

Crippled Vets Bound to Coast Welcomed Here

Hero, "Life of Party," Spies Old Friend Among Omaha Girls—Delegation Given Auto Trip.

If Omaha was late in greeting the first trainload of disabled veterans enroute to the San Francisco reunion Monday, it rose betimes to greet the second contingent of war heroes at 7:40 yesterday morning.

This is a Minneapolis and North Dakota crowd, 30 strong, hoping to bring next year's meeting to the northern city.

"If this isn't just like those days in France," exclaimed Charles C. McGonegal of Grand Forks, to members of the Women's Overseas Service League, who met the early train, even as they used to in the cold, gray mornings "over there."

The small matter of using two hooks instead of two hands has done nothing to quench the irrepressible spirit of the young Irishman.

"He's the life of our party," testified Carol P. Johnson, his "buddy," who is constantly by his side. McGonegal proved it by the frank of making off with a half dozen cans of his lame buddies while they were at the breakfast table. When the disabled men reached for their cans they were gone!

"Find McGonegal!" they cried with one acclaim.

Given Auto Ride. The overseas girls entertained the veterans at breakfast in the Union station and took them for an auto ride afterwards. P. F. Petersen, Roy Pegau, Drexel Sibbensen, an overseas vet; Mrs. L. H. Blanchard and Miss Frances Nieman, president of the overseas league, drove the cars. The men were brought back to the Athletic club for a swim and luncheon and then were guests of the World theater for the early afternoon show. Their quartet sang at the club during the noon hour.

Some of the men among whom are two chaplains, Roy Hayden and A. G. Blair, came back to the station to participate in the service for four of their buddies, soldier dead, returned from France.

Heading the delegation are Millard W. Rice, commander of the Minneapolis chapter; Herbert J. Powell, adjutant, cited by the French and decorated by General Pershing; A. C. Moeller; Richard F. Poppe; C. E. Wilson; Richard Tuson, Filipino student at the University of Michigan, who intends to enter the consular service; I. Gustafson; Nels Hofland, and W. R. Lewis of Bemarck.

Minneapolis boasts the second largest disabled veterans' post in the country. It has 1,400 members.

Woman in Battle to Regain Son's Custody

Mrs. Etile Null Norland went into court yesterday to wage a lengthy legal battle to regain custody of her 7-year-old child, Jackie, who was adopted shortly after his birth by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moriarity, both of whom are now dead.

This decision was made after Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Van Ness, 4186 Wakeley street, sought to adopt the baby on the strength of a letter given them by Charles Moriarity shortly before he died.

Hearing was held yesterday on the attempt to break the original adoption of the Moriaritys on the ground that it was illegal because the father of the child was not a party to the proceedings. Judge Crawford continued the case to give attorneys time to submit briefs on the case.

60 Head of Steers, Averaging 1,212, Bring Fine Price

Orin Kellison of Ord Sells Choice Lot of Cattle at South Side Yards.

A shipment of 60 head of choice steers averaging 1,212 pounds, was brought to the local market yesterday by Orin Kellison of Ord and were sold for an even $9 a hundred.

Mr. Kellison said that the past six months the cattle made an average gain of 522 pounds and that they cost him laid down at his feed lots $6 a hundred.

The high mark of the day of $9.15 a hundred was received yesterday at the stockyards for a load of cattle brought in by Walter Reynolds of St. Edward. The cattle averaged 866 pounds and were Hereford yearlings of his own raising.

Charles Preusser of Petersburg was on the local market yesterday with 30 head of Hereford yearlings that averaged 798 pounds and sold for $9 a hundred.

Mr. Preusser said there were good gains in cattle if the raiser would pay good care and attention to the calves when they averaged 235 pounds and cost him $7 a hundred.

"The stand of corn is pretty good around Petersburg," said Mr. Preusser, "and although it has been pretty dry the small grain is looking fair."

Federal Sleuths Arrest Nine Men in Liquor Raids

Thirty-Three Cases of Beer Seized—Drive Just a Starter, Says One of Officers.

Armed with 15 search warrants, federal prohibition agents this afternoon swooped down on nine Omaha homes and arrested nine men on charges of illegal possession and sale of liquor.

