

We call attention to the Constitution and By-laws of the Red Ribbon Club of Plattsouth, on the outside of this paper.

The Editorial Association meets on the 15th, not the 18th as some papers have it. Also the Wool Growers, the State and Horticultural Societies and the order of good Templars, all the same week, in Lincoln.

The roads are gradually wearing down, and rain begins to come in slowly, making glad the hearts of dealers, and business men on the street.

Several droves of very fine hogs have passed our office this week, on the way to market, those of Ed Todds' particularly were an extra nice lot.

Editorial Association.

The Editorial Association of Nebraska, will meet at the rooms of the Commercial Hotel, in Lincoln, on January 15th, 1877. It is desired there be a full attendance of bona fide members, and we hope several days session will be devoted to the business interests of the fraternity in the State.

J. C. McBRIDE, President, J. A. MacMURPHY, Secretary.

The Committee will be at the Commercial Hotel, Lincoln, on and after January 15th. State papers please copy.

See Here.

We have lately put all our accounts over two years old into the hands of the "North American Union Collecting Co.," of which Messrs Chapman & Sprague are the Agents here. Now no person ought to feel offended at this. We have waited and written on some of these parties and written and written, surely they could write and answer the letters from this office. We intend to distress no one, to make no unnecessary costs for any one, but we must close up these accounts. We have been here over five years now, and many of these accounts are ante-date even that period, being from Hathaways' list which we bought.

Several have stopped their papers on account of these duns, we expect that, though it is very foolish, because we are doing them a kindness to collect now, for the longer the account runs, the harder it is to pay. If these accounts had been paid each year the persons would never have felt them; now they look like big bills and they feel mad.

We have about four hundred subscribers in Cass County alone who now pay us up every year in advance and take one or more papers at our clubs rates, they find it better, and much cheaper, we have no quarrelling over old accounts and they are all better satisfied. We would rather have these four hundred all paid up and no books to keep, than eight hundred unpaid and often hard feelings about the accounts as it is so natural to think you haven't had the paper "so long" and then it is so hard to pay for a "dead horse" always.

Again, every person owing us has been notified time and again by mail, of the amount and our claim, and in no case where they have written and acknowledged the account and asked time have any steps been made to press matters. Our subscribers must remember we do not know them personally and we have lost hundreds of dollars by those leaving, or too poor to pay finally. When you will not answer our letters how we we to know anything about you. Farmers are very remiss in this, 50 postal cards would cost but 50 cents a year and they are the handiest, most useful thing the government ever put out. Get these cards and make a point of answering every letter you get if by only a few lines, lots of trouble and misunderstandings will be saved each year by it. Please remember now, no unkindness is meant by us, no partiality is shown, the books are taken just as they run, and in every case all we want is some fair settlement and to this no fair man ought to object.

The natives of Plattsouth were started a few days since by the declaration of the Omaha Bee, that Jay Gould was determined to own that valuable paper, and had offered $30,000 for it. Owing to the number of parties that held mortgages on the concern, the offer must be accepted unless the "South Platters" should come to rescue. Rather than sell to Gould, so the Bee man stated to the Plattsouthers, and thus betray the people of the South Platte to this monster of iniquity, the patriotic Rosewater would sacrifice $10,000. The Bee was therefore offered lock, stock, barrel and all, to the "South Platters," for $40,000, in 160 shares at $250 each. Only a few days were given to accept this offer, and, in default, the paper would be sold to its immediate owner, and the country ruined. The subscription book is at the post office, and we advise the blotted capitalists of Plattsouth to step up and subscribe. The Journal charges nothing for this advertisement.—Lincoln Journal.

We very much opine that the blotted capitalists about here stepped not up. We know nothing personally of the truth or the falsity of the above, except that Seth Cole was down here twice, the last time on his way to Neb. City; whether he told such a silly story or not is known only to those to whom he made offers of business.

