TODAY'S PAIRINGS. Semi-Final Round. (Upper Bracket.) Rady Knepper, Slouz City, against Alex Graham, Wellington, Kan (Lower Bracket.) George Von Eins, Salt Lake City, against W. J. Poye, Omaha.

By GEORGE WHEELER. Playing on a course that was in wonderful condition and with ideal weather conditions prevailing, players who survived the early rounds of the Transmississippi championship tournament, yesterday furnished the gallery with golf of the most sensational variety in the 36-hole thirdround matches. Two of the matches -the Von Elm-Shepard and the Knepper-McKee contests-resulted as had been predicted with Von Elm and Knepper scoring easy victories. The former won, 10 up and 8 to play, while the Iowa champion defeated his Iowa rival, McKee, 9 and 8. In the other matches Alex Graham de-feated Jesse Stuttle, 2 and 1, and When Clair joined the W. O. W. W. J. Foye won from Jack Hughes, team a month ago it was not consid-2 and 1.

The victory of "Cap." Foye over Jack Hughes probably was the most noteworthy, owing to the former's age. The Capt. Foye who yesterday advanced to the semi-final round is the same Mr. Foye, who 22 years ago, won the medalist honors at the first Transmississippi golf meet, Elsch Property his closest friends had predicted that the 36-hole match would prove too much for him, but the captain was equal to the occasion, and not only succeeded in defeating his opponent, but was going strong at the finish of the match.

Most everyone on the course commented that his playing was remark-able for a man of his age, but a careful perusal of his card discloses that was even better than that. His according to a ruling of Commisplaying at times was on a par, if not better, than that of Von Elm and Knepper.
