

Part of his Speech at Omaha, Thursday Evening, Oct. 26th, in which he denounces the Bribery and Corruption.

He asks for 25,000 Republican Majority Because we ought to give it, and it helps us.

Now they say, "why, the other night he never denied that he was a bribe taker and a lobbyist; he never denied that he bought up the legislature as he would buy sheep from the shambles, and all because he is guilty. Now we know he is guilty."

I will tell you what is the matter—some people are willing to believe that it remains in the little story told me by a lady, of her little girl, who cried and said that Tommy was killing the blue-bottle fly.

I don't know that I ought to continue my remarks. I know there are others here who expect to hear I believe that the regular republican ticket of Douglas county ought to be elected.
