Double Defense To Be Presented In Hammer Case

To Contend Mrs. Phillips Did Not Commit Murder and If She Did, Was Insane

Los Angeles, July 20. Mrs. Clara Phillips, indicted for the murder here last week of Mrs. Alberta Meadows, today entered a plea of not guilty and her case was set for trial in the superior court on September 12.

Expectations were that insanity would form the basis of the defense, her counsel hinting at the customary double defense in cases where insanity bars a conviction of murder.

Next to the eye witness story of Mrs. Peggy Caffee, who said she accompanied Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Meadows on the automobile ride which ended in Mrs. Meadows' death, the state is said to regard as of most importance, so far in their search for evidence, a statement of a saleswoman who sold a hammer to a woman answering the description of Mrs. Phillips.

Weighted Hammer Carefully. According to this clerk, the woman weighed the hammer carefully in her hand and then asked: "Do you think this is heavy enough to kill a man with?"

And the clerk thinking the customer was joking, smiled and replied: "Yes, if you hit him hard enough." And the sale was made.

"Legislation looking towards establishing a more adequate credit system for agriculture, lightening the load of existing financial institutions, is necessary. Legislation looking towards tax reduction, working out of the budget system, collection of foreign loans, sustaining and making effective prohibition and the general cause of law enforcement and clean government are matters that shall have my continued support and advocacy.

"This is the first entertainment put on by the newly organized community club.

Commissioner Vote Center of Interest

Aurora, Neb., July 20.—(Special Telegram.)—The election in Hamilton county centered in the contest for county commissioner on the republican ticket in District No. 1 and the contest for sheriff on the democratic ticket.

Frank Coykindall was nominated commissioner in the First district by a plurality of 14 over D. M. Walker and 30 over John W. Minton, present commissioner. This was a climax to a campaign of several months.

Coykindall has attacked the present board of commissioners on the issue of expenses and taxes. He secured a petition with 600 names seeking the board to collect certain taxes it had remitted.

Sheriff James E. Howard was re-nominated by a vote of two to one. His principal opponent was Frank Hammond, formerly county treasurer. The contest between these two men was spectacular and it is said that many republicans voted for one of these candidates. The republican nominee for sheriff is O. T. McConaughy.
