C. of C. Hears Plea of Ohio Speaker for Ship Subsidy

Malcolm Stewart of Cincinnati Says Federal Aid Vital in Saving U. S. Merchant Marine.

A subsidy for the United States merchant marine was discussed by Malcolm Stewart, chairman of the middle-west merchant marine committee, at a meeting of the foreign trade and commerce committee of the Chamber of Commerce Friday noon.

"Foreign steamship lines are well established after their wartime properity and have formed trade connections which make effective competition by unassisted American lines inmpossible," Stewart declared. He then pointed out that the foreign lines have formed affiliations with railroads, warehouses and other commercial concerns which cannot be rivaled by an American firm without a large outlay of money, which would be provided by a subsidy.

Farmers Vitally Affected.

"The farmers of the middle-west do not realize how vitally the mer-chant marine affects them," Stewart said, "nor how important it is that the ship subsidy be provided." According to figures which he quoted from the merchant marine's records. 31.6 of the total amount of materials exported from the United States during the past year were farm

He then showed how the increased rates, demanded when other countries controlled American exports, kept down the amount of goods sent to foreign countries. While America had always been behind Great Britain in exports before the building of her merchant marine, he said her exports had exceeded those of the British by almost two billion dollars during the Cargo Increase Needed.

In October, 1921, Mr. Stewart said, the American merchant marine carried only 24 per cent of this country's exports. Since the reorganization of the board under Chairman Lasky, the ships are now carrying 39 per cent of the exports. Stewart says that in order to make the merchant marine pay it must carry at least 50 per cent America's exports. He stated that of the 1,400 ships built for the merchant marine, only 450 are in use. Mr. Stewart is a member of the trade bureau of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, and is touring the middle western states in an effort to secure better understanding of the merchant marine and ship subsidy
