Miss Gertie Borders has been visiting in Plattsmouth; she returned to Lincoln on Monday last.

Take the "Forest Trail" for all kidney complaints. It will do the work well.

Mr. Geo. S. Kinser, our gunsmith and repairer of Threshing Machines and other machinery, came in and helped our financial condition. Many thanks friend Kinser.

The Herald is having their buildings newly painted; also the drug store occupied by Mr. Johnson. It helps their appearance very much indeed.

Last Sunday night was about as dark as it usually gets, and church goes had a hard time of it getting home. Mrs. Babington in attempting to cross the street by Jones' stable stepped into the ditch and sprained her ankle very severely.

The weekly meeting of the Literary Society was held in High School Hall on Friday evening. The hall was filled by an orderly and well behaved audience.

The exercises were very interesting, although there was chance for improvement in some particulars, very pertinently shown up in Mr. Windham's most excellent criticism.

Those persons knowing themselves indebted to Clark & Plummer and others for what is known as the Grange Plow will please call and settle with the undersigned immediately and save costs as I have obtained sole control of all the assets.

A few more plows in good order for sale cheap for cash on approved security.

Our lady trimmer is an experienced artist and can trim in any style desired.

J. V. Weckbach will pay in cash or goods the highest market price for any amount of potatoes.

Manufacturing and repairing cheap and better than the best at Merges' shoe factory.

Robert Sherwood's Price List. Fine boots for $5.00. Fine sewed boots for $7.00.

Call and see the new Spring Bed comfort and durability combined.

Mrs. Johnson and Miss Sweeney are constantly receiving new pattern hats of all styles, which go as fast as received.

If you want a good job of blacksmithing, a machine of any kind repaired, a pair of horses well shod, or any other job of blacksmithing or whittlesmithing done in a complete and artistic manner, if you want a No. 1 wagon made or a fine buggy built in a satisfactory manner, go to a first class mechanic.

Hon. Sam M. Chapman helped us over our difficulties promptly. Thanks, Messrs. Straight & Miller, No. 1 harness manufacturers, gave us a lift; and also Messrs. Sage Bros. stoves and tinware, with the necessary lumber.

Mrs. Babington accidentally stepped off the walk into the ditch, opposite the Bonner Stables, as she was returning from church on Sunday evening, wrenching one of her limbs severely. We trust she is not seriously injured. Some young gentlemen assisted her home.

Mr. McClaren, Editor of the Lincoln Democrat, and Miss Pronger called on the Herald Monday. Mr. C. was one of the excursionists and came round by Plattsmouth home, on the principle that the longest way round was the surest. That was it, wasn't it, Mac?

The Kearney Press, notices the Quill Drivers' Motto and their reasons for going on an excursion.

We saw Mr. Craig of Cass Co., at Sidney Friday as we came down. He was in from the Black Hill after goods and looked as brown and hearty as you please.

We have received kindly words from Mr. Thurston, formerly of this place and now in Saginaw, Michigan. We hope Mr. T. will have the best of luck in that country where grasshoppers never come and apples grow like praties.

Mr. T. C. VanEpps, formerly of Elmwood, Cass Co., now of Olympia, Wyoming Ter., sends for the Herald that he may get the news from home.

H. D. Hathaway, of the Lincoln Journal, is in town.

Principals' Convention. LINCOLN, NEB., June 4, 1877. Convention of principals and Co. Supts. at Plattsmouth, July 9th to 19th inclusive hotel board $4 per week, private $3.

S. R. THOMPSON. State Supt. Public Inst.

TRIP NOTES. One of the best, if not the best, eating house on the U. P. road is that of Chauncey Wiltz, at Grand Island.

Who wants a drink of Salt Lake water? Don't all speak at once, we've only got one bottle.

Wanted. A place to board, by a young couple in a private family. Good reference given if required. For further information apply at this office.

During our absence our friend Wm. Agnew went and got married to one of the nicest girls in town, Miss Nellie Parmelee. We think William is in luck. We wish them both the utmost happiness and beg leave to assure them that only absence of body and not presence of mind prevented the Herald from taking a hand in that wedding.
