An Unusual Bereavement

Biz Points and his wife, formerly Sarah Arneson, living south of Inavale, have been sorely afflicted in the loss of their twin boys, Dallas Frank and Donald Clyde, born August 14th, 1913. The former died last Friday, the funeral occurring on Saturday, the latter dying on Monday night, the funeral being held on Tuesday afternoon. Rev. I. W. Edson had charge of both services, the choir from Inavale being present to sing. A large number of neighbors and friends was present at both services and every expression of love and sympathy was given. Singularly enough, this is the second case of dual loss in a family in the vicinity, in a few weeks past the two children of Mr. Wintjen passing away within an hour of each other, the interment being in the same cemetery. Rev. Edson also having charge of that funeral.

Cards of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Points of Walnut Creek, desire to convey their thanks to the very large number of faithful friends and neighbors who have ministered to them in the sickness and death of their beloved children, May the dear Heavenly Father long spare your loved ones to you, and in the event of affliction comfort and bless you as we feel He is blessing us.

"The Car With a Conscience"

STABILITY—The Oakland Motor Car Company made its first car in 1907. So the Company is in its eighth manufacturing year. We have followed the progress of the industry and in succession have made two four and six cylinder cars. We built less than 300 cars in 1907. In 1913 we produced over 8,000 cars. Consistent progress like this can mean but one thing—that our foundation we have built permanently and for all time. Constant growth like this means a host of satisfied owners. Owners who have told others that the Oakland is a good car. For 1915 we offer a line of beautiful and dependable cars. Cars that are good to look at and cars that are mechanically true. Cars that are made to satisfy the most critical owner. Four and six cylinder models. Open and closed bodies. Many types $1200 to $3600, fully equipped. f. o. b. Pontiac, Michigan.
