THIS GREAT INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION. DESIGNED TO COMMEMORATE THE ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY OF AMERICAN INDEFENDENCE, OPENED MAY 10th AND WILL CLOSE NOVEMBER 10th, 1876. All the nations of the world and all the States and Territories of the Union are participating in this wonderful demonstration, bringing together the most comprehensive collection of art treasures, mechanical inventions, scientific discoveries, manufacturing achievements transcriptures and agricultural proscientific discoveries, manufacturing achievements, mineral speciments, and agricultural products ever exhibited. The grounds devoted to the Exhibition are situated on the line fof the Penusylvania Railroad and embrace four hundred and fifty acres of Fairmount Park, all highly improved and ornamented, on which are crected the largest buildings ever constructed, five of these covering an area of fifty acres and costing $5,200,000. The total number of buildings erected for the purposes of the exhibition is near two hundred. During the thirty days immediately following the opening of the Exhibition a million and a quarter of people visited it.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, THE GREAT TRUNK LINE AND

FAST MAIL BOUTE OF THE UNITED STATES. s the most direct, convenient and ec way of reaching Philadelphia and this great Exhibition from all sections of the country. Its trainsto and from Philadelphia will pass through a GRAND CENTENNIAL DEPOT, which the Company have erected at the Main Entrance to the Exhibition Grounds for the accommodation of passengers who wish to stop at or start from the numerous large hotels contiguous to this station and the Exhibition, a convenience of the greatest value to visitors, and afforded exelusively by the Pennsylvania Railroad, which is THE ONLY LINE RUNNING DIRECT TO THE CENTENNIAL BUILDINGS. Excursion trains will also stop at the Encampment of the Patrons of Husbandry, at Elm Station, on this road. The Pennsylvania Rallroad is the grandest railway organization in the world. It controls seven thousand miles of roadway, forming con-tinuous lines to Philadelphia, New York, Balti-more, and Washington, over which luxurious day and night cars are run from Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati, Louisville, Indianapolis, Col-umbus, Toledo, Cleveland, and Eric without change. change.

Its main line is laid with double and third tracks of heavy steel rails upon a deep bed of broken stone ballast, and its bridges are all of iron or stone. Its passenger trains are equipped with every known improvement for comfort and safety, and are run at laster speed for greater distances than the trains of any line on the continuat. The Company has largely increased its distances than the trains of any line on the con-tinent. The Company has largely increased its equipment for Centennial travel, and will be prepared to build in its own shops locomotives and passenger cars at short notice sufficient to fully accommodate any extra demand. The un-equalled resources at the command of the Com-pany guarantee the most perfect accommoda-tions for all its patrons during the Centennial Exhibition THE MAGNIFICENT SCENERY for which the Pennsylvania Central is so justly celebrated presents to the traveler over its perfect road-way an ever-changing panorams of river, mountain and landscape views unequalled in America.
THE EATING STATIONS on this line are unsurpassed. Meals will be furnished at suitable hours and ample time allowed for enjoying them.
