DAVIS, of Clay County. For District Attorney, J. J. HARRISON, of Cass County.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY & DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The convention to nominate the Representatives for the First District, composed of Cass and Saunders Counties, is called to meet at Plattsouth, Monday, October 14th, at 10 o'clock, a. m. Delegates for said convention please take notice. Chas. Central Com. for Cass Co.

Colorado still worries the average democratic mind. We think as soon as Indiana and Ohio are definitely heard from all parties will agree that it has gone Republican.

Senator Paddock returned to his home in Beatrice last week, and was most warmly welcomed by his friends and neighbors. It was an impromptu affair, and all the more natural and genuine in consequence.

Mrs. Margaret Clark, wife of Hon. Elam Clark, died at her home, Ft. Calhoun, Washington County, on Sep. 24. Mrs. Clark was highly esteemed by her friends and neighbors, and although her health has been failing for some years, her sudden demise was a shock to many friends.

The dispatches from Indiana and Ohio still come in. Ohio has undoubtedly gone Republican by a handsome majority. Indiana is claimed by both parties and at this writing it is very hard to tell how the vote really will be. Like Colorado it will probably take an official count to satisfy the democrats that they have not won a victory.

The elections Tuesday in Ohio and Indiana are being watched with unusual interest, it being generally conceded that if the Republicans carry both States the campaign is virtually ended, that is to say that the moral force of this vote will be so great that it undoubtedly will carry every Northern State Republican, and elect Hayes & Wheeler in November, certain.

PROTECTING FRUIT TREES.

We have been requested to notice the fact that Mr. Robert Hawk, of Neb. City, has a method of protecting young fruit trees from the ravages of grasshoppers that deserves the attention of our farmers and fruit-growers. Mr. Upton informs us that he winds the trees with a preparation that prevents the young hoppers from climbing them and he considers it of so much importance that all those having young trees should correspond with Mr. Hawk on the matter. We add our advice to his and give the address, R. Hawk, Neb. City.

STIR THEM UP!

In this connection it may be well to allude to another fact called to our attention by Mr. Babcock, of Louisville, and that is that if grasshopper eggs are stirred up and exposed to the sun and rain now they cannot hatch next spring, and that it is a good plan to plow corn ground up at once, and stir and move all ground that can be plowed this fall. This is a matter of great importance, and should not be entered into by one or two farmers alone, but by all of them en masse, and then there will be no hoppers to devastate anybody next spring.

OUR CANDIDATES.

The presidential electors at the gentlemen well known in the State. Gen. Strickland is so identified with the history of the State that no further introduction is necessary. Gen. Cobb of Lincoln is almost as well known. He came to the State from Wisconsin several years ago and settled in Lincoln, where he has achieved a reputation as a lawyer second to none in the State.

Gen. Connor, from Indiana, originally settled at Kearney, where he is fast rising to be one of the most prominent citizens. All three are good speakers and have occupied prominent positions in public affairs, both in the States they came from and since their residence in this State.

FRANK WELCH, our nominee for Congress, is now from Madison county. He originally settled in Bart county, in '57, and is one of our oldest settlers. His name appears as Clerk on the roll of the first Legislative Assembly ever held in the Territory of Nebraska. He was then 34 years old, and has been more or less in public life ever since.

From many years personal acquaintance with Mr. Welch we can vouch for his ability, honesty, and Republicanism, and it is true as has been said of him that the nearer to his home you get the warmer and thicker you find his friends, and that's saying a good deal for a man.

THOS. J. MAJORS is a young man from Nemaha county, and one of the brightest we have in the State. He served in the "Nebraska First" and is one of the finest gentlemen you ever met, and if Congress should decide to give us another member, there is no man in the State who could better represent us than Tom Majors.

Gov. Garber, Sec'y. Tschuck, Treasurer McBride and Auditor Weston are all re-nominated by acclamation. This is the best endorsement that could be given them. They need no newspaper notice to tell you their fame. Their acts have made them known to the whole people, and they will undoubtedly be elected by a larger majority than before.

ATT'Y. GEN. ROBERT is a third term, and is also too well known to need any eulogy here. He expects to take the stump, we are informed, and if so we shall hear some good speeches dead sure, this fall.

HON. O. A. ABBOTT, of Hall county, our candidate for lieutenant governor, is a gentleman who possesses to a remarkable extent the confidence of the people of his section. He served in the legislature of '71 and in the constitutional conventions of '71 and '75, and is an excellent parliamentarian, and has executive ability, in case a contingency should devolve upon him the duties of governor.

