

Sheriff Leaps to Automobile to Get Alcohol Peddler

Plattsmouth Official Performs Daring Feat to Capture Alleged Bootlegger and 5 Gallons of Booze.

Plattsmouth, Neb., Aug. 15.—(Special)—Deputy State Sheriff Karl Schmitt effected the capture of an alleged bootlegger here last night by leaping from his car into a speeding machine which contained five gallons of alcohol.

Schmitt and Sheriff Quinton were in the vicinity of the Nebraska Masonic Home when a Buick roadster passed. The driver failed to stop when hailed, so they took after the car and when near to Sixth street intersection Schmitt jumped into the other machine and brought it to the courthouse to await disposition. Beside the alcohol, officers found an automatic gun.

The driver of the car gave the name of John Hantel and his residence as Tecumseh, and stated he had secured the liquor in Omaha. He was fined $100 and costs by Justice William Weber.

Republicans Adopt Campaign Platform

1. The prompt refunding of all debts of European nations due the United States government, as provided by law, the ultimate collection of the principal and the collection of all interest thereon as the same accrues.

2. The maintenance, strengthening and enforcement of laws rendering effective the 18th amendment.

3. The submission of a national constitutional amendment, if necessary, for the limitation of child labor in mills and factories.

4. Friendly co-operation with the nations of Europe, wherever practicable, to the end of re-establishment of normal conditions.

5. The distribution of the membership of the federal reserve board so as to be fully representative of the various business and farming interests of the country.

Raising of Loan Limits.

6. The raising of the legal limit of loans that may be made by Federal land banks, from $10,000 to $25,000.

7. The rendering to the soldiers, sailors and marines of the world war every assistance which a grateful nation should justly render, in accordance with the policy of the republican party since its foundation; including the immediate building of such additional modern hospitals as are necessary to provide proper treatment of all cases requiring hospitalization, the establishment of regional branches of the war risk insurance bureau, the granting of vocational training with training pay to all disabled men, and the immediate passage by the senate and approval by the president of the five-fold plan of adjusted compensation passed by the republican house, the burden of the necessary taxation to be placed upon the wealth of the country.

8. The immediate return of all American troops on the Rhine frontier.

9. The enactment of a rational protective tariff, to the end of maintaining our high standard of living and to conserve our resources for ourselves and our children, all schedules to be framed so as to destroy and not foster monopoly.

10. The development of St. Lawrence waterway project, to the end of decreasing freight rates to the seaboard.

11. The enactment of national legislation designed to obviate the recurrence of such disastrous industrial warfare to which the country is now subjected, care being taken to do full justice to the general public, employers and employees.

12. We commend the objects and aims of the national reclamation act and urge the immediate completion of projects now under construction and the further extension and development of the lower valley irrigation projects; that the cost of all storage reservoirs now constructed or to be constructed for flood waters, being simply an enlargement of the present policy of stream control and a distinct step toward making a beneficial use of such waters, be transferred to the national river improvement fund, with the condition that such transfer shall in no wise affect priorities; and we further urge the passage of the measure now pending in congress to provide for the extension of the terms of payment of the cost of federal irrigation projects for a period of 40 years without interest.

Congratulate State Officials.

13. We congratulate the state officials upon the achievements of the state administration; upon the enactment of a comprehensive group of laws relating to agricultural co-operation and marketing; upon the prompt approval of the amendment to the federal constitution giving the right of suffrage to women; and providing for national prohibition; upon the enactment of the budget legislation; upon the reorganization of the state government upon a basis of approval of business efficiency; upon the passage of laws in harmony with the wishes and in the interest of our service men and the women of our state; upon the completion of the six-year good roads program; upon the policy of strict law enforcement; upon the reorganization of the state ment of labor of equal rank with the other state departments; upon the enactment of beneficial amendments to the workmen's compensation law and the successful administration of this law in the interest of injured workmen; upon the enactment of the $2,000,000 revolving fund for the relief of soldiers and sailors of the recent war and their families in distress; upon the development of the child welfare bureau, the acceptance from the federal government of the funds under the Shepherd-Towner maternity bill, and the increased interest shown in public health and welfare; upon the calling of a special session of the legislature, early in the year 1922, and the reduction of state appropriations of $2,000,000 making it possible to reduce the general fund levy of the state for this year one-third, so that the state tax for the year 1922 will be $3,589,398.46 less than in the year 1921.

Pledges of Party.

We pledge the party to the following:

1. The development of the agricultural and labor departments so as to be of the greatest use and benefit possible to agriculture and labor.

2. The reduction of taxes and public expenses in every department of state consistent with efficiency and good government, as well as in each county where 81 per cent of the taxpayer's dollar is spent.

3. The continued development of good roads consistent with the demand of the people.

4. The completion of the new state capitol building within the limits of the appropriation fixed by law.

5. The continued support of legislation aiding the farmer in carrying on his industry and marketing his crops, to the end that this basic industry may have a fair return upon the capital and labor invested.

6. The elimination of all administrative duplications wherever it will assist in the reduction of the cost of government without impairing its efficiency.

7. The principles of the civil administrative code, subject to such amendments as four years of experience have demonstrated will make for further efficiency and economy.

Women's Work Praised.

8. The direct, state-wide primary law, a measure first given to this state by the republican legislature of 1907.

9. The repeal of the indeterminate sentence law and the enactment of such legislation as may be necessary to render certain the adequate punishment of criminals.

10. The development of water power district legislation to the end of rendering possible the development of water power by and for the benefit of the public.

11. The further conservation and development of the forest possibilities of the state, to the end that the people of Nebraska have full advantage and benefit of all the state's natural resources.

We heartily commend the women of this state for their keen interest in public affairs, and welcome them as full partners in the enterprise of government and the affairs and activities of the republican party.

We congratulate the voters upon the fact that our candidates were nominated in a free and friendly primary, without any attempt at evasion of the primary, or slate-making or dictation by any candidate, leader or boss, and bespeak for them a 49 laudibus snoumum pure Alingq the voters of the state.

A Rich Malt Extract is a Wonderful Thing

If it is made out of choice malt barley it has wonderful nourishment for every use. If fresh pressed hops are used, it has a wonderful flavor. But when malt extract is adulterated with cheap corn it is of no use for any use.

So when somebody tries to sell you a malt extract cheaper than the actual price of the barley that goes into it, you can know that the cheapest barley hasn't gone into it.

Puritan Malt Extract is the richest malt extract made because it is the product of the choicest barley grown.

With Puritan you can have your choice of two products. You can get the plain Puritan Malt Extract (gray label) with the separate package of hops that are pressed to keep them fresh; or you can get the Puritan Hop Flavored Malt Sugar Syrup (green label) which is the same rich malt extract already flavored with imported Bohemian Hops.

Be sure you ask for Puritan if you want the best results.
