Bryan "Sits in" at Meeting of Capitol Board

Governor McKelvie Invites Successor to Confab to Meet Commission Members and Learn Details.

Lincoln, Dec. 4.—(Special.)—Although Governor-elect Charles W. Bryan does not become chairman of the state capitol commission until after his inauguration, January 4, he "sat in" at a meeting of the board held today in the office of Governor S. R. McKelvie. It was his first appearance in the state house since his election.

Bryan was present on invitation by Governor McKelvie. "I thought he might take advantage of this opportunity to meet the members and learn of the work and details being handled by the board," Governor McKelvie said. Every member of the commission, except W. H. Thompson of Grand Island, was present at the meeting. The architect, B. G. Goodhue of New York city, was also present.

To date Bryan has not made any public statement as to whether the action taken a year ago by the board, led by W. H. Thompson, democratic member in appointing George E. Johnson permanent secretary at a salary of $5,000 a year pleased or displeased him. Mr. Johnson begins drawing his salary January 1, 1923.

Democrats are endeavoring to make a loophole for Bryan to dispose of the entire board by saying that the law creating the capitol commission enacted in 1919, fixes no definite terms for the three members appointed.

cash prizes offered by the Chicago Board of Trade. Bigland's sample weighed 46 1/2 pounds to the bushel. Canadian farmers were even more elated over carrying off the premier wheat growing honors. The Board of Trade cup was awarded to R. O. Wyler, Luseland, Sask., for having grown the best wheat produced on the continent this year. He won with a sample of hard red spring. Montana had held the title, it having been won last year by G. W. Kraft of Bozeman, from J. C. Mitchell of Dahinda, Sask.
