

Paris Library of War Relics Grows Rapidly

Museum Contains Souvenirs From All Countries and Is Expected to Become Rendezvous of Students.

Paris, June 17.—(By A. P.)—Patriotic Parisians, American and allied visitors are interestedly watching the progress of the work of collecting posters, medals, copies of historic documents and other notable souvenirs of the war, for a "war library and museum."

War documents of all the countries are being classified. The catalogue already consists of eight large volumes, with more to come.

Copies of American Liberty and Victory bond posters with stirring slogans will tell of America's efforts, while many books, pictures and other exhibits will form a record of the part the United States took in the war.

Ambassador Herrick's poster giving warning that the property of Americans was under the protection of the government, placarded in Paris in the first days of the war, has a prominent place in the museum.

German military proclamations and some German periodical illustrations tell of the hardships and heartaches on the other side of the Rhine.

So pleased is the French government with the work of the Rockefeller commission that it has included appropriation of 3,000,000 francs in this year's budget for continuation of the efforts.

Twenty-four free dispensaries, 12 of them in the devastated regions, have already been turned over to the French government by the foundation.

Offer Economists Jobs. Minister of Finance Lysterie has offered jobs in the collection service to several prominent economists who recently made statements that many persons had failed to place their incomes in their tax reports.

mind to the exclusion of such trite things as soap and water. The messenger called on Maurice Barres of the French academy, reporting that D'Annunzio has asked him to give M. Barres a Latin embrace with its kiss on both cheeks.

Moulin Rouge Tams. The Moulin Rouge, where all foreign visitors usually went in the old days, thinking to see Paris at her wickedest, has "degenerated," or reformed, into giving its dances since reopening after the fire.

Racial Discrimination at Harvard Investigated. Boston, Mass., June 17.—Harvard university alumni gathered here from many parts of the country for the annual meeting of the Associated Harvard clubs, learned today that President Lowell was appointing a committee of overseers to investigate the subject of racial proportions in the student body.

Dr. Charles W. Eliot, president emeritus, made the announcement in response to a request by Dr. Clarence C. Little, president of the University of Maine and a former secretary of the Harvard corporation, for an official retraction of reports that Harvard planned racial discrimination.

Mail Planes Set Record in Salt Lake-El Paso Run. San Francisco, June 17.—A record for the airplane time between Salt Lake City and San Francisco was made by the United States air mail service today when three flyers, working in relays, negotiated the distance in 6 hours, 12 minutes.

Right Guides Majority of Business Men, Says Gary. Evanson, Ill., June 17.—A large majority of business men "now conduct their affairs in accordance with the avowed belief that right is superior to might, that morality is on a par with legality and that the observance of the both is essential to worthy achievement."

State of Iowa and Rails Settle Taxation Cases. Des Moines, June 17.—(By A. P.)—The state of Iowa and the railroads have effected a final settlement of the taxation cases now pending in the federal court involving the assessments of 1921.

Dangerous at That. Philadelphia, June 17.—Perched on a keg labeled "gunpowder," Patrick Kane smoked a peaceful pipe as he ferried across the Delaware from Camden.

Ready for Race. The eyes of all French automobilists now are turned toward Strasbourg, although there is still a month before the running of the French automobile club's grand prix.

Special treatment, like that applied to championship tennis courts, is being given to the road upon which the classic is to be run. Special bridges have been built over the railroads to save the hordes of automobiles from having to wait at grade crossings.

Poet Ignores Washing. Gabriele D'Annunzio, the Italian soldier-poet, sent a message to French friends lately by a messenger whose poetic idealism occupied his
