Ladd Attacks Big Bankers for Opposing Bonus

North Dakota Senator Charges Coterie of Financiers Are Patently More Powerful Than Government.

was made yesterday in the senate by "Possibly you can help me solve Senator Ladd, republican, North Da- a rather difficult problem. There kota, in the course of an address in is an 'only one' in the case, of course, support his plan to tax the banks but the trouble lies right there, beto pay the veterans of the world war cause while he is the only one, I

"We have a small coterie of bankers that are patently more powerful than the government," said Senator Ladd. "They control the financial and then for about two years. Howsituation. They can say to the gov- ever, we have been together three or ernment how much of the treasury four evenings a week for half that obligations they will buy; they can time. He does not want me to drop finance new railway enterprises and my other friends, but manages withnew industrial combinations that out actually saying a word about it meet the stamp of their approval; to make me feel terribly guilty and they can even finance foreign ven- uncomfortable if I have another date. tures and the rate of exchange seems "Now what I am appealing to you to affect them but little in so doing." for is to know how I can make him

Built Up Surplus.

Asserting that while the soldiers were sacrificing during the war the war the war the war the war the war the knows all my faults as bankers were piling up surplus and distributing dividends. Senator Ladd he is not in doubt as to whether I he is not in doubt as to whether I declared that "it is one of the great- am the right girl. est crimes of the age that we have not used the strong arm of this gov-ernment to reach into the goldladen coffers of these war profiteers and compel them to divide, in an equitable manner, their outrageous and wink when they see us con-tinually together, and they say I profits" with the former service men. "The big banks emerged from the war in the most commanding posi-tion of power of any institutions in the history of the world," continued the North Dakota senator.

"The American soldier emerged broken, without money, with the future gloomy and prosperity far beyond the horizon. Millions of them were literally turned loose upon the country with nothing to do. The banks were not satisfied. To add to the desperateness of their condition, inaugurated their policy of drastic deflation; that not only de-stroyed jobs, but they threw out of employment thousands of others who could be forced to face these conditions with them. The bankers made their condition worse by deflating every opportunity they had to rehabilitate themselves."

Bankers Oppose Bonus.

"Will you exercise the solemn duty delegated to congress by the man she loves is willing to under-people through the constitution and take the responsibilities of marriage. assert some control over the currency and credit of the country, or will you supinely consent to a con- why must we bind our faith with tinuation of the bankers' control by vows sanction of congress?"

At the outset of his address Sen-ator Ladd expressed the belief that most of the opposition to the bonus He enjoys the girl's society and doesn't feel in the mood to make any bill had been fathered by the bankers. He also expressed the opinion change-since a change might not "instead of being zealous of the public interests and so fearful of the consequences upon the federal treasury, the bankers are more worried.

A home, a family, a wife to conury, the bankers are more worried sider-these may all terrify a selfish actual cash distributed among the people of the country that will for when he wants—that may suit him at this time lest there shall be some business in such a excellently. Some day-who knows manner as to result in their tem-I'm trying to keep myself outside this, to avoid saying more than a porarily losing control of the situaword of suggestion. But I wish some of the men who read would

They are not yet through with their period of exploitation and plunder," he continued. "The inde-pendence of labor, the marketing channels of the farmer, our entire in ternal and domestic conditions must be first subject to the bankers' regulations before they intend to loosen the purse strings."

County Improves Golden Rod Road Near Red Cloud

Red Cloud, Neb., June 22 .- (Special Telegram.)-As there seems to be no immediate prospect of having that part of the Golden Rod highway, which runs east from this city to the Nuckells county line, designated as a state or federal road, the county will be entertained at bridge that be no immediate prospect of having a state or federal road, the county commissioners have started to improve the road and have three grading crews at work. They have also more crews at work. They have also contractors to build perengaged contractors to build per-manent bridges. Land has been donated by adjacent property owners to make a regulation federal turn where the course of the Golden Rod

Youth Injured in Fall

From 30-Foot Tower
Table Rock, Neb., June 22.—(Special Control of Mrs. Fred Brown. An Inches of Mrs. Fred Brown. An Inches of Mrs. Fred Brown. cial.)-Orville Walker was serious-ly hurt while at work on the big tower project near Barneston, Neb., having both arms broken and suffering other injuries, in a 30-foot fall. He was taken to a Beatrice hospital. The injured man is a son of Mrs. C. E. Walker of this county, and has been employed on the Barneston project for a couple of years.

