

The Tentative Ideas of the Fashion Artists Have Crystallized

THE experimental stage in trying out the new Fall and Winter fashions has passed and only the most successful ones remain.

You find the best efforts of the New York, Cleveland, London and Paris fashion artists here in Red Cloud.

We take a great deal of pride in our showing of women's and misses' coats---for it is the result of months of searching for the best in the market: a market, as you know, that has been none too well supplied and has been getting "thinner" day by day.

You can buy here with confidence that you are receiving the best obtainable.

qualifications for office, without let or hindrance. And we claim further that when we mention the names of B. F. Perry, Albert V. Ducker, Frank Huffer, Judge J. D. Ranney, J. L. Beebe, or others equally good, and make statement of the work they have done or are doing, as reason for their favorable consideration at the hands of the voters. We are not misclassifying anyone nor playing any symphony chords.

With President Wilson's answer to Germany ringing throughout the civilized world; in contemplating the splendid sequence of his utterances which, without giving the enemy opportunity to claim that America "insists on continuing the war," led up to the ultimatum, the criticism offered so freely at the start becomes akin to the importance and efficiency of a blind man hunting a black cat in a dark cellar.

The editor is a native of the Empire state and naturally in close touch with the history and precepts of Colonel Roosevelt. For once we can agree with the doughty colonel---when he says "We should put an absolute end to the threat of German world domination." We add Let the sob of outraged Belgium, the cry of devastated France, the sound of the Lusitania tragedy, be heard in the "peace conference. Put the question up to Foch, Haig, Pershing and their gallant soldiery---the men who have seen with their own eyes. Their answer will not be far amiss.

In compounding a political prescription last week the Chief inadvertently used N.O. producing a gaseous mixture provocative of hilarity, when it was intended to have been H.O., a chilling application of cold fluid. The Chief erred in coupling the names of Senators Norris and Hitchcock in the anti-suffrage vote. Although differing radically with Senator Norris the Chief has no desire to make political capital out of misrepresentation and hereby cheerfully corrects the error. Senator Norris voted in the affirmative on the suffrage amendment. Give him credit for that.

A million people cheered un-they were hoarse when President Wilson appeared at the head of the Liberty parade on the "Avenue of the Allies" in New York City last Saturday. It was a cheer that was heard around the world and echoed and re-echoed among the 22 nations arrayed against autocracy. And in Berlin it sounded a death knell to the kaiser's dream of world dominion. Napoleon finished a meteoric career alone on a desolate island, but his was a glorious finish in comparison with that which confronts the kaiser and his war-lords.

The "Com-Ad" in a recent issue rolls a little sugar-coated pill down our stairway. Under camouflage of railery over an error confessed and corrected elsewhere on this page our esteemed contemporary gently insinuates that the "democratic mouthpiece" displays tendency to misrepresent. There is a trite aphorism regarding glass houses and pebble-throwing to which we respectfully call our neighbor's attention. We quote, with a few words of comment: "Governor McKelvie---maybe: "Every industrial or public service activities that has been taken over by the government has become a financial failure shortly thereafter"---we should worry: "The Southern Democratic machine is running the country"---an old story, date about 1861; "Party that exploits big business in order that it may continue in power"---while reading listen to the squeal of the trusts and profiteers: "Tremendous waste of resources, England's war expense is half less"---England is such a big country, too! And more akin, which if not "tending toward misrepresentation," forms pretty thin ice for walking purposes.

Take heed of President Wilson's word's: "Relaxation now, hesitation now, would mean defeat when victory seems to be in sight; would mean years of war instead of peace upon our own terms." Comment is unnecessary. Duty is plainly apparent. Do it! And keep on doing it---in order that lives may be saved; in order that enduring peace may reign.

Our esteemed contemporary, the Advertiser, accuses the Chief of being a "democratic mouthpiece." Whereat we are much pleased for we started six months ago with a declaration that the Chief should be conducted on democratic lines, and our neighbor's comment is evidence of some degree of success. As to the charge of introducing the sympathy racket as a factor in county politics, however, we deny the allegation and defy the alligator. We claim the right to make our choice of candidates for office; to name them if we so desire; and to present their claims and Mention of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Kizer's golden wedding anniversary, was accidentally omitted from our last week's issue.

THE ONLY DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN WEBSTER COUNTY

On with the Liberty Loan. Its success means the saving of countless lives. Its success opens a broad path to peace.

Now is the time to put every ounce of strength into the struggle for world liberty. To lay down without victory means simply to saddle another war upon posterity.

In replying to a personal letter written by J. A. McArthur, Governor Keith Neville states that he will personally see that the soldier boy "Mac" gets a ballot so he can cast a vote in the coming election. Governor Neville further states that he hopes to visit Red Cloud in person the forepart of next week.

Take heed of President Wilson's word's: "Relaxation now, hesitation now, would mean defeat when victory seems to be in sight; would mean years of war instead of peace upon our own terms."
