

DOUBT SHORTENING OF TRAINING GOOD

CHICAGO, Jan. 15 (UP)—The American Medical Association expressed fear today that a proposed speedup in training physicians would lower standards of the medical profession.

An editorial in the A.M.A. weekly publication noted that several medical colleges had adjusted their curricula to shorten the training period to increase the supply of physicians for the armed forces.

The editorial expressed doubt that all schools could increase the number of students admitted, offer a continuous course of study and maintain minimum educational standards.

Students entering medical schools this year would not be available for service before 1946, the article said, and there would be no immediate gain from such emergency measures. It added that several problems would develop in the revised courses but that the question of medical standards was the "most important."

"If more students are admitted and a larger percentage fails, little useful purpose will have been achieved," the editorial said.

"If examinations are abolished, if pressure on a faculty makes it pass unqualified men, if standards of study required for graduation are lowered so that a larger number of students each year receive the medical degree, the ultimate effect will be serious both on the army medical service and to the people."

ASSIGN LINDBERGH PLACE

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (UP)—Charles A. Lindbergh has been assigned to a "technical commercial project" in which the war department is interested and will serve in a civilian capacity, Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson announced today.

Lindbergh conferred with Arnold and Lovett Tuesday, at which time he was assigned to his new post.

Stimson did not elaborate, except to say that Lindbergh would be assigned to other duties when the present project is completed. He stressed that Lindbergh had not been re-commissioned as a reserve officer.

UNIVERSITY STUDENTS HERE

A group of twenty University of Nebraska students from the class in clinical psychology motored through Plattsmouth today and breakfasted at the Joseph Langer cafe. The students and Dr. Dysinger, professor of psychology at the university, were driven to Glenwood, Iowa in a chartered Burlington bus. In Glenwood the group visited the Iowa state institute for the feeble minded. They made the trip by chartered bus from Lincoln.

BRITISH BOMB GERMANY

LONDON, Jan. 15 (UP)—British planes, resuming offensive operations over Germany and German-occupied territory, made a concentrated raid during the night on Hamburg, Germany's greatest port, and rained bombs on other objectives.

It was asserted that big fires were started on docks and in warehouses in Hamburg, the most-bombed city in Germany.

Other British planes ranged along the northwest German coast. They bombed Emden submarine base on the North Sea coast and other German ports.

Docks at Rotterdam and German airdromes in Holland also were attacked.

Five British planes failed to return.

A German official news agency dispatch, recorded here from the Berlin radio, said British planes dropped "a number" of bombs on the northern German coastal area, causing damage to "a private building" and causing "some dead and wounded."

Berlin asserted that anti-aircraft guns shot down at least three British planes.

McCOOK HAS STICK-UP

McCOOK, Neb., Jan. 15 (UP)—A nervous young man broke off negotiations with a clerk for hotel accommodations here early Wednesday morning by drawing a revolver and forcing James Gregg, the clerk, to remain seated while a masked confederate appeared and took $20 from the cash register.

The pair overlooked more cash and some Defense Bonds. Before leaving they yanked wires out of the switchboard. They left town in a new automobile and were seen by a truck driver speeding across the Kansas border soon after the robbery.

IMPROVING EQUIPMENT

Charles Petersen, proprietor of the local Recreational Parlors, is having the equipment of his place renovated and placed in the best of shape. The pool and billiard tables are having new rails and cushions as well as new coverings for the tables and when completed will be as active and live as new tables. The work is being handled by the Brunswick Palace Colander Co., experts in this line of work. The improvement will cost Mr. Petersen several hundred dollars when completed and make the playing more delightful to the patrons.

Canada Fights COUGHS

This New Amazing Way Acts Like A Flash

By far the largest selling cough medicine in all Canada is Buckley's CANADOL Mixture. Compounded from rare Canadian Pine Balsam (by a secret process) Buckley's is entirely different from anything else you ever tried. Get a bottle today—take a teaspoonful, let it lie on your tongue a moment then swallow slowly. INSTANTLY you feel its powerful effective action spread thru throat, head and bronchial tubes. Coughing spasms cease. Right away it loosens up thick choking phlegm—opens up clogged bronchial tubes—makes breathing easier. Now you'll know why over 10 million bottles of Buckley's famous cough mixture have been sold in cold, wintry Canada.

F. G. Fricke & Co. and most good druggists now have this great Canadian discovery.

"GUNS FROM TELEPHONES"

It is not literally true, of course, that telephones are being turned into guns. But many of the materials used in the manufacture of telephones and telephone equipment are being diverted to the construction of implements of war. This is as it should be. Our way of life is at stake and we must defend it at whatever cost.

Already we are finding it difficult to secure repair and replacement parts for existing equipment. New equipment—for providing new service—is completely out of the question for "the duration," except when needed for actual defense activities.

The "home front"—YOUR HOME and YOUR OFFICE—needs its present telephone service more than ever during these trying days. We advise you to keep ALL your present service as long as you have need for it—because we cannot guarantee our ability to replace it once it has been removed!