Farmer Expects 40-Bushel Yield on Beatrice Farm

Beatrice, Neb., June 22.—(Special.)—Alpha Graf, farmer and stock raiser north of the city, began har-vesting a 52-acre field of wheat on his farm which, he says will yield between 35 and 40 bushels to the acre. The field is located in the creek bottom and the grain stands four feet high.

Lovers Who Are Funeral to Be Held for Early Resident Content to Drift

By BEATRICE FAIRFAX.

daren't acknowledge it publicly.

"I have known him for about 10 years, since I was 11 years old, and I have trotted around with him now tions and is absolutely true to me.

"People take things for granted, know he eventually will?-V.

Perhaps the man says: "We're sure of ourselves and our feelings,

Perhaps he doesn't think about the obligations or burdens of any sort.

what that some day will bring tell me honestly just what they think of themselves and of others who drift idly into a similar situation.

For Mrs. Engleman and Mrs. Degan.

at Auto View Rest given by the Wednesday Luncheon Bridge club, of which they have been members. Friday Mrs. Engleman and Mrs. De-

L. O. E. Club. At a committee meeting of the L.

O. E. club Wednesday afternoon in the Elks club rooms plans were made for L. E. O. night at the Elks car-nival in Krug park Wednesday, June dian robe, made more than 40 years ago and formerly owned by Black

Hawk, an Indian chief, will be ex-

Crook Relief Corps.

The meeting of George Crook

Woman's Relief corps scheduled for Friday will be omitted on account of the Lee Forby reception for Mrs.

Cora Thompson of Portland, Ore., national president of women's aux-liaries to Spanish War Veterans.

Members of Crook corps gave a surprise luncheon Wednesday in honor of their treasurer, Mrs. Lulu Crawford. Covers were placed for Minn., house guest of Mrs. Maude Tennant, was a guest of the corps.

15. Mrs. Bertha Fitch of Peque,

Dinner Party.

ADVERTISEMENT.

hibited at the L. O. E. booth,

Among the affairs being given as farewell parties to Mrs. Morton Engleman, who leaves next month for Chicago, and her guest, Mrs. Albert Degan, at a luncheon Thursday

"As I know he eventually

Funeral services for Edward Johnson, 57, a resident in Omaha for the last 32 years and a charter member Today I'm printing word for word of three clubs, will be held this afternoon at 2 in the chapel of t I'm asked over and over again by died suddenly in a local hospital Wednesday night, following an oper-just seeing the case stated won't Washington, June 22.—An attack on the big bankers of the country to mend their ways.

He came to Omaha from Boston to free the lordly lion from his Continental Clothing company. Twenty-seven years ago he went into quest that I would send word to dissolved 11 years ago.

Mr. Johnson was an Elk and charter member of the Field, Ath-letic and Concord clubs. He resided well, I thought sometimes—when the

