

Murder Splits Katz Family Into Bitter Factions

Outbreak Between Infuriated Women Takes Place on Steps of Courthouse Where Defendants Arraigned.

New York, July 29.—No Corsican vendetta was marked with greater bitterness than the feud which has split the family of Bertha Katz into two factions since her sister, Mrs. Minnie Reiser, her sons, George and Morris Reiser, and her brother, Max Katz, broke into Miss Katz's home in Brownsville Wednesday morning and left it only when assured the young woman was dying, with three bullet wounds in her body.

Flings Policemen.

Mrs. Rosenzweig, a huge woman of great strength, flung two policemen aside as if they were children as she attacked Mrs. Landorff, screaming with rage and tearing at her sister's face.

Mrs. Landorff had come from New Haven, Conn., to attend the arraignment of Mrs. Reiser, her son and brother, before County Judge McMahon in Brooklyn, after all four had been indicted for murder in the first degree. She had not been on good terms with her sisters and her sympathies in the tragedy of Miss Katz' slaying are supposed to lie with Mrs. Reiser.

Mrs. Landorff paled with fright when her sister rushed at her and, swinging a heavy hand bag in Mrs. Rosenzweig's face, tore herself from the latter's grip and ran terrified back into the courthouse she had just left. The scene of the outbreak was on the steps of the building.

Shouted for Help.

Mrs. Stadler, who had just left the side of her brother, "John the barber," shouted for help when she saw Mrs. Feinberg rushing at her. She also made effective use of her hand bag to cover her retreat.

Three policemen and two court matrons finally subdued Mrs. Rosenzweig and Mrs. Feinberg. No such scene has been witnessed at the Brooklyn courthouse in the memory of its oldest attendant. Frank threats were hurled across the halls by the warring women that others than Bertha Katz would meet the fate which closed her life's chapter.

Mrs. Jennie Katz, mother of both Bertha and Mrs. Reiser, gave bail in $2,500 to assure her appearance at the trial of her daughter, son and grandchildren for the murder.

George C. McDaniel has been retained to defend Mrs. Reiser on the murder indictment. The defense, it was said, will be one of "transitory insanity," based on the code of the unwritten law.

Man 'Driven to Drink' by Wife Told to Start in On Lake Michigan

Chicago, July 29.—One stingy kiss in six years was the meager allowance doled out to Mrs. Helen R. Hamilton, whose husband, Howard S. Hamilton, draws a salary of $6,000 a year. She sued for separate maintenance, charging, among other things, that her husband has affairs with other women. She also says he has not been sober for the last two years.

Thomas Andler told Judge Asa Adams that his wife, Martha, had "driven him to drink." They have been estranged for six weeks, each charging cruelty. Judge Adams put him on probation for a year.

"If your wife drives you to drink, as you claim," said the judge, "start in on Lake Michigan and after you get through with that tackle the ocean."

Milligan Bankers Are Held for High Court Trial

Geneva, Neb., July 29.—(Special.)—In the preliminary hearing of E. J. Kotas and Adolph Kotas of Milligan, arrested on the charge of violation of the state banking laws, right to present testimony was waived and the brothers bound over to district court under bond for $10,000 each. The closing of the bank, it is alleged, was caused by the operations of the Milligan Grain company, which was operated by E. J. Kotas. The elevator owned by the Milligan company has been leased by the A. Koechler company of Geneva.

Followers of Long Asked to Political Funeral of Reed

Bittest Fight in Years Waged Over Senatorial Contest in "Show Me" State.

St. Louis, July 29.—(By A. P.)—Charges that leading democrats of the state, who are opposing the nomination of United States Senator James A. Reed, in favor of his opponent, Breckinridge Long, have threatened to bolt the party ticket if Reed would win the nomination, furnished the latest issue in the campaign for the primary election to be held next Tuesday.

In the opinion of politicians the present campaign has been the bitterest in the state for many years. Supported by the local press, "Rid-us-of-Reed" clubs and many other organizations, in which women are taking a leading part, Mr. Long will wind up his campaign here today.

On the other hand, Senator Reed who has based his campaign on the motto that he defended the people's rights, his followers say, is expected to show more strength especially in the rural districts, than seemed likely in the offering of the contest.

Circulars were sent out, inviting the Long followers to attend Mr. Reed's "political funeral Saturday at which supporters of Mr. Long will act as pallbearers."

In addition a public demonstration has been arranged by the "Rid-us-of-Reed" club. The third democratic candidate, R. L. Young of St. Joseph, is not expected to play a prominent part in the race for the United States senate seat. Two years ago Mr. Young was a candidate for congressman of his district making his campaign on a strictly "wet" platform.

Six republicans are in the race for nomination but the contest for the republican nomination has not been fought with such bitterness. Long supporters have repeatedly made the charge that Senator Reed was relying on a heavy vote from the republican party.
