Mr. B. owns 100 acres of land near Plattsburgh, which he pre-empted in '57. He is at present engaged, with the assistance of his wife, brother-in-law and wife Mr. & Mrs. L. H. Trowbridge, in publishing the "Christian Herald," at Detroit, one of the leading Baptist papers in the United States.

—Prof. Angier's lecture Monday night was as well attended, and the programme so far as was heard, was very good. First on the list was a declamation from Mr. Campbell; ditto, Miss Simpson; essay, Miss Smith; song, Miss Butterfield; declamation, Mr. Manly; essay, Mrs. Bowen; declamation, Gill Hobbs. Owing to absence of several members, the programme was shorter than usual. After recess the discussion waxed warm, but lack of time and space will not admit of particulars.

—Much speculation is indulged in whether the Greenbackers and the Democrats can unite. Such men as Ware Allen and other real Greenbackers who believe in the doctrines say "never." Old standum democrats also say, they cannot agree to be swallowed by the Greenback party. On the other hand, who are merely after spoils, or to gain a personal end, want fusion. Time will tell, meanwhile every Republican needs to get ready to be at his post. Defeat this fall means despair next time and that is the all in all for our party. Bear these truths in mind friends and neighbors.