Broken Dental Drill Is Taken From Jaw of Woman

moved from the jaw of Mrs. Frank

Prayer Each Day

Te believe in God, believe also in Me-

"He has mentioned in the presence of others that he can't keep hintself, let alone a wife, but that is of our Lord Jesus Christ, in Whose name we present our adoration, our name we present our adoration, our thanksgiving, our praise, and our supplication. We thank Thee for the gift of Thy Son, through Whom we have our redemption, and in Whose name we ask for the pardon of all our sins. We beseech Thee, O Lord. to keep us this day, in all joy, health, and safety from the perils that may beset us. Grant that from day to day we may walk in all revers. really a minor detail, as he is well situated financially.
"My friends nod to each other am foolish to turn down other in-vitations. However, I know that he turns down numerous invita-I want to be engaged publicly, but day to day we may walk in all rever- code?" ance and godly fear in the way of Him Who hath called us into His returned with a little smile. "But Church and Kingdom. Deliver us, there is something about the thing and it is most embarrassing for me when our mutual friends talk about how they'll come to see us when we pray Thee, from all envy, and baffling him which is connected in we are married. He never answers fear, and temptation. Grant unto us some intangible way with you. I that which is good and profitable and cannot explain it—and I may be altheir jests, so once I summoned up courage enough to say to a crowd.

It's polite to wait till you're asked! . . . But he didn't ask!

"Must I go on indefinitely until forgive us those things wherein we have sinned against Thee. Deliver us from all those things which estrange men one from another, from such things as cause men to stumble and err from the truth as it is in Christ. suits his purpose to ask me, as Keep us from the dominion of self- that I help him?" shness, and grant us willingness to will," writes the girl, trusting in the bear one another's burdens. These, love which has proven itself silently and all other needed blessings, we rather than in the word which would ask in the adorable name of make her happily certain that the Savior, to Whom with the Father and the Spirit shall be the praise forevermore. Amen.

DAVID H. BAUSLIN, D.D.,
Springfield, Ohio.

My Marriage Problems Adele Garrison's New Phase of

"REVELATIONS OF A WIFE" (Copyright 1922)

Drake. I am sure I know now the feelings of the legendary mouse when she He came to Omaha from Boston realized that it depended upon her the merchant tailoring business with Allen Drake of my willingness to Frank Barrett. The partnership was help him with the refractory code, frightened me as much as it astonish-a ed me. with his family at 3220 Woolworth avenue and maintained a place of business at 1727 Howard street. usual memory. This freakish gift of mine which I have untiringly cultivated, had upon one particular oc-casion enabled me to carry in my Trenton, N. J., June 24 .- A portion mind whole lists of names and figof a broken dental drill has been re- ures which it was unsafe for him to carry with him upon paper. It had H. Winner, who admits she is the been several years since I had memwinner. The drill had been lodged in orized those lists for Allen Drake, I her jaw for eight weeks, she asserted. had not thought of them for months, at least, but yet I knew that I could repeat unerringly every one of them f he should ask me for them.

But that I could possibly help Allen Drake in deciphering a code-Almighty God, in Whom we live Allen Drake, the acknowledged masand move and have our being, we adore Thee as the God and Father gifts—I found myself tremulous at the very thought! And yet, I never

"I am not sure that you can," he

"I Cannot Volunteer-

My father's face and voice were ridicule, should discover it. unruffled as he gave me the answer which threw me into a panic. "No, he doesn't dream, of course, that you could. But if I can carry terly ability in his chosen work was, and power and dominion now and him the word that you are willing, I

Before my face flashed a swift vision of Allen Drake's face should my father give him such a message scornful amusement with which he would greet such a message, and the vision urged my lips to a firm denial. Mr. Drake on a subject of which he is master, and of which I know nothing," I said. "But if-My father interrupted me smiling. will guarantee that he does not think you presumptuous, and there will be no volunteering about it. I will confide to him my reason, or rather my impression-for it is only a hazy feeling-that you may be able to help him. I will assure him of your willingness, and of your doubt. and will then send for you. How will that do?"

I met his kindly, quizzical eyes bravely. "That will do admirably," I said.

'And I will do the very best I can, "Suppose we stop right here," he said, drawing me to him and kissing me tenderly. "Please remain here, if possible, alone, for 15 minutes."

"That is early arranged," I answered. "Marion and Junior are asleep, Lillian is at work in her room, Mother Graham is reading in hers, and Katie left the kitchen for her quarters before I came upstairs." "Excellent," he said commending-ly. "I am cure I shall be back in fifteen minutes. A Long-Cherished Dream.

