Musical Recital
E. H. Newhouse will present Mme. Olette Le Fontenay, lyric soprano, of the Metropolitan Opera Company season 1917-1918 and Miss Virginia Powell, violinist, in a recital at the Orpheum Theatre on Wednesday evening, November twenty-seventh.
Julius Maccauni wrote to Olette Le Fontenay when he heard she had been engaged by the Opera Company, Paris. "It is with great satisfaction that I learn of your engagement at the Opera Comique, and I am surprised to find that you are to be our principal soprano."
That gives you a slight idea of Mme. Le Fontenay who has exceptional voice. Her voice is a full and delightful soprano, and she brings to her artistic work a great emotional intensity. Aside from her beautiful voice, the ineffable atmosphere of French art makes the singing of Olette Le Fontenay consistently delightful. In addition to her vocal ability and her charming personality, she is an interpreter in the highest sense of the term. Her program will consist largely of well-known songs in English, which is added testimony to her versatility.
The fact that Mme. Le Fontenay is to be assisted by Miss Powell lends added interest to the event.

Cowles Holds Celebration
Monday morning when it was learned by official announcement that the Amistice had been signed every one in Cowles was very jubilant; school was dismissed and teachers and scholars marched up and down the streets singing, shouting and blowing horns, in fact any thing that would make a noise was brought forth. Everyone quit work for the day and celebrated. Bells were rung continuously, little Arthur Gled ringing the bell at the Christian church from 7 o'clock in the morning until nearly six in the evening.
The school and citizens met the following day and resolved to observe the anniversary of the signing of the Emancipation Proclamation by the President of the United States. The school was decorated with flags and bunting and a large number of children gave a short address on the subject of the Emancipation Proclamation. ### These Three Books

"Go to Southwestern Nebraska"
"There's a Farm for You in Colorado"
"The Big Horn Basin of Wyoming"

Describe sections with low priced lands that grow large and high-priced crops and should appeal equally to investor and homemaker. If you are searching for a home where wheat and livestock farmers flourish, where their families enjoy modernized farm life and where Burlington lines afford quick service to every market center, visit SOUTHWESTERN NEBRASKA and NORTHEASTERN COLORADO; see these great, fertile prairies and locate your son or yourself where you are sure to prosper.

Or, if you prefer irrigated farming, go to the BIG HORN BASIN OF WYOMING, where every irrigated acre is sure to reach a high price. Take an irrigated homestead in the Deaver project—one of the best projects the government has developed—20 years to pay for water right—no interest and no profit taken.
