Westerville.
As far as we have heard, wheat is only yielding about six bushels to the acre.

The question of Eli Armstrong not being qualified for office is under consideration in this town. Mrs. P. D. Mills left here last week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Leaning and Mrs. Robbins, of Wyoming.

The question has been asked, will Mr. Koon, the pop nominee for surveyor if elected, go out on Saturdays to survey? John Pollock and wife left here last Tuesday for Mr. Isaac Clark, for Anselmo, where Mr. Johnson will make his future home. He will assist Mr. Clark in the mill there.

Our boy Berger, although a boy in years, has been engaged to teach a school at Grandfield, in Lincoln county. He is one of our brightest boys, and one that will make an honorable record.

F. D. Mills, an old time democrat, and of late years a pop, says all true American citizens should stand by our country and the present administration at least until the present war is honorably settled.

The republican primary which was held here last Saturday, was the most harmonious one held in years. The republicans are united, and will give a good majority for the whole State. There were a few of the old time pop that sought their centre to return to the fold. They met with a hearty welcome, such as all other repenting ones will receive.

[Received too late for last week.]
Deer Creek.
The same busy old place.
Mr. W. H. Chase has been very sick the past few days.
Mr. H. J. Edgington sold a bunch of fat cattle a short time ago.
Mr. Montgomery still keeps the road well traveled, by hauling from Berwyn.

Miss Maga Hollinger, from Deer Creek, will teach the New Hope school this fall.
Almost every woman in the canyon after cherries; they are plenty, so are chiggers.
Miss Jeanie Todd, from Lee Park, was a welcome visitor at Mrs. J. A. Owen's last week.
Miss Belle Todd and Miss Maud Belinger were callers in this neighborhood last Tuesday and Wednesday.
A carpenter from Broken Bow was out to Mr. Burnett's last week, to draw up a contract to build a new school house.
The corn is more than good in Deer Creek this season, having been estimated to go as high as 60 bushels per acre.
The missionary meeting at Mrs. Hette's was largely attended, and they all enjoyed a good time, even to going home in the mud after the rain.