It makes but little difference to South Platte whether Jay Gould buys the Bee or not. According to the Bee he runs the other two papers in Omaha and he may as well own the Bee. Omaha has long since ceased to be the state of Nebraska or the Omaha papers to control its destinies, and when we get around to the point, where we need a particularly South Platte paper, we shall use our own judgment, no doubt, in the selection.

GEN. Jno. O'Neill, who is widely known throughout Nebraska by his successful efforts in the organization of several large colonies of his countrymen who have settled in Nebraska, died at Omaha on the 7th instant of paralysis. The General had been in Omaha for a couple of months under medical treatment and it was thought at one time he was recovering, but three weeks ago he began to grow worse, and continued to fail until his death on Tuesday. About ten years ago, at the head of a small Fenian force he made an invasion of Canada which resulted disastrously in the battle of Ridgeway.

From the State Register (Lincoln.)

Editorial Association. The Kearney Press, one of our five best and most radical exchanges, says: We have several times given our views concerning the coming meeting of the editorial association of Nebraska. The following, from the Plattsouth Herald, is plain, sensible talk which should be well considered by all newspaper publishers throughout the state:

Then follows our remarks on the object of the Association and the Register adds:

The Register is in full accord with the Press and the Herald in this matter. Newspaper men have, in a certain sense, a common interest. By these associations they may cultivate fraternal relations which will be useful to themselves without injury to others. By such meetings they may better prepare themselves to discharge aright the grave duties which they owe to the public. "Business is business" in newspaper as in all other work. By interchanging of thought in these Press meetings the editorial fraternity are quite likely to be benefited. We look forward to the gathering of January 15th, confident that it will do great good to the newspaper men of Nebraska.

WE GO AND COME.

Many changes were made in and about the Court House last week. Last Thursday, all the old officers elected vacated their places and the new ones took their seats.

GOING OUT.

C. P. Moore ratifies and leaves the office in good shape we understand. Mr. Moore was perfectly competent for the position and with the aid of Mr. Jennings the books and papers are properly filed and information needed more accessible than heretofore.

J. C. Cummins who has served this County with credit for two terms steps aside now for Mr. James Patterson. Mr. Cummins with the aid of Mr. Wise has also made his office a model of neatness and dispatch and has the entire confidence and respect of this community he Republican or Democrat, something that cannot always be said of a retiring public official.

M. B. Cutler, gives way for R. W. Hyers Sheriff. Mr. Cutler has also served with great credit for two terms, and it may also be said that few sheriffs have been able to manage the difficult and delicate matters coming up in this office with more tact and judgment than "Mart" Cutler and leave it with as few real enemies behind.

W. H. Newell, our past County Judge is one of the best men that ever filled the position in Cass county. Honest, conscientious, and fearing no man, he has neither been led away by his sympathies nor bull-dozed by the Lawyers and every man could rest assured that he would get substantial Justice in Judge Newell's Court. Without any detriment to his successor we shall part with Judge Newell with regret.

W. B. Arnold the retiring Commissioner is another gentleman who leaves a most excellent reputation behind him; courteous though firm, looking carefully and consistently after the County interests Mr. Arnold has won the respect and good will of almost every man who ever came before the board while he was chairman.

Superintendent Crippen goes out of office, with a good report of the efficiency of the schools and their increase and is succeeded by D. D. MARTINDALE a young man well known here and now living at Louisville. He is perfectly competent to fill the situation difficult as that is, and has the good wishes of the HERALD and all his old friends in the County for his success.

It has been so long since the regularly elected Coroner served that we have forgotten who he was and his name was Dr. Reed and he did his duty while here, afterwards Edward Buttery tried his hand, by appointment, and except those jokes we got on him about watching the River, &c. Edward performed the functions of the office most creditably. His successor, Dr. Hildebrand, is a young man of good education, very gentlemanly and perfectly competent. He is not so heavy an "ed" and if the HERALD ever to be "set on" we prefer Hildebrand to Buttery. Verbum sap.