PROF. A. R. THOMPSON, late dean of the agricultural college in the university, and now principal of the state normal school, is well known in the west as a leading educator, and no better selection could have been made.

F. M. DAVIS, of Clay county, candidate for land commissioner came into the convention with a large local strength embracing a large part of Western and Southern Nebraska. He is not as well known to the people at large as the other gentlemen but he held for some time the office of treasurer of Clay county and is highly spoken of by all who know him or have had dealings with him in an official or business capacity.

George Smith of Cass County is the nominee for dist. attorney, in this district. He is known to every reader of the HERALD as a young man of ability, a good lawyer and if elected will fill the position with credit to himself and honor to the county.

THE GREAT CATTLE FIELD OF THE WEST.

Very few eastern people have any idea of the large scale on which stock raising is conducted in the country now comprising the great plains of the far west of the grass region of Nebraska, Wyoming and Colorado. In short few of our own people fairly realize how extensive the business has grown within a few years.

Our attention has been drawn, quite lately to these facts by the visit of Mr. Hugh Orr, formerly a resident of Cass county, and who has made Cheyenne his headquarters for the last five years. On these great national meadows scattered here and there the cattle men have their ranches, for the most part they put up no hay or winter feed at all.

Mr. Orr has from 1,000 to 2,500 head of cattle, 2,000 to 3,000 of sheep, and 50 to 150 head of horses and ponies. The horses and cattle graze the year round, but for the sheep he puts up hay and builds more or less shelter in the winter. This spring he had 1,488 lambs, these are from Mexican ewes crossed with Cotswold or Merino rams. They are very hardy and he has done well with them.

The cattle now raised there are not the long horned, gaunt, and long-legged Texas coast cattle that many suppose, but cuttle from North Texas and other places, with short horns, heavy bodies and shorter legs, in fact hard to distinguish from native cattle. The sheep are about 7 miles from Cheyenne, and the cattle range within a radius of 50 miles.

The boss cattle man is quite a king over his own ranches, and his sway is recognized for some distance around him. The stock is all shipped east at the proper times each year, and even then, as we found, beefsteaks cost 30c cent a pound.

THREE CHEERS

OHIO AND INDIANA BOTH REPUBLICAN!!

LANDERS & HOLMAN DEFEATED IN INDIANA!

HARRISON ELECTED WITHOUT A DOUBT.

BLUE JEANS WILLIAMS BLUER THAN EVER!

REPUBLICANS GAIN SIX CONGRESSMEN IN OHIO!

OHIO.

COLUMBUS, Oct. 11.—Further returns from the country show continued republican gains, which still keep Barnes somewhat ahead of gains made by Bell in large cities. It now appears that, if the same ratio keep up in the remaining half of the country republican gains will be more than enough to offset the loss in Cuyahoga county, and make the republican majority in the state about 7,000.

John G. Thompson, chairman of the democratic state committee, concedes the state to republicans. These matters require experienced men and able legislators. We hope the Republicans of this county will make a wise selection of men to fill these responsible positions. We want the men selected for their ability and integrity, not for or because of their location. If the party puts up men of the right kind there will be no difficulty in electing them, but there must be no nonsense about the business. The best man is going to win in this county, this fall, and it behooves to have that man the republican candidate. Side issues, local fights and prejudices, must be put aside and all work together with a will. The party is greater than any man or set of men, and its interests at this juncture demand of us first, good candidates, and then earnest, effective and united work from now until November.

MEETING OF THE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Special to the Omaha Daily Republican. LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 10.—The republican state central committee met at 2 p. m. at the Commercial hotel, to elect the executive committee. E. H. Gray was permanent chairman and C. E. Yost permanent secretary. C. H. Gere, C. E. Yost, T. P. Kennard, J. W. Davis and A. H. Babcock were elected members of the executive committee.

The following are delegates for presidential electors: C. A. Holmes for Strickland; D. H. Wheeler for Cobb; W. H. Michael for Connor.

Final returns received from different sections of the state. Arrangements are under progress for a vigorous canvass in all parts of the State. People are anxiously looking for the Herald's roster this morning.

INDIANA.

INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 11.—There is every indication that we have carried the state. Harrison is certainly elected. Returns come in slowly, but it may take the official count to decide.

J. C. HARRISON. We have returns from 149 townships and wards in six two counties, which give a net republican majority of 4,106. The same places in 1874 gave a net republican majority of 2,093.

The most reliable returns received indicate the following result: Republican Congressman, 7; Democratic, 4; doubtful, 2.

