

Many English Girls Still Hold Their War Jobs

The shortage of male labor in England is responsible for the vast number of factory jobs that are being monopolized by female help. Many of the industries which were run by women during the war are still under the control of the fairer sex. This photograph shows three English girls who have become efficient workers in a glass factory.

Bicycle Airplane Is Latest

Pedestrians on the Bois de Boulogne, Paris, were startled out of their usual placidity recently, when this odd-appearing contraption was introduced to their eyes. Close inspection proved it to be merely a bicycle with airplane appendages, built to fly. It made its successful flight while the astonished Parisians looked on. This latest development in the motor industry will no doubt be a popular vehicle. It is called the aviette.

California Objects to These Girls

Here are some of the "picture brides," just arrived from Japan, who were questioned in San Francisco by the congressional immigration committee that has been inquiring into California's complaints against Japan. Scarcely any of the girls questioned had seen the men they came to marry. It was said this might be the last lot of "picture brides" to arrive in America.

Boat That Dashed Lipton's Hopes

The Bristol yacht Resolute, which successfully defended the America's cup against Lipton's Shamrock IV, photographed as she was crossing the finish line in one of the races. The Resolute lost the first two races of the series and then won three straight. Sir Thomas says he will try again in 1922.

IN A FIREMEN'S SCHOOL

In order that the Chicago fire department may retain its efficiency, the local fire officials have been conducting a school to instruct the members of the department in the use of all the equipment with which a modern fire department is fitted. The photograph shows Chief Carmody showing a fireman how to use a rescue apparatus.

NEW HAMPSHIRE IS WINNER

Granite State Recipient of First Prize in Membership "Push"—South Dakota Second.

New Hampshire won the American Legion's nation-wide membership "push," May 17 to 22, it was announced at Legion national headquarters recently, and will receive the stand of silk colors offered as first prize to the state enrolling the largest percentage of eligible ex-service persons prior to the close of business on June 15.

South Dakota wins second prize, a stand of woolen colors. The prizes will be presented by the national commander, Franklin D'Olier, at the national convention of the Legion in Cleveland next September.

Other states finished in the race, in order, as follows: North Dakota, Nebraska, Vermont, California, Kansas, Oregon, Iowa, Washington, Wyoming, Indiana, Maine, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Nevada, Minnesota, Illinois, Idaho, Arizona, Ohio, District of Columbia, Michigan, Utah, Wisconsin, Kentucky, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Oklahoma, Colorado, New Mexico, New York, West Virginia, Connecticut, Delaware, Texas, Missouri, Florida, Montana, Arkansas, Maryland, Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia and Alabama.

The Legion now has 9,452 posts in all parts of the United States and in several foreign countries, and 1,027 women's auxiliary units. The total enrollment since the organization was first established, 15 months ago, is more than 2,000,000, though national dues for all these members for the year 1920 have not yet been received at national headquarters. In determining the results of the membership drive, only members for whom national dues up to and including December 31, 1920, had been received by the national treasurer were counted. Since the drive closed, on June 15, more than 22,000 names of new members have come in.

CHAPLAINS' BADGE OF HONOR

Medal to Be Given by Protestant Churches Which United in War Work.

A commemorative medal is to be given by the Protestant churches which united in war work through the general war-time commission of the churches to all their chaplains of the American army and navy who served in the war. The chaplains' medal is the work of Mrs. Laura Gardin Fraser of New York, one of the best known of American medalists, and the wife of the designer of the Victory button.

Mrs. Fraser has chosen, in the design for the chaplains' medal, to represent an army chaplain in the act of supreme service—ministering to a wounded man at the risk of his own life. In the center of the design the gas mask is seen, ready for immediate adjustment. Indeed, the suggestion is that the chaplain has, perhaps, momentarily removed it, the better to succor the wounded man.

The fine record of the men who served as chaplains in the navy, many of them constantly passing back and forth through the submarine danger zone, ministering to the crews of the naval vessels and the soldiers on the transports, is recalled by the representation of the battleship on the reverse of the medal.

The striking of these medals is the realization of a suggestion made soon after the armistice in the executive committee of the general war-time commission of the churches. The committee approved the proposal and made it one of the tasks committed to the general committee on army and navy chaplains when the war-time commission dissolved. The medals are intended to convey in tangible form a message of grateful appreciation from the churches to their chaplains sons.

JACK DEMPSEY IS ACQUITTED

Federal Court Disposes of Much Discussed Case of World's Champion Prize Fighter.

After a trial lasting more than a week, a jury in the federal court of San Francisco found Jack Dempsey not guilty of violating the selective service act. The jury was out only ten minutes and returned its verdict on the first ballot.

The indictment charged Dempsey with knowingly and wilfully falsifying his questionnaire in order to get deferred classification in Class 4a. In this document, which he signed in Chicago in January, 1918, he swore that his wife, mother, father, widowed sister and the two minor children of the last named were mainly dependent upon him for support, and had been living with him for a considerable time. These statements the government asserted were untrue.

