LEGAL NOTICES AT STATUTE RATES.

Attorneys and officers of the law will be held responsible for all legal notices they hand in, and all parties demanding a proof of publication of any notice will be held for the publication fee of such notice.

COMMUNICATIONS.

As our space is limited, all communications must be paid for in advance, and are at the risk of the sender. The paper is responsible for the correctness of copy of paid matter and paid legal notices.

ANY PERSON WHO TAKES THE PAPER REGULARLY FROM THE POST-OFFICE, WHETHER DIRECTED TO HIS NAME OR WHETHER HE IS A SUBSCRIBER OR NOT, IS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE PAYMENT THEREOF.

If any person orders his paper discontinuing, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made, and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not. If, on receiving a paper, the subscriber refuses to take same, and returns it to the office, he is held for the price of such paper, and for the amount of any arrears.

LOCAL NEWS.

It keeps patching the sleighing up a little all the time.

The Herald house will receive calls as usual New Year's day.

G. W. Thomas and Miss Sallie Wright will be married this evening we understand.

St. Luke's Church was handsomely trimmed and services at 11 o'clock on Christmas day.

The thermometer stood 10° below 0 on Sunday morning, but by one o'clock was up to 20 above.

How soon the New Year will be here, 1879. How short the time since with equal zest we wrote 1878.

A. W. Dawson says up for the Herald with "joy and glee," and looks just as "young as he used to be."

Frank Bosmer from his ears very badly, driving from Weeping Water on Saturday. The 'em up hereafter, "Boss."

Lawyer Stone was married to Mrs. Williams on Christmas eve, the 24th, by the Rev. Mr. Burgess of St. Luke's.

Lehnhoff has got him a new sleigh for the children, very pretty and useful. Charley Hoffman built it, so he did.

Somehow we forgot to say last week that Mr. and Mrs. Mart, Cutler were in town and looking as charming as possible.

To-morrow night the great Masonic Festival takes place—on St. John's eve. It will be a very brilliant affair, we expect.

Don't forget to call at J. P. Young's and examine those New Year's cards, and you will be sure to leave orders for having some printed.

An air hole in the Missouri extends from the B. & M. Depot to the transfer. It is about thirty yards wide and hugs the shore clear around the bend.

The Herald of last week had by actual measurement, 15,500 "ems" more of original home matter (set up here) than both the other papers combined.

Our poetry is getting so famous that the boys are speaking it in school. "The boy stood on the burning deck" will soon be nowhere if the Herald keeps on.

There is some awful poor coal oil being sold here. Every one is complaining. We'll have to get Capt. Palmer's coal oil law enforced if it don't grow better.

The bridge men failed to find bottom in the old Muddy Sunday morning with a thirty feet pile. The night before there was only fifteen feet of water in the same spot.

We are now prepared to print New Year's cards in the latest styles. New type, different styles and sizes, appropriate for long or short names. Leave orders at Phil Young's.

Lots of immigrants here every day trying to cross the river. Have to put their stock on the cars. A few days like this though will close the old Muddy up so they can cross on the ice.

Marshall Murphy had a lot of hard cases up Friday morning, but had to let 'em go, as they had no money for fines. But it is a good thing to let them know that arrest and punishment is sure.

The only place in the city where you can get the latest styles of New Year's cards is at the Herald office. J. P. Young keeps the cards, and we do the printing. Go and take your choice of cards, and Phil will get them printed immediately.

There is a man in Cass County who is related by marriage to Gen. Lee, of revolutionary fame, the late Gen. Lee, Gen. Jackson and Stonewall Jackson. It is needless to say he is a democrat, but a sound man without.

The Liederkranz Ball comes off next Wednesday evening, just before this paper goes to press again. Our German friends are anticipating much pleasure therefrom, and it will be a jolly New Year's party.

Speaking of razors, said John Hoons, as he made change for a quarter, "Adam and Eve were the first raisers." "How so?" asked the customer. "They raised Cain." As the man put his coat he asked: "Are you Able to make another joke like that."

Personal.

Mr. Love goes up to Omaha to spend the holidays.

