Northwest Pawnee

Mr. and Mrs. John Brown and family, and Jas. Wonderly returned from Atwood last Wednesday from a four days visit with their relatives Will Wonderly and family. Frank Ryan stacked his wheat last Thursday and Friday. Wonderly was engineer of the stacking. Frank says it pays to wait in order to get the work done right. Mr. and Mrs. Clair Shrader, from Kansas City, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan last week. They arrived just as grain stacking was at its height. Frank explained that in South County there were no exemptions from the 'work or fight' order of the government. The soldiers are decided that in order to keep peace in the family they would wait, and you would have been delighted could you have seen them, ladies and all, busily engaged in doing their bit. Miss Jewel Coffey, of Lebanon, was visiting with Mrs. M. A. Leadbrand last week. The Misses Coffey and Leadbrand are schoolmates. Edgars expresses a liking for coffee these days. Nearly everyone in this neighborhood took in the Red Cloud Choptauqua for at least one day. All were very highly pleased with it this year. Jas. Goullie's helping man has started hauling wood for fall and winter fuel. Mrs. Sapan O'Hare, of Hastings, is visiting relatives here and will remain with her granddaughter, Mrs. E. Myers for several weeks. Sanka Hooper attended to choring at the John Brown home while the family were visiting at Atwood. She proved herself an artist at cutting weeds. Mrs. Pearl Casper went to Ft. Dodge to visit her husband who was called to the colors a short time since. Gas Piel recently returned from California, is planning to do some painting for his renters, Bert Gass and Roy Myers, as soon as the rush of summer work is over. Everett Myers and wife and Susan O'Hara were visiting their relatives Patrick Goullier and family last Sunday. J. C. Williams and Jay Leadbrand autored to Red Cloud one day last week on a business trip. Mr. and Mrs. J. Ryan and Mrs. F. Ryan went to Red Cloud one day last week with a large quantity of butter and eggs. Their car was loaded to its utmost capacity. Mrs. J. Goullie and family, Mrs. A. Williams and family, and Ernest Smith were dinner guests of Mrs. M. A. Leadbrand last Sunday.
