For a great many Omaha families--

"there's no place like home."

And these people are looking for homes!

Many who have contented themselves with rented houses or apartments while they waited for the price of real estate and of building material to drop realize that "the time is ripe" and are ready to buy NOW.

"The moment has arrived" for the man who has a house or a homestead to offer for sale. During the warm summer days, when yard and garden are at their best and when the desirability of large, airy rooms and cool, cozy screened porches is constantly evident, people are most earnestly and thoroughly convinced of the advantages of owning their own home. Your house or lot is at its best now—and most easily and conveniently reached by auto.

Let a "House for Sale" advertisement in the "Want" Ad columns of The Omaha Bee reach these prospective buyers for you.
