In order to reduce the Salisbury stock of Goods we recently purchased so as to enable us to consolidate our two stores as soon as possible, we will for the

NEXT SIXTY DAYS

continue to give our customers better prices than they can secure at wholesale. We bought these goods in a lump, and at figures below eastern prices, hence we have no competitors in prices or quality of goods in Broken Bow. If you want real bargains in Dry Goods, Boots, Shoes, Clothing,

HARRY DAY & CO.

Letter from John Benjamin to his folks.

CALUMNET, P. I., Apr. 29, '99.

Dear Ones at Home: Well, we are still on the firing line and taking a new town every day or two. Maj. Mulford is in command and is trying to get us relieved. He went to Gen. McArthur and told him he wanted a rest for himself and men. McArthur asked him how provost guard would be, and Mulford said he did not want it at all. He told him he wanted to get in barracks in town somewhere, with nothing to do but rest. Mulford told him that if we had to work all the time we would just as soon be on the firing line. You probably know all our movements by the papers. I can't write much, for this is all the paper I have, and the only envelope. All my writing material got wet when I swam the river before we took Calumnet. All our officers think we will be relieved in a day or two, for we sadly need it. I am all right and in good health, but pretty badly worn out.

From your loving son and brother.

May 31st 1899.

I want to suggest through the REPUBLICAN that when company M. returns the reception tendered them and all the volunteers who enlisted from this county be given by Custer county. Why not Broken Bow initiate the movement for a two days encampment for the old soldiers and the new with all their friends? Custer county looks upon company M. as representative of all our people. Many townships have furnished one or more of the noble youth of whom we all are so proud. At the Decoration Day services in Sargent on motion of Comrade Morris it was unanimously voted to have a special day reception for all who went from this section. But why not a general county reception? To this end a committee might be appointed by Broken Bow Post of the Commanders of each G. A. R. Post in the county. Such a committee to prepare a program, while Washburn Post of Broken Bow be a special committee or arrangement and entertainment. If the sentiment is as warm in other sections as here Broken Bow would have a crowd surpassing any previous record. For once let our boys be the guests of honor of the county. Let them come together after a few days or weeks rest as may be deemed best to renew comradeship while we citizens thank and congratulate them for the record they helped to make for our state and the nation. Respectfully submitted.

OLD SOLDIER.

On the Road to Prosperity.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

We see by the Beacon that the Tories are not dead yet. This government is too liberal, for some people are so blatant that they condemn everything that is not done by their party. The only punishment that I would wish them, would be to send them to Russia, where they would be educated to know the right, and do the same. The Beacon says that things are so corrupt that they can scarcely exist. When a man makes the prayer that the Dutchman did, you can know his calibre, for his interest was to have God bless him and his wife, his son John and his wife, us four and no more, O Lord. When people want to be smart, and are blessed with shortsightedness, they will endeavor to run the affairs of state heaven and hell, but they are like the shell when the oyster is gone, they are dead issues. Progress is too fast for them. They cannot run, nor even stand alone, but must go with the tide, or not at all. What has the populist party ever done but to find fault, and endeavor to adorn themselves with angel wings, with which they would be out of their element, for to do right or wrong is their only policy, so that they may line their own pockets. Mr. Bryan is in the south, trying to be a Wheeler or Joe Hooker, but having lopped his political horns, he, like Ben Butler, will have to take his pay in spoons instead of office. When the sun of heaven looks down and smiles upon our administration, the pops and democrats are simply foxes before the hounds—they seek their place of safety, and snarl, snap and bark to show that they fight and run away, to live to fight another day.

Burlington Route—Cheap Tickets to Detroit, Mich.

Take advantage of the low rate—one fare plus $2 for the round trip to Detroit, which the Burlington Route has made for the '99 meeting of the Christian Endeavorers and go east at about half usual cost. July 3, 4 and 5, are the dates of sale. Berths, tickets and information about return limits, side trips from Detroit, etc., can be had at any Burlington Route ticket office. J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Omaha, Neb.

Spend the Summer in California.

The cost of getting there need not stand in your way. Late in June and early in July, the Burlington Route will sell round-trip tickets to Los Angeles at just about half the usual rate. Liberal return limits and stop-over privileges. For a hundred dollars you can not only go to Los Angeles and back, but you can, in addition, see pretty nearly all of southern California that is worth seeing.

Information and California literature on request. J. Francis, General Passenger Agent, Omaha Neb.

TRY COLORADO THIS SUMMER. Getting there costs very little—one fare plus $2.00 for the round trip—every day from June 25 to July 11. Tickets good to return until October 31st. See nearest Burlington agent and get particulars.

The time to go to California.

Is in summer. This summer—late in June or early in July—then sea and sky and vine-clad slope are at their best—when the rate is little more than half as much as usual.

If you take the Burlington Route you will have cooler weather and finer scenery than via any other line to California.
