MARRIED.

WEDDING.—On Friday morning, Oct. 26th, 1876, at the home of Mr. E. R. WINDHAM and Miss FIZZI SHANNON of Glenwood, the Rev. B. Simon, officiated.

These young folks have the best wishes of a host of warm friends for a very happy and prosperous life. Both are excellent young people and their love is mutual. They have given up their former ways and turned to a new life.

The wedding occasion was a happy one, and among the presents to the young bride and groom were a splendid upright piano of the Chickering make, presented by the parents, a fine set of parlor furniture by Dr. W. Whitman, a silver tea service, a set of cut glass, three acres of stable where the horses had laid eggs thicker than peas, They fairly crack as he plows through them. He has turned them all up, and will harrow the young eggs to death in short metre. That's the way to fix them.

The first day of November ushered in the first snow storm of the season.

PERSONAL.

Owing to press of other matter we neglected to make no notice of several occurrences of interest in our city last week.

Among them we are sorry to be obliged to chronicle the departure of Mrs. French, daughter of Captain Wright to the barracks at Omaha, where she will reside this winter. She will be very much missed from Plattsburgh society.

Mrs. Geo. Ballance, of Lincoln, is making a short visit to her parents in Plattsburgh.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, of Kansas, are making their relatives and friends in Cass Co. a visit. Mrs. Baldwin is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wiley, of Three Groves.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson returned from the Centennial last week.

The Browns and the Moes rather seem to run the newspaper business in this state. We have just received a new paper from Junius, the Herald and as usual the rhapsodies name of Brown looms up as editor.
