THE men we clothe in this store are well-dressed men; not always when they first come to us, but always after that, as long as they continue to let us look after their clothes.

Hart Schaffner & Marx

makes clothes for well-dressed men; for men who appreciate quality; for men who are as much or more interested in what they get for their money as in what they pay.

Copyright by Hart Schaffner & Marx

This store is the natural headquarters for such men; and if any of you haven't yet found that out, you're doing yourself an injustice in the matter of clothes that we're sorry for.

Come in soon and see what we're doing here to well-dress our fellow-citizens. All-wool fabrics, fine tailoring, correct style and fit.

PAUL STOREY, THE CLOTHIER.

The W. R. C. met Tuesday afternoon and Mrs. E. Huff of Omaha the state inspector of the W. R. C. was here and inspected the order. She reports the lodge here in first class shape. A big banquet was served at Comrade McConkey's residence at six o'clock in honor of Mrs. Huff.

G. J. Warren has sold the Tepee to Oscar Hughes, the transfer being made today. Mr. Warren has enjoyed a good patronage chiefly because he has presented attractions of merit and instruction. Mr. Hughes will undoubtedly continue the same policy and we bespeak for him success.

Just as much care, in fact a little more, should be exercised in buying electric and irons, as in buying any thing else. Some irons use more electricity than others in doing the same work. Get your electric irons of MORRIS BROS. they carry the authorized iron. Be careful of "just as good" electric irons.

Miss Blanche Osborn and Mr. Ralph McConkey were united in marriage Sunday afternoon at five o'clock at the home of Rev. G. W. Hummel.
