Unless by accident, blindness always comes one way—by neglect. Eyes become weak; you strain them. They become weaker; you continue your carelessness until too late, comes—DEATH.

YOUR EYES may be warning you every day of their weakness—their inability to work without help. The eyes are "daily bread-makers" for most of us. They are priceless to all. Don't neglect them. Timely attention may save future misery.

J. T. Orr, of Laramie, who has been visiting here for several weeks with his father C. T. Orr and family left yesterday for Laramie where he will re-enter the university. He was one of Grigabv's rough riders and is on his return trip from the south where he was mustered out. Mr. Orr not only showed his loyalty to his government in upholding the administration in advocating the principles of the republican party. In this his father might have done well to follow the example of his son, instead of casting his lot with the supporters of Aguinaldo. After his complete defeat this fall he will remember the advice of his friends.

Our friend J. F. Keefe, of Morenci, Michigan, formerly a resident of this vicinity, in remitting for the renewal of his subscription, in speaking of Custer county shows that he has lost none of his loyalty for old Custer. He says, "reports from there and also from other sources I am pleased to hear cheering news of the prosperous condition of the people. Crops, especially corn, are very promising. Would like very much to be with you when the great First Nebraska boys come marching home. Every body here are loud in their praises of the work of the Nebraskans in the far east and well they should be. Give the boys all they ask for. Regard to old friends." Yours Truly, J. F. KEEFE.

Welcome Company M.

The First Nebraska is now enjoying the hospitality of its friends in various parts of the state. Co. M, went to Omaha yesterday with a majority of the regiment to the reception, and will be here this evening for the reception. Custer county has in store for them tomorrow. The advanced guard left the regiment at Hastings and went across to Aurora where they came up Tuesday night on 41. Those of Co. M, that came ahead were Paul Reynier, Oliver Brown, Oscar Carpenter, Claude Perkins, Howard Kerr, Clyde Pinkley and Corporal Criss.

As word had been received that the company would go on to Omaha they took their friends by surprise but never the less they were welcomed. The boys are looking well. Oscar Carpenter looks larger and Paul Reynier informs us that of the number of the company who came from Manila that did not come with them from San Francisco were Winch, Clay, Burtnell and Barton.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Welcome to Co. "M," of First Nebraska Volunteers.

(Written for the REPUBLICAN by Mrs. Alice Dowse Sims, of Westcott.)

They have reached home at last
Oh happy thought to know!
We'll blow the bugle blast
With patriot hearts aglow;
Welcome for them on every hand—
They're home again in native land.

Custer county is proud
Of her young noble sons,
Who fought in smoke and cloud
Beneath the firing guns,
Away from happy homes and friends—
Our welcome to them now extends.

With cheerful hearts they went,
And did their duty well;
Wherever they were sent—
Sweet thoughts on which to dwell.
But in our midst they are again,
These precious boys of Company "M."

Yes boys we reach our hand
While joyful hearts wild beat;
Welcome your happy band,
Wherever you we meet.
Our hearts in unison rejoice
To welcome you with song and voice.

Not words or song can tell
Nor richest dainties sweet,
What in each heart does dwell,
When soldier boys we meet.
All unite with welcoming cheers,
For First Nebraska Volunteers.

While some have naught but joy,
Others must sadly weep;
For their dear darling boys
Came not for them to greet;
We can but shed the scalding tear,
His happy welcome is not here.

Your tender words have come
To us from time to time,
Telling of our dear one
Who died in distant clime;
Although not all came home at last,
We have for you a rich repast.

The richest welcome grand
With royal diadem
Seems not half good enough
For boys of Company "M."
To you our praise and adoration,
Honored heroes of our nation.

—MRS. ALICE DOWSE SIMS

MOSES WILL LEAD US.

M. P. Kinkaid was Nominated for Congress by Acclamation

At the republican congressional convention at Lexington Tuesday, Judge M. P. Kinkaid, of O'Neill, was nominated for congress by acclamation. Judge Kinkaid is not one of the bum politicians, which sometimes secure nominations in high places, but rather a modest, conservative and able jurist, that has the high esteem of his constituents, and is very popular with the masses. He is a man, who those who believe in a high creed of morals, can support without any compunction of conscience, and yet is not objectionable to those who are not so conscientious, but respect those who live up to their profession. In congress he will make an active worker, and an untiring laborer for the interests of his constituency. The soldier or citizen who may have business at Washington, will find in Judge Kinkaid a most efficient aid. He is not a gifted orator, but rather a faithful and untiring advocate, with a boundless resource of energy.

The Western Marble Works.

A. H. Lewis and A. C. White under the firm name of Lewis & White have opened up business in this city and will manufacture tomb stones. They are located on the north side of the public square, two doors west of the Wilde building. Both Messrs Lewis and White are practicable men in the business and are prepared to furnish any class of work desired and equal to any in the country.