George Fairfield has been a Surveyor or from time immemorial. He serves and serves, third terms are nowhere. Reform can't out him, nor Democracy overcome him, George is our candidate now for 1878 and we bet our last cigar on him.

COMING IN. We find J. D. Tuttle in the Clerk's office, a reliable steady man who takes hold quietly and earnestly of his business. John is a democrat, but just so long as he performs his duty well and truly he'll and the HERALD on his side. He is assisted by Mr. John Jennings, long and favorably known in that department and really one of the most competent men for clerical duties we have among us.

James Patterson, our new Treasurer, is also a democrat, and a good one. He is now City Treasurer, has been a member of the Legislature, more or less, and is every way a competent and agreeable gentleman and can make us one of the best Treasurers we ever had, if he is a mind to, and we think he will. He is assisted by Mr. J. N. Wise, also a very useful man in that position. Judge Sullivan, new County Judge, brings considerable experience to the business, having been Squire Sullivan Gracious Moses knows how long. Everybody is pleased at his election and has full confidence in his future judgments.

R. W. Hyers, sheriff, comes to the office with a most excellent character as a citizen, with all the external appearance of a No. 1 business man and we feel that the people have made a wise election.

Jas. Crawford, the new Commissioner, is well known in this county, and takes his place with the good wishes of many personal friends, and the confidence of the whole county that he will look after our interests as a County, successfully, neither allowing the public business to dilly-dally for re-tape obstructiveness, nor be carelessly transacted for any reason.

The County Commissioners began their session on the 2nd day of January and after a two days session devoted to general business they then commenced their settlement with the treasurer, J. C. Cummins, which will take them three or four weeks. There will be a full and accurate settlement and a plain and careful statement made of the condition of the county financially. The board now consists of B. S. Ramsey, chairman, Henry Wolfe still a member, and James Crawford who was elected last fall, and took his seat for the first time at this meeting.

THE RUSSIANS TAKE SOPHIA. Loss of the Steamer Alacama.

BUCAREST, January 5.—The Russians have taken Sophia. Details are wanting. Troops are constantly passing through Galatz. This is understood to mean serious operations against the quadrilateral.

LONDON, January 5.—Marriage has been arranged between Lord Roseberry and Hannah, only daughter of Baron de Rothschild.

PANAMA, January 5.—The Star and Herald has a letter from Lima giving the particulars of the loss of the steamer Alacama, which went to pieces on the rock known as Quebrada Oias, a short distance south of Coladora, on the Chilian coast on the night of the 30th. Captain Hall, officer, and many of the crew and passengers were lost. In all it is estimated 101 persons were drowned, twenty-nine were saved. The ship was on a trip from Valparaiso to Callao. She struck at 8 p.m. when a majority of the passengers were below, and so instantaneous was the breaking up of the ship that no time was given to gain the decks. The cargo lost was not of great value, and the passengers mostly Chilians journeying between the ports.

The State Editorial Association meets at Lincoln on the 15th of January. Among the subjects of most importance to be discussed are the pay-in-advance system, the feasibility of procuring the publication of the State laws, and the forming of some adjustment between the legal fraternity and publisher regarding the securing of payment of legal advertising, which is an absolute loss to most newspapers.—Fremont Herald.

LONDON, January 7.—It is reported the Earl of Carnarvon, secretary of state for the Colonies, has resigned. Opinion is gaining ground that a general election for members of parliament is near and that conservative managers are already preparing therefor.

VIENNA, January 7.—It is said the Russians found 8,000 Turkish wounded in Sophia.

DEADWOOD, D. T., Jan. 7.—A disturbance occurred to day over the Homesake Mine No. 2, situated near Lead City. J. D. Ottinger & Co., of Chicago, purchased this property some time ago, and the former proprietors tried to take possession of it with a large armed force, claiming that Ottinger & Co. had failed to meet their payments. A great many men representing both parties have been arrested. Considerable excitement prevails, and more trouble is expected. Ottinger & Co. still retain possession.