Hon. Joe McCaig was in town Monday and Tuesday.

Anderson Root called Monday and left the Herald a sub. better off.

Young Mr. Young brings us some very nice honey for the Herald again.

Mrs. Hayes is spending the holidays with her relatives and friends in the city.

G. C. Harmon W. W. takes a Herald and Inter-Ocean for another year. Thanks.

Rev. D. Marquette and wife have been visiting at Mr. Montgomery's for a few days.

The Rev. Mr. Burgess, of St. Luke's, went to Lincoln, Christmas to officiate at the marriage ceremony of Miss Cattle.

Mr. Simons is enjoying Christmas and New Year's with his friends here and looks as smiling and pleasant as ever.

Mr. Curtis Watson an old subscriber of the Herald called on Tuesday and we were pleased to make his personal acquaintance.

John Christiansen, Esq., an oldtime resident here, and former Master Mechanic at the B. & M. shops passed through here Thursday.

Mr. Drummond is spending the holidays in Plattsburgh among his friends. He seems to be pleased with his surroundings in his new home and work at Fremont.

For Window Shades and fixtures go to Shryock's.

Remember. Schools will be opened on Jan. 2, 1879, and there will be three days of school that week.

Fred Gorder keeps soft coal cheap—Send in your orders at once.

They say John Dillon played here week before last. We have no knowledge of it. The John Dillon we used to know traveled with gentlemen—this outfit had better hire another manager, or advance agent. We rather guess John is about played out here, anyway.

WANTED.—Corn, oats, or wood, on subscription, now at once. You that have accounts overdue, here is your best chance. After January these old accounts will be sued, sure.

A large lot of fine Chromos, Panel Pictures, Motives and Frames for the Holidays, at Shryock's.

Christmas Evening in Town. The Presbyterian Church had a very handsome Christmas tree, chock full of presents, which Mayor Johnson, Andy McLaughlin, Capt. Palmer and others handed down to the happiest lot of young and older children you ever saw.

St. Luke's church gave a supper down in Dube's H.E.I., where a merry crowd sored away heaps of turkey and chickens and had a merry time generally.

The M. E. Church programme for Christmas night was the most elaborate perhaps of all. An arch in front of the altar was filled with presents which were duly distributed by the dignitaries of the church and Sunday School. Santa Claus appeared, they had singing, speeches and a general Christmas welcome for all.

Married. The Herald receives the following elegant card, "Mr. and Mrs. A. C. White." And every one knows what that means. Arthur White has been getting married just before Christmas, to Miss Eva A. Cornell, at Crete, and the happy couple have come home to spend Christmas with Father White. That's a nice Christmas present, Arthur, to bring home to Father and Mother—a new daughter. We are proud no one will ever bring the poor old Herald such a present, but luck is luck and we must all take our chances in this world, and the next too, for that matter.

Every year since our connection with the Herald as Christmas day approaches a substantial looking package is handed to us with "Kind wishes from Mr. and Mrs. Stadelmann," and that package contains a delicious fruit cake, which we always enjoy with many kind wishes in return for the welfare of Mr. and Mrs. Stadelmann and their family, and we hope that many Merry Christmases may dawn for them in return for their efforts to make it happy for others.

The Musicale given by Miss Simpson on Saturday evening last to show the proficiency and progress of her pupils, gave a very pleasant evening's entertainment to the parents and friends assembled. We have long known and appreciated Miss Simpson's ability as a teacher and on that evening our appreciation was enhanced as we observed in the performances of the pupils, the results of patient training, and cultivation of a taste for what we might call standard music. This class of properly instructed pupils growing up will help to elevate the musical taste of all around them, and thus the efforts now confined to a few individuals will have an influence much wider in the future. Lack of time and space incident upon the holiday duties prevent our mentioning the performances of the pupils in detail. We can only commend the scholars to persevere as they have begun and their progress will be much more rapid the higher they go, under such training. To Miss Simpson we say, the people of Plattsburgh will appreciate more and more as time passes the opportunity that is offered them of gaining for their children through musical instruction, and a reward better than the pecuniary one for honest work will come sooner or later.