The evidence showed that Dempsey received his questionnaire in Chicago and had it filled out almost immediately. His manager, Jack Kearns, answered most of the questions, and Dempsey gave his assent as the auswers were written down. Supporting affidavits were signed by Maxine Dempsey, then his wife, but since divorced, and Ellie Clarkson, his sister.

There was some confusion in the local draft board over his case, and at an informal meeting held one evening, Dempsey and Jack Kearns, his manager, took up Dempsey's situation with John Hogan, chairman of the local draft board. At this meeting Dempsey was placed in Class 4a upon his sworn statement of the contents of the questionnaire.

The evidence showed that Mrs. Hiram Dempsey, the mother of Jack, was almost entirely dependent upon him for support, and that he had made substantial contributions to the support of his father, sister, and brother. His statements in this regard were not contradicted.

TO FOCH AND FRENCH POILU

Commander D'Olier Returns Felicitations Sent by Famous Marshal on Fourth of July.

"The American legion, on this anniversary of the fall of the Bastille, through myself as national commander, extends the same hand of fellowship today that the French citizen-soldier grasped but yesterday."

In these words Franklin D'Olier, head of the legion, addressed Marshal Foch and the French poilu, returning the felicitations that Foch sent to the legion on the Fourth of July. The message was delivered to the marshal by H. H. Harjes, commander of Paris post, No. 1.

"Our regard is based on deeper sentiment than mere association in arms," the message continues. "America's youth came to France impressed with the story of your wonderful achievements. We were not disillusioned. We found that France suffered with a smile on her lips; laughed in the jaws of death; held to her traditional courtesy and chivalry at the very time when the foe pounded with coarse fists at the gates of Paris."

"There may come a time when jealous hands will seek to sever the bonds that unite France and America. Such a thing never can be accomplished. We of the World War have known France and her fine soul. We have been blood brothers and we will be peace brothers."

MESSAGE FROM KING ALBERT

Former Private, A. E. F., Receives Cable From Ruler in Commemoration of Chateau-Thierry Victory.

A former private, A. E. F., has received a cabled message from a king in commemoration of the great American victory at Chateau-Thierry, the second anniversary of which was July 15. The ex-private is Harold W. Ross, editor of the American Legion Weekly. The king is Albert of Belgium. His message read:

"On the eve of the anniversary of the glorious American victory at Chateau-Thierry it is a great pleasure for me to send a token of the high admiration this heroic stand kindles in my heart and to renew tribute of our everlasting gratitude for the heroes who fell on this fifteenth of July, 1918, for the common cause."

(Signed) "ALBERT."

The message was transmitted through the Belgian Charge d'Affaires at Washington. Mr. Ross is a former San Francisco, New Orleans and Atlanta newspaper man. He took part in the Chateau-Thierry attack.

BIG CROPS ASSURED IN WESTERN CANADA

Need of Farm Labor Urgently Required for Harvest.

Rains of the past week which have been general throughout all portions of Western Canada, covering MANITOBA, SASKATCHEWAN, and ALBERTA, have placed beyond all manner of doubt the certainty of vast grain crops throughout the entire district.

Reports from all points indicate marvelous and rapid growth. The conditions of a week or so back, which were decidedly less promising and led many to think that there might be a partial failure, have disappeared altogether and now there is a wave of optimism circulating throughout the entire country.

In 1915 there were enormous yields reported from all parts, and it would appear now as if in many places the yields of 1915 would be equaled if not beaten.

What might appear to be a drawback, is the apparent shortage of farm help. The Province of Manitoba through its Employment Bureau in Winnipeg, is asking for 10,000 harvest hands and over, offering from $5 to $8 per day. The Province of Saskatchewan is asking for 15,000 extra hands to take care of the immense harvest that is certain to be reaped in that Province. In Alberta the crop area is somewhat less, the labor conditions somewhat better, and is making a request for 5,000 extra farm hands.

Interviewing the officials of the different Governments, they are inclined to the opinion that as the crops in Kansas, Nebraska, South Dakota, Illinois and other Central States are harvested there will be a movement northward that will materially help to take care of the labor situation. With the low railroad rates that may be secured on application to the Employment Offices at Winnipeg and at boundary points, or which may be secured through the Canadian Government Offices at Chicago, Ill.; Detroit, Mich.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Kansas City, Mo.; Omaha, Neb.; Des Moines, Ia.; Watertown, S. D.; St. Paul, Minn., and Grand Forks, N. D., will give to those seeking employment the opportunity to reach the harvest fields at a low cost.—Advertisement.

Uncomplimentary

A man who possesses a corpulent figure takes a Sunday-school class. Recently he gave a lesson upon how sin affected the future life.

"Well, boys," he asked, in conclusion, "what would happen to me when I die if I had led a bad life?"

"The fat would be in the fire," replied one lad, after some reflection.
