southern States are not American States by their own right, and that they are not entitled to the same treatment as the States of the Union, the sooner will the country be truly united.

Andersonville.
There may be some who have grown into manhood since the close of the war of the rebellion, who do not remember the horrors of Andersonville. In the days of the rebellion, the prisoners of war were crowded into the camps, and there they died of starvation, disease, and exposure.

Friendship.
The point that we wish to make is, that we should not expect to have the sentiments and opinions of our friends and companions to be equally satisfactory to us; and after we have once made up our minds that, on the whole, we like a certain person, that we like certain of all his ways, opinions, tastes, qualities—whatever it is that draws us to him, it is foolish to be rejecting him too soon.

Fresh and Simple Attire.
One who writes in an English journal, "Clothes" declares that "men do not as yet see the wisdom of wearing simple and hearty dainties clean and fresh in all their arrangements and appointments, and as to the eyes as modest and moderate as possible. There is something really charming in this picture, simple as it is."

Oyster Potato Balls.—Beard a dozen small, plump oysters, cover them singly with a plain mush, slip and paste, roll them with flour or beaten up egg and bread crumbs into balls and fry them in oil or dripping. Put into each ball when you mix it up a teaspoonful of the oyster liquor.

Pickled Mutton Hams.—Three gallons soft water, one pound of coarse sugar, one ounce of salt, one ounce of cayenne, one ounce of black pepper, one ounce of cloves, one ounce of nutmeg, one ounce of allspice, one ounce of mace, one ounce of cinnamon, one ounce of ginger, one ounce of cloves, one ounce of nutmeg, one ounce of allspice, one ounce of mace, one ounce of cinnamon, one ounce of ginger.

Good Paste.—Get ten cents worth of gum tragacanth at a drug store; put a few drops of water on it, and mix it with four times as much water, and let it stand overnight. This will make an excellent paste for scrapbook.

Home Soda Water.—Pour three pints of boiling water over one ounce of tartaric acid, and allow it to stand until cool. Then add the whites of three eggs well beaten, two ounces of tartaric acid, and three ounces of sugar. Put into each bottle two tablespoonfuls of this liquid in a tumbler and fill it two-thirds full of water, and add one-half a teaspoonful of carbonic acid gas.

Chimes of Bells.
The "Poetry of Steeple," an article which appeared in Harper's Magazine for January, has elicited some interesting information relative to Christ's Church in Philadelphia. It seems that the bells which hang in the bell tower of the church were purchased with the proceeds of a lottery, and that the bells were rung in honor of the church on the day of its consecration.

Garden Work in Winter.
Winter is often called the season of leisure, and as distinguished from those periods of hurry and anxiety which attend the busy season, it is a time when the gardener can devote his attention to the improvement of his garden.

Controlling the Sap of Plants.
What influence has bending, twisting, cutting, and pruning the sap of plants on the growth of them? It is a question which has long interested the horticulturist.

Ann Eliza Young.
Ann Eliza Young, the famous Mormon seeress, has died at the age of 70. She was born in Vermont, and spent her early years in that State. She was converted to Mormonism in 1830, and became a prominent member of the church.

Ho! for Iowa!!
Iowa is a beautiful State, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit.

Meriden Cutlery Co.
The Meriden Cutlery Co. has just issued a new line of cutlery. The new line is made of the finest materials, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit.

Sozodol.
Sozodol is a powerful medicine, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit.

Vanbuskirk's Fragrant Soap.
Vanbuskirk's Fragrant Soap is a powerful medicine, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit.

An Irreconcilable.
Senator Robert Toombs, who has no other claim to fame than that of being a member of the rebel Confederacy, is still a member of the rebel Confederacy. He is still a member of the rebel Confederacy, and is still a member of the rebel Confederacy.

A Bear in Church.
A gentleman from North Creek, Warren County, N. Y., in the Adirondack region, is speaking of the mild winter which he has so far related, as something very remarkable. He says that he has seen a bear in church.

Look Twice.
A lady who has a great horror of agents and who has been more than usually tired out of time and money by them lately, has been visited by one of them, and she has been looking at him twice.

To Sell or Hold?
We frequently receive requests from readers to tell them what the prospect is for the future of the market. In short, they want to know whether to sell or hold.

Miss Kate Field.
Miss Kate Field, writing of Carlyle's birthday in the Courier-Journal, says: "He has kept his career in the world a light in the world. If I had not read Carlyle, I should never have made my leather so good, and I should never have known that it was so good."

Cooper, Gardfield.
Cooper, Gardfield, a veteran of the war of 1812, died recently of the influenza in Westport, Mass., aged 100 years, 6 months and 23 days. He had been an inmate of the Westport Hospital for some time.

Herbert Spencer.
Herbert Spencer, fifty-five years old and unmarried. He is said to be very fond of a quiet life.

Silver Tipped Shoes.
Silver Tipped Shoes are a powerful medicine, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit.

The Washington Star.
The Washington Star says: "A few days ago a rough-and-ready appearing fellow, dressed in butternut and wearing a light slouch hat, and carrying a formidable-looking musket, might have been seen in the streets of Washington."

William Bell.
William Bell, late Coleraine, Mass., again refused to pay his taxes, and he was arrested. He is a man who is well known in his neighborhood.

The Federal authorities.
The Federal authorities in New York have discovered a manufactory of bogus bills, and they have arrested the man who was making them. He is a man who is well known in his neighborhood.

Dr. Cuyler calls debt.
Dr. Cuyler calls debt "the cancer that devours charity." It is a disease which is well known in his neighborhood.

Miss Kate Field.
Miss Kate Field, writing of Carlyle's birthday in the Courier-Journal, says: "He has kept his career in the world a light in the world. If I had not read Carlyle, I should never have made my leather so good, and I should never have known that it was so good."

Cooper, Gardfield.
Cooper, Gardfield, a veteran of the war of 1812, died recently of the influenza in Westport, Mass., aged 100 years, 6 months and 23 days. He had been an inmate of the Westport Hospital for some time.

Herbert Spencer.
Herbert Spencer, fifty-five years old and unmarried. He is said to be very fond of a quiet life.

Silver Tipped Shoes.
Silver Tipped Shoes are a powerful medicine, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit.

The Washington Star.
The Washington Star says: "A few days ago a rough-and-ready appearing fellow, dressed in butternut and wearing a light slouch hat, and carrying a formidable-looking musket, might have been seen in the streets of Washington."

William Bell.
William Bell, late Coleraine, Mass., again refused to pay his taxes, and he was arrested. He is a man who is well known in his neighborhood.

The Federal authorities.
The Federal authorities in New York have discovered a manufactory of bogus bills, and they have arrested the man who was making them. He is a man who is well known in his neighborhood.

Dr. Cuyler calls debt.
Dr. Cuyler calls debt "the cancer that devours charity." It is a disease which is well known in his neighborhood.

Miss Kate Field.
Miss Kate Field, writing of Carlyle's birthday in the Courier-Journal, says: "He has kept his career in the world a light in the world. If I had not read Carlyle, I should never have made my leather so good, and I should never have known that it was so good."

Cooper, Gardfield.
Cooper, Gardfield, a veteran of the war of 1812, died recently of the influenza in Westport, Mass., aged 100 years, 6 months and 23 days. He had been an inmate of the Westport Hospital for some time.

Herbert Spencer.
Herbert Spencer, fifty-five years old and unmarried. He is said to be very fond of a quiet life.

Silver Tipped Shoes.
Silver Tipped Shoes are a powerful medicine, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit. It is a State of great natural beauty, and is well worth a visit.