He opened the door and went out. but I was scarcely conscious of his going for to me was coming the first faint hope of a long-cherished dream coming true-a dream scarcely acknowledged even to myself.

per, have not had an almost uncanny likewise. fascination for me. I have spent of fiction which deals with the deciphering of a code has always held my obsession a secret, fearing lest Dicky, for instance, with his love of

And now, within a few minutes, I should have the chance to work upon a code with Allen Drake, whose mas-I knew, one secret of the fascination am sure you will take a great burden his personality always had held for from his mind."

CHAPTER XII.

Jolly Robin's Helper. The next morning Jolly Robin told his wife that she would have to do all the work of gathering the children's breakfast. "You know, my love," he explained, "I have impor-

Well, I say there are a million," tant business to attend to today."

And before she had time to object, he left her. three plump robins who had flown across the meadow to help fight He's watching the berries for me last year. A number of grade teachfour had dropped down into the raspberry patch.

Reddy Woodpecker had not arrived. So, while they were waiting, Jolly Robin's friends helped themselves to berries. Under the hot sun the fruit had ripened fast. Finding I cannot remember when puzzles it both sweet and juicy they are of it of any kind, even the simple puzzles freely. And Jolly Robin could think on the children's page of a newspa- of no reason why he should not do

By the time Reddy Woodpecker hours in their solving when I was came, all the Robins from over the ashamed to let anyone know how I , meadow were feeling so well fed and was spending my time. And any piece good-natured that they were in anything but a fighting mood.

"Let that Woodpecker enjoy this me spellbound—I have worn my fruit if he likes it," they said to Jolly copy of Poe's "The Gold Bug" in an undertone. "There's more than fruit if he likes it," they said to Jolly threadbare—but I have tried to keep enough for everybody. And now," my obsession a secret, fearing lest they told him, "we must go home, because we have to help our wives' feed our children.

Off they flew. And Jolly Robin found himself alone with Reddy Woodpecker.

"Ahem!" exclaimed Jolly Robin. "It's a fine morning, isn't it?"
"Delightful!" said Reddy Wood-

"It looks as if you and I were going to have this raspberry patch all way homeward.

ously awaiting his return.

"We ought to keep others out of these berries. I certainly can't eat sand nine hundred and ninety-nine.

"Have you chased that Wood-pecker person away?" she demanded.

She turned her back "No, my love," he replied. "I've exclaimed, "Fiddlesticks!" made other arrangements. Mr. Woodpecker is working for me now. Beatrice School Board So, of course, I don't want him off the farm, He's helping me him off the farm, batch. He's help-

"If that Woodpecker person is in will open on the second Monday in the raspberry patch you may be sure September.

to ourselves, doesn't it." Jolly con-

it," said Jolly.
Again Reddy Woodpecker was of watched Jolly Robin winging his them all, nor carry them all home to he announced. "Go home and tell my family." Jolly Robin found his wife anx-nd before she had time to object, at the raspberry patch. He's help-e left her.

Over near the garden fence he met

I couldn't have come back to speak its monthly meeting and fixed the "Go back and count them at once!" she commanded. He really did try to count the berries. But he soon found it to be an impossible task. Reddy Woodpecker ate so many raspberries and carried so many home to his chil-dren that Jolly Robin despaired of Reddy Woodpecker agreed with ever settling upon the correct num

He felt very unhappy over the matter. And he even asked Reddy Again Reddy the same mind as he.
"Then this is a bargain!" cried Jolly Robin. "I'll ask you to guard million," Reddy Woodpecker sugmillion," Reddy Woodpecker sugmillion," Reddy Woodpecker sugmillion," Reddy Woodpecker sugmillion," Reddy Woodpecker sugmillion, "Reddy Woodpecker sugmillion," Reddy Woodpecke "Oh, I couldn't do that," said

he's eating raspherries as fast as he can."

"Ouly a few!" Jolly assured her,

"There's more than enough for our family and his."

"How do you know that?" she demanded. "Did you count the ber-ries?"

