Thanksgiving Proclamation.

The following proclamation was issued by the President to-day : "At no recurrence of the season which the devout habit of a religious people has made the occasion for giving thanks to Almighty God, and humbly invoking His divine favor, has the material preservity enjoyed by our whole country been more conspicuous, more mantold or more universal. During the past year, also, unbroken peace with all foreign nations, the general provalence of domes in tranquility, and the supremary and security of the great fastitutions of civil and religious freedom have gladdened the hearts of our people, and confirmed their attachment to their government, which the wisdom and courage of our ancestors which the wisdom and courage of our ancestors os fitly framed, and the wisdom and courage of their descendants have so firmly maintained, to be the habitation of Liberty and Justice to to be the habitation of Liberty and Justice to successive generations.

"Now, therefore, I. Rutherford B. Hayes, President of the United States, do appoint Thursday, the 27th day of November, instant, as a day of National Thanksgiving and Prayer, and I carnestly recommend that, withdrawing themselves from secular cares and labors the people of the United States do meet together on that day in their respective places of worship, there to give thanks and praise to

Chief Big Snake Killed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 1 .- Senator Zachariah Chandler, of Michigan, was found dead in his bed at the Grand Pacific Hetel this morning. He had been in Wisconsin, and last night addressed an immense audience at McCormick's Hall in this city, and spoke with his usual earnestness. After the meeting, when he and Senator Logan and Hon. Jesse Spaulding were sitting in his room engaged in conversation, Senaator Chandler complained of indigestion. As he had complained of the same distressing feeling while en route to the city with the gentlemen, Mr. Spaulding suggested that he remain over in the city until Saturday night: but he said his businesss affairs required his attention at home, and the order was given to have him called in the morning at 7 o'clock. His friends then bade him good night and left. That is the last time the Senator was seen alive. This morning when the office boy called him, there was no response. So, upon repetition, the Clerk effected an entrance through the transom and found that the Senator was dead. The body was not quite cold, and a physician who was present decided that death occurred about three hours previous to the discovery. The face looked tranquil, showing that death was painless. The Coroner will hold an inquest. John B. Drake telegraphed President Hayes the sad inteligence about 8 o'clock.

From a partial examination, Dr. Mc-Vickers, who was called in, is of opinion that death was the result of sudden congestion of the lungs, brought about by a cold which was contracted at Janesville. The inquest will be held this afternoon.
