

Frollicking with Frisky Waves at Carter Lake

A youthful "mother" industriously engaged in giving her kewpie child its morning bath.

Carter Lake club members are duly proud of their commodious clubhouse

Out on the lake with a stiff breeze from the southwest

Carter Lake club directors. Left to right, front, H. C. Kelgard, George E. Toozer, H. H. Jones, L. P. Heeney, C. B. Adair; rear, W. F. Knapp, John H. Dexten, W. L. Holzman, H. A. Jacobberger.

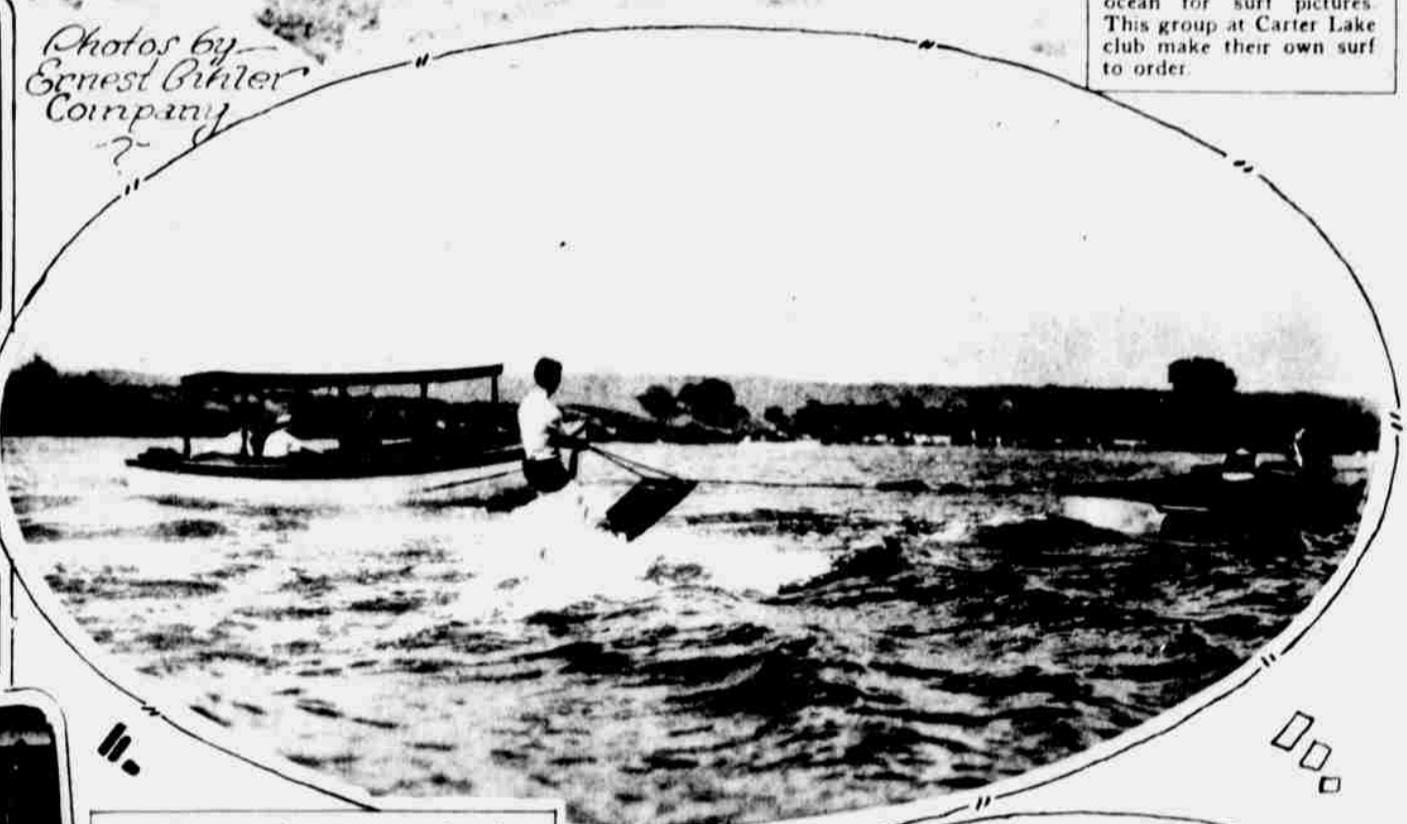

No need to go to the ocean for surf pictures. This group at Carter Lake club make their own surf to order.

Photos by Ernest Gihler Company

Motor boating is one of the popular Carter lake pastimes.

A thrill a second is guaranteed seekers of excitement who follow the sport pictured above. Below, a group of Carter Lake club members and some of the numerous canoes at the club.

"At ease." Now that woman runs for office 'everything why not let her paddle her own canoe?"

After the plunge. A hair drying party on the beach.