Indications are that democrats elect congressmen in the 1st, 2d, 3d, and 12th districts, and the republicans in the 2d, 6th, 7th, 8th, 11th and 13th. The 4th and 5th are doubtful. Brown's majority over Holman in the 5th is 1,509, and Hanna over Landers in the 7th is 2,000.

WEST VIRGINIA.

WHEELING, W. VA., Oct. 11.—The ticket voted is long and in most places the count was abandoned until this morning. Returns are very meagre, but as far as received show republican gains.

MASSACHUSETTS.—Partial returns indicate 100 to 200 republican majority. Jeff town county about 800 democratic majority.

TIC-TACS.

It seems to us that our conventions could and should be better managed and more in accordance with customary parliamentary usage in all other deliberative bodies. We can see no use of appointing a committee on credentials who are required to spend days and nights in investigating disputed cases, only to bring in a report that admits of the whole question being argued before the house again. A sensible man does not feel like serving on such a committee. In the first place, a minority report is only accepted at all, by courtesy. There is no such thing in parliamentary law. If a committee on credentials find they cannot agree and do not want to take the responsibility of deciding between two conflicting factions, their report should be positive on the delegations and men they do admit to seats, and the rest should be referred back to the convention to settle. This would save at least one overwhelming and listening to all of the evidence. But then, we ought really to settle all these things before we come to a state convention. This "doubleheader" is getting to be a monotonous, disagreeable, expensive and time-wasting farce, and some capable chairman of the central committee and of a state convention ought to shut down on these irregularities and bring the party back to the old and well established usage.

R. B. BOND'S IN SAUNDERS COUNTY.

Saunders County voted Tuesday on the question of bonds to the amount of $100,000. The result was as follows: Bonds, 1,000; No bonds, 1,000.

The total vote amounts to 1,447; two-thirds of that number is 965, showing that if the bonds are ahead of the required two-thirds by fifty votes.

The precincts to be held from will probably increase that majority, all the strongholds against the bonds having been reported.

By all accounts they had a hard time of it about Ashland.

The Republican County Convention meets to day at Weeping Water for the nomination of our Senator and Representatives for the next two years.

The persons elected will serve in the first Legislature under the new Constitution. There are many important and radical changes to be made in our laws, and steps to reduce our rate of taxation, and to properly and equitably assess and collect the revenues of state and county must be taken.

These matters require experienced men and able legislators. We hope the Republicans of this county will make a wise selection of men to fill these responsible positions. We want the men selected for their ability and integrity, not for or because of their location. If the party puts up men of the right kind there will be no difficulty in electing them, but there must be no nonsense about the business. The best man is going to win in this county, this fall, and it behooves to have that man the republican candidate. Side issues, local fights and prejudices, must be put aside and all work together with a will. The party is greater than any man or set of men, and its interests at this juncture demand of us first, good candidates, and then earnest, effective and united work from now until November.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

CHICKEN, O-haw-hoo. News from PL. Plattsouth, Oct. 11.—The morning paper party twelve men and seven oxen were attacked by a band of twenty or thirty Indiana twenty five miles from the above post, badly wounding John Ottens, wagon master, and killing one horse.

The number of reds killed is unknown. Two were seen to drop. Mr. Powell, contractor, states that the Indians showed great courage, and were strangely armed with Winchester and army rifles.

SALT LAKE, Oct. 10.—At Beaver Utah, today, Judge Barman passed sentence upon John D. Lee for participation in the Mountain Meadow massacre nineteen years ago. In doing so he called attention to the atrocity of the crime; the inability heretofore of authorities to procure evidence; that the conspiracy to murder was widespread; that he was finally offered up as a sacrifice to popular indignation, but that others equally guilty might hereafter expect punishment. The prisoner having the right under the laws of the territory to choose death by hanging, shoot or beheading, having chosen to be shot, was sentenced to be shot to death January 6th 1877.

We must again request those of our subscribers who are behind on their subscriptions to send us in the amount due me. "After harvest" we were to be paid and we have waited patiently. It is now "after harvest" to our subscribers, but the golden sheaves of subscriptions are not yet harvested for us. Give us a lift friends, and fill our granaries and our exchequer too.

Long ago we were handed a speech made in the House of Representatives by the Hon. L. C. Todd Jan. 25th 1867, on the temperance question. It was handed us last summer by one Thomas Jefferson, and we promised to notice it, which we do now. It has been a long time coming, Mr. Todd, but we have read and now commend the speech very much; while not agreeing with the feasibility of enforcing prohibitory laws, we admit his reasoning on the evils of the traffic, and the need of reformation by some wise measures.
