

Wife of Farrell
Granted Divorce
Decree by Default

Mate of Omaha Clubman
Collapses While Telling of Alleged Belt Beating Inflicted.

Mrs. Annette Lady Farrell, wife of Howard Farrell, clubman and syrup manufacturer, was granted a divorce by default yesterday by Judge Sears, contingent upon the customary investigation by juvenile authorities.

Mrs. Farrell, dressed in a neat sport outfit, broke down and cried as she told Judge Sears of alleged acts of cruelty committed against her by her husband.

Mrs. Farrell, between sobs, told the judge her husband came home drunk and when she asked him where he had been, he replied it was none of her business, took his belt from his trousers, and beat her with it until bruises appeared on her back and arms.

Testifies to Late Hours.

She testified Farrell would go on parties at night after midnight for months at a time, getting home as late as 4 in the morning and once when she tried to remonstrate with him for his mode of living, he told her:

"There are three doors leading out of this house. If you don't like the way I am living you can leave by either door."

Mrs. Farrell told the judge that once when she was out of town other women telephoned her home for her husband as late as 4 in the morning.

She testified that on one occasion she answered a telephone call from the Beaton drug store. A clerk informed her the store didn't have a certain brand of $20 perfume in stock.

Investigates at Store.

"I hadn't ordered any perfume, so I went to the drug store to investigate," said Mrs. Farrell. "I talked with Mr. Beaton. He told me Mr. Farrell bought this expensive perfume on frequent occasions."

Mrs. Farrell said through a messenger boy she learned that her husband was buying the perfume for another woman "with whom he was keeping company and having improper relations." She said she wanted to start a divorce action five years before, but on the advice of her attorney she did not.

Shortly before her baby boy was born her husband was out every night drunk, she testified, adding that he staged wild parties with other men and women.

$5,000 Alimony.

Mrs. Farrell was awarded $5,000 alimony to be paid over a period of five years. She also is to receive $75 a month for the support of her three children.

Mr. and Mrs. Van B. Lady, 5011 Chicago street, Mrs. Farrell's parents, were in court during the hearing.

Mrs. Lady testified she saw bruises on her daughter's back, inflicted by Farrell. Mrs. Lady also testified that when Mrs. Farrell was away women called up at all hours of the night for "Howard."

Viking Drill Is Given

at Scandinavian Picnic

A viking drill, by 14 women dressed in white was the chief attraction at the Scandinavian picnic yesterday afternoon at Krug park. The women were under the direction of Mrs. Richard Johnson. Special arrangement was made to have the drill repeated tonight as one of the closing features of the celebration.

Several of the events scheduled for yesterday afternoon and evening were postponed until today in order that more people might see them.

Juries Called July 5

Out of consideration for out-of-town jurors who would have to come to Omaha during this hot spell, Federal Judge Woodcock postponed the jurors' arrival until July 5. Alva Smith goes on trial that day. Thirty-five liquor cases, set for trial next Tuesday, go over until later.

Mother Gives Baby to Father for $3,000

Mrs. Ann Hollenbeck Pullis, 23, released her 2-year-old daughter, Elaine, to her former husband in district court Thursday to obtain $3,000 alimony in which to fight a lingering illness. The husband is James Pullis, first Omaha soldier to be returned home, wounded, from the battle front.

The relinquishment of the baby ends a court fight extending since June 8, 1921, when Mrs. Pullis sued for divorce on cruelty grounds. The long legal war drained the resources of the mother and caused the return of an illness with which she was formerly afflicted. She consented to let her husband have the baby on condition that she be allowed to see the child every day.

Prayer Each Day

My God, unto Thee I will pray—Ps. 138.
Holy Father, we thank Thee for the privilege of prayer. It is of Thine amazing goodness that we are permitted to pray, and of Thine infinite wisdom that our prayers are answered. Our gratitude goes out to God for life and health, and all the blessings which come to us. Above all other blessings, we are grateful to Thee for the Saviour. In thinking of the blessings so graciously bestowed upon us, our hearts adopt the words of Scripture—"Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable Gift." We lay ourselves at Thy feet, most Holy One; we adore Thy Great and Holy Name. Thou alone are God, and beside Thee there is none else. Do Thou bless our home, and guide us, to make it such a home as Thou wouldst have it be. Sanctify our relations one to another, to become all that God has planned for our lives. Bless, our neighbors and friends, together with the stranger afar off; though an enemy, hear us for them, most gracious Father, and give to them every good thing we would ask for ourselves. Bless our country. Give the spirit of wisdom and sound judgment to all civil officers and those in authority. So overrule, that peace shall be maintained among all nations. Let Thy Kingdom come. Speed the glad day when every knee shall bow and every tongue confess Him Lord to the glory of God the Father. Amen.