No License.

A special meeting of the city council was held Saturday last week to consider the applications for saloon license. Petitions had been signed for two saloons and the legal notice had been given by publication, but neither had any impression on the members of the council, as every member remained true to their pledges before election and voted against license.

Judge F. G. Hamer Nominated.

At the judicial convention held at Lexington Tuesday night F. G. Hamer, of Kearney, was nominated. The judge is well and favorably known in this district and is the strongest man that could have been nominated.

Died.

MOONEY—At the residence of his parents, in this city, Saturday night, August 25th, John A. Mooney, of typhoid fever, aged years and 4 months.

The deceased, for the past year, had been in the employ of the B. & M. railroad company at Alliance, where he had a position in the shops. He had had a siege of six weeks with typhoid fever, and came home to recruit his health about five weeks ago. Through exposure, he was taken with a relapse. His system had become so reduced that he was in bad condition to withstand a second siege of the same disease, and after a lingering illness, death relieved him of his suffering. He was a member of the Catholic church. His funeral was conducted Tuesday morning by Fathers Haley, of North Platte, and Duda, of this place, in the Catholic church, and his remains laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery west of the city. He leaves an aged father and mother, and sister, Mrs. J. S. Baisch, to mourn his departure.

PATTERSON—Friday, August 25th, Mrs. Bettie Patterson (colored) from hemorrhage, aged 33 years and 8 months.

The deceased had, a few hours previous, given birth to twins, a boy and a girl. She had been a resident of the city for several years, and in that time had built up an intimate acquaintance, and had a large circle of lady friends. She was a hard worker, an excellent cook, and was regarded as indispensable when a big feast or wedding dinner was to be prepared. She was a member of the Baptist church, and a faithful follower of her Master. The day before her sickness, she seemed to have a premonition of her approaching death. She told her daughter Thursday evening to get ready and go to prayer meeting, as it would be the last time she would be here to tell her to go to church. The same evening she gave detailed direction in regard to her burial, stating to her nurse that she would not be here longer than part of the next day. She also stated that her Lord was waiting to receive her. The funeral services were conducted Sunday morning in the Baptist church, by Rev. J. W. Megan, assisted by Revs. Hornaday and Hadden. She leaves a husband and seven children to mourn her death.

MODERN MIRACLES.

Magnetic Healing, And what it is Doing to Alleviate Suffering.

Dr. Potter, the most eminent physician of Kansas City, Mo., has located in Broken Bow, having arrived here on August 28th. Dr. Potter is a fine physician and surgeon, as well as one of the best Magnetic Healers of modern times. Read what the Kansas City Star says of him:

A reporter of the Star recently had his attention called to some wonderful cures which were being made by Dr. A. Potter, originator of the Potter method of magnetic healing. It may not be generally known, but Dr. Potter is being visited by hundreds of people from all over the United States who want to be cured. The fame of his new healing has reached all the medical journals, and is one of the most marvelous advances made in medical science.

Dr. Potter teaches this art to others, and does not claim any more power than other men possess if they only know how. You can learn how to heal yourself as well as others.

Dr. Potter will take a few students at a very low price. All who want a profession that will pay them from ten to twenty five dollars a day, please call and see what I have to offer. My method of magnetic healing is different from all others.

Dr. POTTER. Originator of the Potter method of Magnetic Healing.

Below mention is made of a few cures by Dr. Potter:

Amos Markey, Warrensburg, Mo., was cured of a cancer of the face in two weeks, treatment in 1892, and is well today.

Mrs. Ellen Stephens, of 610 West Thirtieth-st., Kansas City, Mo., could not walk for three weeks with rheumatism. In one treatment Dr. Potter made her walk.

Mr. William Menner, of Salisbury, Mo., ex-sheriff of the county, was cured of rheumatism and lameness of fifteen years' standing in a few treatments.

Rev. J. E. Robinson, Kansas City, Mo., was cured of weak eyes and nasal catarrh. Not only does Dr. Potter make these cures personally at his office, but treats hundreds at a distance, and makes just as remarkable cures. Below are a few absentees:

Miss Etta Stover, of Greenfield, O., was cured of gonorrhea in a short time.

Mrs. Mary Allen, Fremont, A. T., had stomach and bowel trouble 10 years, and was cured almost instantly after being given up to die by eight physicians, and taking all kinds of medicine.

Dr. Potter—Enclosed find cash for another month's treatment. I am improving rapidly. Let me hear from you so soon as you receive this letter. I feel better, and can do more work with less fatigue, than for years. Your treatment is certainly wonderful. Let me hear from you by return mail. Yours fraternally, REV. A. J. BARNES.

Dr. Potter has associated with him Prof. O. G. Sofield, of Broken Bow, Nebraska, and they can be seen and consulted at their office room in the Realty block at any time. Address all letters to Dr. Potter, first stairway from west end of block.
