CARD PARTY.

DINNER PARTY.

Last Friday Mrs. Allison Stuckey was hostess to a few of her friends at a six o'clock course dinner in honor of Miss Greninger. The ladies were invited for the afternoon and as the day was bright with sunshine and warm, the guests adjourned to the lawn, where the games of childhood's sunny days were again played with all the enthusiasm of those earlier days. After a most refreshing and cooling drink, the remainder of the afternoon was devoted to whist. At six o'clock dinner was served. Covers were laid for twelve.

The table decoration was a mound of green alfalfa, in the center of which rested brilliant scarlet geraniums. Mrs. Stuckey proved herself such an altogether charming hostess, that it is not to be wondered at, that the guests tarried long after the customary time of departure. The guests were Mesdames Rublee, McComas, House, H. Bruce, Gutterson, Mevis, E. R. Purcell, Molyneux, Xanders, Miss Slater Boone, Iowa, Miss Greninger New York City, Mrs. Bolte, Milwaukee.

HILTON-PENNINGTON.

Last Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock the marriage of Miss Francis Hilton to James H. Pennington took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Hilton. Rev. Thompson of the M. E. church officiated.

The bride wore a rose-wood colored princess gown trimmed in embroidered cream net and heavily braided.

The bride and groom were unattended, the ceremony being witnessed only by the parents of the bride.

Tuesday morning the bride and groom left for a few days visit with relatives in the country east of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilton's gift to their daughter was a handsome new piano. There were numerous other useful and ornamental gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Pennington will leave next Monday for their new home near Columbus. Mr. Pennington has accepted the position of operator for the U. P. railroad at that place.

The best wishes of their many friends will accompany them to their new home.

TWO HONOR GUESTS.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Elisha Taylor and daughter Mrs. William Jenkins entertained at the home of the former in honor of Mrs. Bolte and Miss Greninger. Whist was played at seven tables. The score cards were dainty affairs, with original heads, done in water color, by Miss Ruth Jones. Mrs. Stuckey and Gillings having the same high score, were obliged to cut; Mrs. Gillings won, and was presented with a Dutch Head, done in water color. Mrs. Bolte, having the lowest score, was presented with a china foxy grandpa. A delicious supper was served by Mesdames Taylor and Jenkins, assisted by the Misses Ruth Jones, Irma Willing and Lulu Taylor.

RECEPTION AND BANQUET.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Rublee received an invitation card reading like this, "You are very cordially invited to attend a complimentary reception and banquet given by the ladies of the Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock in the M. W. A. Hall Oct. 14, 1909. Gifts for the Manse fund will be received. The night of the 14th Mr. and Mrs. Rublee donated their 'glad rags' and started for the hall in a happy frame of mind, as F. M. after consulting his wife had decided on the amount of his gift to the Manse fund. As they neared the hall they saw it shrouded in Egyptian darkness. Going to the nearest telephone, many inquiries failed to throw light on the matter. Next morning a search in the waste basket revealed the fact that the envelope was post marked, Anselmy.

Settled by Marriage.

The man who was arrested some days ago, Grant Albert Darrah, for living with a Mrs. Beets and raising two children by them living together; married the woman last week, and made out written article declaring he was the father of the children, and adobting them into his family, making them his heirs; this was required by the county attorney, who declared that marriage alone did not legitimize the children. In this case suit had been brought by the county against the man, in the name of Supervisors for the maintenance of the woman and children, and the farm, which, was clear, was tied up. This action now removes the stain of Bastardy from the children, gives the woman a property right in the land and fixes a maintenance for them. Judge Shinn performed the marriage ceremony, with county attorney Gadd as witness.

The Beacon Sees Spooks.

Our friendly contemporary, the Beacon is very much exercised because the republican candidates that chance to be holding a county deputyship have occasional taken a day off to attend a fair or old settlers meeting to form acquaintance with the voters of the county. All told they have been absent from their offices four days this fall since they were selected by the primaries as candidates. As clerks they by custom of well regulated business are entitled to two weeks vacation but none of them have taken that during the whole time they have been employed by the county. It would be better for them as well as the county if they would take a vacation and get out door exercise. They would be able to do the county better service by doing it.

The absence from the office is different from a deputy as the clerk's duties are purely clerical while that of the principal is executive. Further than that there is probably not a clerk in any of the county offices that has been there the past four years but has put in more extra hours for the county in that time than they would use were they out every day during the rest of the campaign.

When the pops were in the county offices we remember them holding their meeting over the county whenever they choose, yet the office run along just the same as well as their salaries.

BARBER TRIES TO END LIFE.

Clay Williamson, Of This City Shoots Himself.

Clay Williamson, a barber 42 years of age, shot and dangerously wounded himself Tuesday night with .32 caliber revolver. The wound being inflicted with suicidal intent.

Williamson it is said has been dissipating heavily for some time past, and for the last few days, confined himself to cheap hard cider, Jamaica ginger and lemon extracts. The effects of this combination produced a suicidal mania and he determined to make away with himself in the presence of his daughter, who was too young to realize the seriousness of the intent. However, as he picked up the revolver and placed it to his head, the little one seized her father by the arm and exclaimed: 'Oh, papa! Don't shoot yourself in the head. It will hurt like everything'. The man immediately lowered his arm, placed the revolver against his right side and fired. Drs. Pennington and Mullins worked over him nearly all night trying to find the bullet, but were unsuccessful. Williamson comes of good family and is from Kansas City, Mo., where has a father who is a well-known Baptist minister. His condition is serious. He now expresses himself as sorry of the deed.