Thirty-three cases of beer were taken by the officers in their rounds. The following men were arrested: Ike Payne, 2201 Poppleton avenue. Tony Payne, 1010 South Twentieth street. Sebastian Ingaes, 908 South Twentieth street.

Saudi Damato, 1218 South Twentieth street. Abe Cirian, 1915 South Twentieth street. Charles Deutch, 2009 California street. Joe Manginelli, 1514 North Seventeenth street. Phillip Tocco, 1357 South Twentieth street.

"The government agents have the better of us," said Roy Wade of the Omaha police morals squad, "because they have the money with which to make the buys."

"Some of these places we have raided as many as five times, but we never could get the evidence. These federal officers can go in, buy it and prosecute on their purchases."

These raids are just a starter of what the federal agents are going to stage in Omaha, according to one of the raiding officers.

Omaha Has Even Chance of Landing Lions Convention

Omaha has an even chance of landing the 1923 convention of the International Lions association, according to a message from the Omaha delegation at this year's convention in Hot Springs, Ark.

This message, read at the local Lions club luncheon in Hotel Fontenelle Tuesday, stated that Atlantic City and Duluth are competing with Omaha for the next convention.

J. G. Masters introduced J. G. Neihardt, Nebraska poet, to the Lions at the luncheon. Mr. Neihardt read a part of his poem, "Songs of the Indian War." A field day, dinner dance and election at the Prettiest Mile club next Tuesday was announced.

Scores of people in Omaha and Nebraska have been helped to better jobs through Omaha Bee "Situation Wanted" Ads.

Miss Fay Watts Heads New C. of C. Division

Miss Fay M. Watts was named president of the new business and professional women's division of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce Monday evening. Miss Beulah M. Hall was elected vice-president; Dr. Amelia Brandt, second vice president. An office secretary will be named later. The chamber treasurer will handle all funds.

These committee chairmen were named: Mrs. B. L. Irons, hostess; Miss Beulah Hall, membership; Dr. Amelia Brandt, features; Mary Marsden, finance, publicity; Miss Mary P. Doyle, arrangements; Miss Elizabeth Kaufmann, glee club.

Miss Imogene McCaig is in charge of arrangements for the first barbecue for women members of the chamber, which will be held at Elmwood park Thursday evening at 6.

Sam Okun, Mate of Woman Who Took Poison, Divorced

Sam Okun was granted a divorce decree by default from Sara Shirley Goldenberg Okun by District Judge Sears yesterday, contingent on juvenile authorities' investigation.

Sherley Okun is a former hotel phone operator who attempted suicide with poison several weeks ago, after which love letters to Gilbert L. J. restaurant violinist, were found.

Dog Hill Paragrafs

By George Bingham.

Cricket Hicks, one of our leading beau brummels, had the misfortune to lose his nice new straw hat Sunday morning. At the time of the accident he was strolling along the lane when a puff of wind blew his hat off, and a cow seized it before he could perfect a rescue. She had just finished eating a pile of shucks and the hat came in just right as dessert.

The Excelsion Fiddling band, says Frisby Hancock, must have gone to eating onions, as they are growing sentimental, having gone on last night and played right soft and low just as the moon was rising.

Yam Sims says there is always something to set a person back. He got a haircut today and now his hat is too big.

Parents' Problems

How can a boy of 10, who is naturally bright, in connection with his school work, but who cannot concentrate his attention, be taught to keep his mind on his lesson while studying?

"Watch me," said the strong swimmer, "I'm not afraid"

So he matched his strength against the swirl of the rapids, and laughed at the danger, and kept repeating the stunt, until—

It was the day the life-savers had been waiting for—that day the call for help came.

It's an easy matter to smile at coffee warnings when you're going strong.

But a good many strong swimmers won't risk the rapids, and a good many coffee drinkers are beginning to think of the caffeine in coffee.

Coffee can disturb nerves and digestion, and often it does.

There's a safe and satisfying course for everybody in the selection of a table drink.

Postum has charm without harm. It's the safe drink for all, and probably, therefore, it's the better drink for you. Thousands have found it better, and fully satisfying, for them.

Your grocer has both forms of Postum: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for fully 20 minutes.

"There's a Reason" for Postum