"No!" he replied. "It wasn

"Yes, my love!" Jolly answered.

Reddy Woodpecker grinned as he Jolly Robin. Well, I say there are a million. Reddy declared. Then he picked and "Humph!" he grunted. "I may as ate another herry. "Now there are well let that Robin have a taste of nine hundred and ninety-mine thou-

> So Jolly Robin went. He went and told Mrs. Robin what Reddy She turned her back on him and Shaves Budget $10,000 you now if it wasn't for him. budget for the coming year at $135,-"Nonsense!" cried Mrs. Robin ers were elected. The city schools

Beauty Signifies A Well-Ordered System

A clear complexion, bright eyes, well-filled cheeks, a lithe, slender body-these are attributes of beauty that are acquired rather than bestowed.

A properly functioning digestive system is the foundation for beauty.

Burns' WHEAT TONE HEALTH BREAD, regularly included in the diet, aids you in acquiring the beauty that comes with perfect health. The Wheat Germ and the bran in this health loaf are the great conditioners.

The Germ contains the precious vitamins (Water-Soluble B) necessary to healthy growth. Wm. Jayo, renowned English food chemist, says: "A deprivation of this substance is accompanied with a fall in body weight, with a fatal termination."

The Germ likewise contains the mineral salts which build healthy bone structures.

The Bran in WHEAT TONE serves as a laxative.

We know that the flour for WHEAT TONE contains the Germ and Bran for we have installed a special mill in our bakery to mill it.

> Eat WHEAT TONE FOR HEALTH. GET it at your Grocer's.

The Jay Burns Baking Company

Made In The Old Fashioned Way

Don't Miss the Big Jc Sale DRPRICES PHOSPHATE BAKING POWDER

F you haven't taken advantage of this remarkable value-L giving opportunity do so at once, before the limited supply is exhausted. Just think of getting an extra 12-oz. can of the famous Dr. Price's Phosphate Baking Powder for only 5 cents!

A remarkable offer

Here is the special offer, made solely to give every housekeeper an opportunity to try for herself this popular, dependable baking powder.

One 12 oz. can at regular price . One 12 oz. can at special price . Two 12 oz. cans for Perfect Satisfaction Guaranteed or Money Refunded

Don't let a chance like this get by you. Go to your grocer as soon as you can and get your two cans of this popular baking powder. If your own

Remember—Every can is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded.

SPECIAL ADVERTISING SALE

grocer can't supply you, try the grocer nearest to you.

four feet high. Lost your dog? Let an Omaha Bee "Want" Ad find him for you. Mr. and Mrs. Alan McDonald entertained eight guests informally at dinner at their home Wednesday evening. ADVERTISEMENT. Some staggering constipation facts: Know how Kellogg's Bran can help you!

Ninety out of every one hundred people suffer with constipation! Constipation is the direct cause of breakdowns in old age, lowered vitality and ninety per cent of illness!

Do you realize that nearly every case of constipation is traceable to neglect in answering nature's call? In a few years the sufferer has "latent constipation"—the most dangerous form of all! Toxic poisons penetrate the intestine walls, polluting the blood, which in turn poisons bran's work is a revelation!

Cooked and krumbled—and delicious in flavor and edibility! Bran will permanently relieve constipation when taken regularly—at least two tablespoonfuls daily; in severe cases, with every meal! Your doctor will inderse Kellogg's Bran for constipation!

Kellogg's Bran sweeps, cleans and purifies the eliminative tract as nothing else can—and, being a nature food, it creates no habit. penetrate the intestine walls, polluting the blood, which in turn poisons and affects every organ in the body. Nearly every case of disbetes and Bright's disease can be traced to constipation or intestinal poisoning, as can most rheumatism, head ache, brain fag, hardening of arteries and other organic diseases.

Pills and cathartics can never afford you permanent relief. What you need is nature's most wonderful arry, will clear up a pimply complexion, roughage BRAN -Kellogg's Bran, plexion,